Dr. Cirtautas Rites Friday
Distinguished Scholar A Loss
Dr. Kazys Claude Cirtautas, Ph.D., 48, chairman of Humanities at College Misericordia and the author of several books, died Tuesday afternoon at Robert Packer Hospital where he had been admitted a week earlier.

Tomorrow at 9, services will be conducted from the Disque Funeral Home, followed by a High Mass of Requiem at Gate of Heaven Church. Burial will be at St. Mary's. Friends may call tonight. Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m.

"The American College Girl" published in 1962, was his latest book. He had taught at College Misericordia for ten years, instructing in Latin, Greek, German and Russian. For the past seven years he lived on Center Hill Road.

A Lithuanian by birth, he was educated in Germany and Austria, becoming a research scholar in Frankfurt. He was an assistant professor at the University of Bavaria from 1946 to 1950, when he came to the United States and was invited to various colleges including Harvard as visiting professor.

The Dallas Post published a "Know Your Neighbor" on Dr. Cirtautas at the time his latest book was published. He leaves his widow, the former Ilse Lauda, PhD; a daughter, Arista Marie; brothers and sisters in Lithuania.

St. Therese's Altar And Rosary Wednesday

A tea and reception to welcome new members will follow the business meeting. All women of the church are invited, and each present member is urged to invite a woman of her acquaintance.

Make reservations through Mrs. L. E. Jordan, whose band will arrange for refreshments. Plans for a hat-sale will be discussed. Rev. Francis T. Brennan is moderator.

Open House Today At Bloomingdale
The staff of the Bloomingdale Day Care Center for children of migratory workers announces an open house August 29, at the Bloomingdale Grange Hall, 9:30 to 11 a.m., 3 to 5 p.m.

This Day Care Center, together with several others throughout the state, offers care for children whose parents are at work in the fields through the day, children who otherwise would be left at the camps without supervision or would spend the days in a car parked near the field where their parents are working.

The program for those Day Care Centers is set up by Mrs. Naomi Le B. Naylor of the Home Economics School of Pennsylvania State University. Local people, together with several college students, make up the staff for each center. The staff at Bloomingdale consists of: Mrs. Kenneth Young of Dallas, Director; Sally Clute of Williamsport; Marcia Fargotstein of Altoona, Mrs. Betty Kunkle of Sweet Valley, and Mrs. Martinez, the Spanish-American mother of five children attending the center.

Card Of Thanks
The family of the late Emma Gensel wishes to thank friends and neighbors who assisted in any way during the late years of Mrs. Gensel's illness and at the time of the funeral. Their kindness and concern were deeply appreciated.

Calvary Bible Chapel
Recently Chartered
Calvary Bible Chapel, recently chartered, is meeting at the home of Caleb Hoyt in Broadway, while waiting for the chapel to be erected. This coming Sunday, September 1, at both morning and evening services the congregation have as guests, the Trumpet Trio from Penn-del.

Morning services begin at 9:30, evening service at 7:30 held presently at the home of Thomas B. Bonham, Hunlock Creek. If you do not attend church anywhere we shall be pleased to have you fellowship with us there are classes for all ages.

Migrant Children Get Meals At Their School
School for children of Migrant workers is being conducted in Orange Methodist church, and will still continue for five or six weeks.
Marie Perrego, chairman of the Christian Social committee, made arrangements.
Children's ages are from 2 to 14 years; but only a few are over 10, as the older ones help in the fields. Work with these underprivileged children has often seemed hopeless yet, in many ways rewarding, helping toward a higher standard of living.
Ellen Evans, Janitress, is an able helper. Volunteer helpers are needed. So far Dale Rozelle, Jane Mitchell, and Sharon Smith have offered their services.
Rev. John Snyder is director. The state has provided two college girls, trained in this work. They are residing at the Franklin House. Nancy Harris has charge of pre-school age children, Jane Taylor the school age.
School starts at 8 with breakfast. Children are also served dinner, prepared by Mary Jane Smith, Orange.
Children are treated to a snack before leaving at the end of the day, because parents sometimes work until late afternoon.

Calling All Huguenots
by Henrietta G. Keller
Thank you for printing the article about one of the oldest families, whose progenitors were French Protestants, known as Huguenots. It has prompted this writer to call your attention to one of our great heritages, the Huguenots.

There are many people in this area who are descendants of the "Old Families" and many have a Huguenot for an ancestor. Consider the Lamoreaux family who are the descendants of Andre L'Amoureux, who with wife and family, came from England to America about 1700. They, with other Huguenots, landed in New York, and later built the town which they named New Rochelle. Generations later a descendant, Thomas Lamoreaux, was a soldier in the American Revolution, fighting on the side of the colonists. Later he came to the Wyoming area. It is this writer's belief that anyone in this area with the Lamoreaux name or who has an ancestor by that name is a French Huguenot, or could claim to be and proudly so.

