and Mrs. William Watson, Centerville Methodist Church charge. Mark was born Saturday, September 7 at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Straszus arrived safely in VanNuys, Calif., on Labor Day. They visited Disneyland Tuesday, then on to Lake Tahoe. They planned to leave Friday, stop in Texas to visit Carol and Ted Montross, their newlywed cousins. Then on home to East Dallas. Sounds like a wonderful honeymoon.

Herman Meyers, Homestead, Fla., is visiting Fred Dymond, Jr. He resides in his house trailer, parked in Ted's yard.

Billie Evans, his girl friend and sister Linda, Reading, surprised their sister Ellen for the weekend. They stayed with Rose and Bob Jones, Orange, also had Sunday dinner with their grandma Robbins.

Harold Evans, their father, has purchased a farm at Fleetwood, near Reading, and has moved his family there. Another sister Carol, is married and has a little girl, Penny, also living in Reading.

Rose and Bob Jones sure were in for surprise visits, having a brother-in-law, Harry Carr and son from Connecticut, whom they hadn't seen for nine years. Young Carr is in the Air Force making it a career and is now entering foreign service. They were former Orange residents and glad to see their old friends again.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to Mrs. Hicks in her bereavement. I can sympathize, as I went through it ten years ago. God does what is best.
