Retreat Renovation To Change Schedule
Several hundred families in Luzerne County will be affected as Retreat State Hospital undertakes extensive renovations. After more than sixty years of service it is found necessary to replace heating system, electrical wiring, steam, water and drain lines in the original hospital unit, known as Old Front Center. Work is expected to begin early in 1964, completed in one year.
The hospital must plan to reduce its population and relocate many patients for a period of a year or more.
Effective September 1, and for an indefinite period, Retreat State Hospital will not accept any admissions. All applications for hospitalization from the area presently served by Retreat must be made to the Danville State Hospital by a physician who has examined the patient.
Retreat is planning to provide, within the area of the hospital available during the renovation period, adequate treatment and care for approximately 850 patients. Individual patients whom hospital staff believes can make a satisfactory adjustment at home, in foster homes, boarding homes, rooms and group care facilities will be offered an opportunity to leave the hospital.
The last resource for reduction of population will be temporary transfer of a number of patients to other mental hospitals. It is hoped that the number of such patients will not be large and that they can be accommodated in nearby institutions. Such transfers will not take place before March 1, 1964.

"I STOOD ON MY FEET TODAY!"

by Rev. Charles H. Gilbert

Is that news? Hardly, because nearly everybody does that. The one who said it is not a Back Mountain person. But Luzerne County taxpayers should welcome the news as a return on their investment.
It happened at Valley Crest Home. In the therapy room the patients enjoy a bit of pleasantries while they are pulling ropes, treading pedals, turning resistant wheels, inching along between parallel bars. Here, strapped to a table lay a smiling lady. "Getting your back straightened out?" I asked. "Yes," she said, "and I stood on my feet today!" The bubbly joyful way she said it made me return to her with the question, "And how long has it been since you could do that?" "Fifteen years!"
And today she stood on her feet and was telling everybody about it. That simple statement I wish I could set it to music somehow, it's been ringing in my soul ever since she told me, the thrill of it, the wonder of it, the miracle of it —

"Well," said he, "there is no cure for the disease yet, but we can help them to straighten up their bodies so that WHEN THE CURE IS DISCOVERED THEY WILL HAVE A STRAIGHT BODY TO USE IT!"
That is looking ahead with faith and hope and doing something about it along the way.
Mr. Taxpayer, when you are down in the mouth think of some of these miracles your tax money is helping to do!

Tuesday's program as Enoch Thomas, Esq., who will speak on "Legal Points Women Should Know." At the program last week Mrs. Leonard Adamshick presented a program demonstration on "Fall Table Arrangements."