In 1685, the French Protestants lost their right to worship according to the dictates of their own conscience and after much persecution and suffering and loss of civil liberties, many fled to other European countries and the British Colonies in America. Among them was Andre L'Amoureux.

History tells us that by bad faith of the French Government, France lost the flower of her population. These Huguenots were part of a great group of people who built the United States of America and made it the kind of country we so love and cherish.

In Memory
"It fits Sarah to a T," wrote the friend who sent this verse in memory of the late Sarah Moss:
"I'M FINE"
There's nothing the matter with me,
I'm just as healthy as can be,
I have arthritis in both my knees,
And when I talk, I talk with a wheeze.
My pulse is weak, and my blood is thin,
But I'm awful well for the shape I'm in.
Arch supports I have for my feet,
Or I wouldn't be able to be on the street;
Sleep is denied me night after night,
And every morning I'm a sight!
But I'm awful well for the shape I'm in!
The moral is this, as this tale I unfold,
That for, you and me who are growing old;
It's better to say "I'm fine" with a grin,
Than to let them know the shape we are in!

Requiem Mass Today For Stephen Tranel
A Mass of Requiem will be celebrated this morning at 9:30 at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Church, Lake Silkworth, for Stephen Tranel, who died Sunday morning at Veterans Hospital. Burial will be in the parish cemetery.

The 52 year old Lake Silkworth man, veteran of World War II in which he saw services in the South Pacific with the Marines, was a native of Lower Askam, and lived for many years in Nanticoke where he was City Controller from 1954 to 1958. He belonged to Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion, and Knights of Columbus.

Surviving are his widow, the former Theresa Swigonski; children, Stephen, Jr., State College; Kathy, Joseph and Thomas, all at home; his father, August, Lake Silkworth; brothers and sisters, Mrs. Anthony Savage, Pittston; Mrs. Catherine Clark and Carl, both of Nanticoke; Mrs. Narcis Distasio, Brooklyn, N.Y.; James, West Islip, N.Y.

Mrs. Joseph Reid
Once Lived In Noxen
Word has been received that Mrs. Joseph Reid, the former Edna Cooke, died at Lankenau Hospital August 18.

She had lived at Ardmore the past nine years since her husband died. Mrs. Reid was daughter of the late Elmer and Josephine Newberry Cooke, Beaumont. Her father practiced law in Wilkes-Barre, where she was born.

The family resided in Noxen from 1904 to 1907 and Mrs. Reid attended high school there.

Young Mother Dies
Folks who visited the Risley home when Howard died, will remember Bruce Zeiser Sr., Bruce Jr. and Bruce 3rd of Providence, R.I. "Bruce", twelve was the lad who proudly said, "Those are the flowers we sent. I don't know how much they cost."

Friday Bruce's mother, thirty seven died unexpectedly of cancer, leaving him and four younger boys and girls. She was the former Caroline Russell Walker of Providence, niece of Myra Zeiser Risley.

The funeral was held Monday from the Episcopal Church where she was married fourteen years ago. The same Bishop who married the couple officiated.

Buried At Mt. Zion
Benjamin Smith, 89 year old retired dairy farmer, died Saturday morning at his home in Mt. Zion. A resident of Mt. Zion for seventy years, he was a trustee of Mt. Zion Methodist Church, and for many years Sunday School superintendent.

Surviving are sons, Merle and Willard, Mt. Zion; Paul, Center Valley; a daughter, Mrs. John R. Howell, Mt. Zion; a sister Mrs. Harold Van Fleet, Fleetville; a brother, Harold Smith, Waverly; 12 grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren; two great-great-grandchildren.
Burial was at Mt. Zion on Tuesday, Rev. William Reid and Rev. Charles Gilbert officiating.

Corn Roast Plus Church Auction
Yes, the Mt. Zion Church will have roast corn available to satisfy your hunger. Also a refreshment stand for lunches, snacks, soft drinks. Then a big roast beef dinner at four o'clock until you say "Mooood! Don't want no more!" Then the Auction from two o'clock on. Hope to have all sorts of things to sell, new and old. House plants, knick knacks, name baked goods, picture frames big enough to frame grandpa's picture. And other items too numerous to name off.

By-the-way, call up Brainerd Daniels on a Harding 388 phone line and ask him to call for your antiques or what-ever you have to donate to the auction. The public knows the Mt. Zion Church. Plan to attend the auction and eat. Get your contributor's donation ticket from Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lewis, Nelson Lewis or most anybody up there so as to have a good chance at the roast beef. It's on Saturday September 7. Tell them Charlie (Gilbert) sent you.

Moore Reunion
Members of the Moore family are again reminded of the reunion on Labor Day at Lake Te-Ja.
