Charles Harris Making Progress

Dallas Boy Critically Injured In Accident

Taken off the critical list yester-Mrs. Joseph Harris, Yeager provement at Nesbitt Hospital.

The youngster was struck by a car driven by Mrs. Joan Brobst, Shaver Avenue, Shavertown, Friday evening at 5:55 p.m. on Pioneer

Charles was playing with neighbors Johnny and Jimmy Devlin when the boys decided to leave the Devlin yard and search out a newly constructed bunk nearby.

Satisfied that the road was clear, the youngsters started across.

Charles was struck by the left fender of Mrs. Brobst's car as she was proceeding toward Shavertown. Traveling at a moderate rate of speed, she was able to stop quickly and swerve her car into the hedges, avoiding running over the victim.

Kingston Township Ambulance, manned by Edward Carey and William Pugh, arrived quickly, and the child's mother rushed the boy to the hospital, where he continued in shock until Monday.

Local Showman At Bloomsburg Fair

Lehman showman Pat Reithoffer Jr. will once again array the midway at Bloomsburg with his impressive line-up of rides and amusements, as the area's favorite show gets underway for another season next month.

Mr. Reithoffer, who owns and operates the biggest truck-carried amusement show in the east, had traditionally offered this as his biggest event.

A rare opportunity awaits you at the fair this season. Appearing in one show only on opening night, Monday, September 23, the Lennon Sisters, singing stars of The Lawrence Welk Show, will sing out again two shows each night, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Overturned Truck Kills Driver

Driver of this septic tank truck was crushed to death when the vehicle swerved unaccountably early Tuesday evening, two and a half miles east of Centermoreland, smashed a telephone pole in half, and rolled over.

Dead is Leroy Dennison, 61, Harding R.D. 1, who was probably killed instantly, when he rolled against the door, seen here, fell out, and was crushed, his legs caught between the door and the cab, and head and trunk pinned by the cab against the road. Scene of the accident, the first fatal ever answered by Franklin-

Northmoreland ambulance, was in front of Ken Harding's house on the Falls road. Rescuers used hydraulic jacks, but it took George Matusavige's wrecker to lift the tanker, loaded with sewage, from Body was pinned for an hour and a half, until it was able to be loaded into the ambulance, manned by William Boyes, Stacey Schoonover, and Carl Besteder, and taken to Pittston Hospital. Workmen for Commonwealth Telephone replaced the pole early yesterday. It was sheared in two on impact, and the truck, rolling over, landed in the opposite lane, travelling in the opposite direction.

Dennison died of a crushed head and chest. He leaves a number of survivors, one of whom is son Thomas, editor of the Shickshinny Mountain Echo.
