the playoff game in the top of te first inning, scored again in the aird, and added three more in the urth to lead 5-0 going into the ottom of the fifth.

In the bottom of the fifth the ew champs put on a brilliant show their scoring potential as they bunded out four hits, including iple by Dave Jones, drew 4 walks nd scored 8 big runs. But East allas was not quitting just yet, in ie op of the sixth ousted Bob ern from the mound by scoring ins to tie the score.

Nother team scored again unti ne bottom of the seventh, when ehman-Jackson pushed across the inning run. Jim Harris started if the inning by smashing a single left field. Don Burnett drew a alk, and Ed Dubil got on forcing arris at third, bringing up Bob unkle with men on first and secnd and one out. Kunkle, an exeme pull hitter down the left eld line, completely fooled the ast Dallas defense by slashing a ng single to right field, easily oring Burnett from second base ith the winning run.
