Nick Stredny hit 233 (595) and Nick Buynak rolled 194-198 (571); Al Ciccarelli threw in a single 225 but, "oh, that handicap!" That really floored 'em!

Stonehurst Cottages took 3 from Caddie LaBar's with Ed Shershen top scorer on 199-203 (574). J. Navich hit 203 in one. J. Roan posted highest score of 190 for La-Bar's.

Code's Esso lost 3 to Beaumont Inn with Bill Weaver leading the "bankers" on 216 (555). B. Winogradski had a 200. D. Dugan's 203 topped Esso's scoring.

J. Bolton's 201, D. Bolton's 198 and Brace's 191 were the best Bolton's Diner had, but it was enough to take over Charles H. Long's team.

Joe Kravitz's 192-192 (550) was high for Don's Cities Service. Bill Check hit 194-190 and A. Vanderhoff had 204 as they took 3 from Fullerbush.

Four points went to Klass Motors as G. Mizenko hit a big 290 and W. Hardisky and J. Klass rolled 191 games when they met Payne Printer.

What happened? Dodson's Market rolled against one man, J. Barbose. Does he carry a team name? No one did much for Dodson's but with only one man to beat — Robinson's Kennels took over Shady Side Dairy for 4 points. One game of 191 by John Robinson was top for the "kennels".

What About The Picnic!
From the few reports I have received, the big picnic of Party Leaguers was a success. The weather was satisfactory and there was plenty of food. Was everyone there?
