Nancy Alice Hand Becomes Bride of Charles H. Schmauch

At a lovely August wedding, Miss Nancy Hand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hand, 732 Kamm Avenue, S. River, N. J., became the bride of Charles Schmauch, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schmauch, 65 Bedford Street, Forty Fort, on Saturday afternoon, August 10.

Double ring ceremony was performed in Forty Fort Presbyterian Church with Rev. Harold Mante officiating, before an altar decorated with white snapdragons, fugiums and pom-poms. Organist was Mrs. Lee Blomaker and Gordon Evans, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length silk brocade organza gown made with a scoop neckline, fitted bodice and long tapered sleeves. The full skirt was styled with alencon lace appliques and flounce caught with cabbage roses with a bustle effect in back.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls. She wore a pearl necklace, gift of the bridegroom and carried a swing bouquet of white roses, fugiums and variegated ivy.

Miss Jennie Hill, aunt of the bride, was maid of honor and was gowned in a yellow chiffon sleeveless street length dress fashioned with a fitted bodice and full skirt. She wore a matching headpiece of cabbage roses. Her swing bouquet was of bronze daisies, pompons and fugiums, interspersed with English ivy.

The bridesmaids, Misses Grace Durovich, Carol Morehouse, June Manger and Lorraine Scull, classmates of the bride and all of New Jersey, wore identical yellow gowns and headpieces and carried swing bouquets of gold and bronze pompons, yellow fugiums and English ivy.

The bride's mother chose a turquoise silk sheath with white, accessories and corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mother of the groom wore a pink chiffon dress over taffeta made with a scoop neckline. Her accessories were white and she carried a purse corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Ethel Hand, grandmother of the bride wore a blue and white silk dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Best man was William Schmauch, brother of the bridegroom. James Sgarlat, David Moyle, Corey Howell and Foster Swan served as ushers.

Reception followed the ceremony at Iron Temple Country Club.

The couple left on a honeymoon trip through the New England States. They will reside at the Oak Apartments, 1149 Wyoming Avenue, Forty Fort.

The bride chose a yellow and white two piece Arnel outfit for going away. She wore white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Out of town guests included the groom's grandfather, Albert Schmauch, Allentown; Miss Haruko Kuki, Japan; Miss C. Jennie Davies, South Wales.

Mrs. Schmauch is a graduate of South River High School, and Trenton State Teachers College. She will be a member of the faculty of Luzerne County Schools in September.

The bridegroom graduated from Forty Fort High School and will be a member of the senior class at Wilkes College in the fall.

The bride is the niece of Herbert and Henry Hill and Miss Jennie Hill, Shavertown, and granddaughters of the late Herbert Hill, well known Back Mountain florist.

She was feted at several pre-nuptial parties given by Miss Jennie Hill, Shavertown; Mrs. Barbara Shuman, Forty Fort; Mrs. Jane Gardner and her bridal attendants in New Jersey.

Dallas Couple Wed Recently

MR. AND MRS. WILLIAM M. WARD

Dallas Methodist Church was the setting recently for the wedding of Mrs. Naomi F. Lech, daughter of Mrs. Helen Lech, R.D. 3, Dallas and the late Charles T. Lech, and William M. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert A. Ward, R.D. 4, Dallas.

Rev. Russell Lawry performed the double ring ceremony. Richard Oliver was soloist and Miss Fern Coldren, organist.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Daniel J. Bilski, Levittown, the bride was attired in a floor length gown of nylon over silk taffeta, featuring a basque lace bodice, designed with a portrait neckline and long sleeves that tapered at the wrists. The bouffant skirt of nylon was accented by front lace inserts. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was emphasized by a crown of artificial flowers set in ring-like fashion. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Patricia Swan, maid of honor, wore a yellow floor length gown of lace and organza over taffeta featuring a fitted bodice with wide straps. The lace tuxedo type front exposed two tiny bows at the midriff. The bouffant skirt had a butterfly drape of lace caught on both sides with a cabbage rose. Her picture hat of lace featured a large bow in the back. She carried green carnations.

Bridesmaids were: Miss Stella Lech, cousin of the bride, and Miss Marie Stocker. They wore mint green gowns and headpieces identical to the maid of honor.

The mother of the bride chose a pink silk organza cocktail dress, highlighted with appliques across the bodice. She wore white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Parents Fete Son On Second Birthday

Little Charles Dwayne Nafus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nafus, R. D. #1, Dallas, was honored at a birthday party given by his parents on August 17 on the occasion of his second birthday.

A large birthday cake occupied the center of the festive table set amidst the attractive garden of his home. Bright balloons strung about added an exciting touch of color.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Saraka, Sr., Huntsville Road, and daughter Doris; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kreller, Charlotte and Bradley, Sweet Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Saraka, Jr., Joey, Debra, Cheryl and Eugene, Trucks-ville; Mr. George Nafus, Luzerne; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kenneth Carey, Harvey's Lake; the guest of honor and his parents.

Charles' mother is the former, Dolores Saraka.

The bridegroom's mother was attired in an iris blue nylon dress with deeper blue satin print, white accessories and a pink corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception and dinner was held at the American Legion Post 132, North River Street, Wilkes-Barre after which the couple left for Virginia Beach.

The bride was graduated from Dallas Township High School and attended the American Institute of Banking. She is employed by the Miners National Bank, Dallas Branch, Dallas.

The bridegroom was graduated from Lehman High School. He served three years in the U. S. Army and is employed by Royer Foundry and Machine Co., Kingston.

The bride was entertained at a shower given by her attendants, Misses Pat Swan, Marie Stocker, Stella Lech and Martha Fitzgerald. An after-rehearsal party was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

The couple are residing at R. D. 3, Dallas.

Vacationing Drust Family Explore Interesting Sites

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Drust and family took an extended motor tour recently visiting spots of interest in surrounding areas and in nearby New York State.

First stop was the Pleasant Mountain Hatchery at Nicholson well worth the trip according to the Drust enthusiasm.

Next was a visit to the Bellefonte Fish Hatcheries, of tremendous inspiration to Mr. Drust, a dyed in the wool fisherman. Fly-casting in Fisherman's Paradise nearby was a pleasant source of relaxation.

The group visited Oswego Lake, where they stayed overnight with Mr. Gerald Emerick, uncle of Mrs. Andrew Sokol.

The clear blue green spring fed waters provided excellent swimming and boating facilities and again Mr. Drust was amazed at the fine species of trout found at the lake, which forms the mouth of the Susquehanna River.

Then on to Cooperstown, where the group toured the Baseball Hall of Fame. Especially fascinating was the floor devoted to the late Babe Ruth's trophies and memoranda. The Museum there and the home of James Fenimore Cooper also proved most worthwhile. Baseball fans, the Drusts say, should include the Hall as a must on every enthusiast's agenda.

On the way back, the Drusts took in the Woodland Museum, which displays arrangements of native flowers and wildlife in their natural habitat.
