Shavertown

Successful Venture

Despite a cold morning which warmed slightly as the hours passed, the Fun Festival sponsored by Shavertown PTA was a success. President Bob Voelker who awoke to a dawn of unpredictable weather had his qualms dispelled as more and more patrons visited the booths set up behind the school building.

Ice cream and popples were passed up in favor of hot dogs, waffles, pizza and coffee, and baked goods were a sellout.

The pony rides netted $60 clear with Shel Evans supplying animals and attendants. A novel idea was introduced by Shavertown Fire Company who appeared with their equipment, blowing the siren to alert residents and allowing the kiddies to squirt the fire hose at a rubber outfitted fireman for the small fee of five cents. Bill Frederick, Andy Roan, Tony Plata and Bill Pugh were pretty drenched by the time an hour had passed, while Jack Lasher, Skipper Carey and Elwood Dungey helped direct the stream. It was a great treat for the junior visitors.

Street Repaired

Cedar Avenue, blocked off over the weekend due to a new tar layer, is one of the first streets to be given attention by the township in their program of repairs.

Only A Memory

Hall's Drug Store sure looks different. With more room for supplies needed, the soda fountain which was a favorite spot for many years has disappeared.

Condition Improved

The many friends of Walter Cooke were relieved and happy to hear that he is improving and has been taken out of the oxygen tent. Mr. Cooke suffered a severe heart September 15 and was rushed to Nesbitt Hospital. Our very sincere wishes for a speedy recovery.

Leaders Needed

Anyone interested in assisting with the girl scout program as a leader or assistant leader is asked to contact Mrs. Elwood Swingle, Troop Organizer. The continuance of new members has raised many troops to capacity enrollment.

Birthdays

Birthdays best wishes to: Caroline Sue Bauerly, Nan R. Hoffman, Debbie Roberts, Malcolm Kitchen, Andrea Kimmel, Mrs. Russell Achuff, Mrs. Myrtle Swan, Edith Prudhoe, Mrs. Elizabeth Moreck, Pauline S. Ferguson, Robert W. Long, Carol Bennett, Blanche Keller, Barbara Daubert, Norma M. Bigelow, Becky Walk, Lynn Ann Puterbaugh, Adelta Mahler, Priscilla Coolbaugh, Shirley Ide, Marcus Ludt, Betty Delahey, Mrs. William Morris, Dorothy Lockett.

Nelson McDonald, Warren Dennon, Karen Daley, James Hand, Margery McCarty, Elsa Fischer, William Holman, Sr.

Scouts Enjoy Camp-Out

Boy Scout Troop No. 231 had a pleasant camping trip over the weekend when the boys set up tents on the Morris King Farm at Nordmont. Pancakes with maple syrup delighted the appetites of the hungry travelers Sunday morning, as did Steve Sille's fresh corn. The boys visited Ticklish Rock, Sullivan County, Sunday afternoon.

Making the trip were Michael Evans, Mark Rogers, David Newhart, Malcolm Kitchen, David Hoffman, Howard and Duane Sprau, David Jones, Ricky Edwards, Allen and Ronald Biggs, Joohny Swingle,

Noxen

Warren Montross was discharged from Veteran's Hospital Wednesday.

Mrs. William Lyons is home from General Hospital, after submitting to surgery.

Robert May, New York City, is home on vacation for two weeks. Kathie Lou Engelman and Sheila Engelman were absent from school this week, due to illness.

Passing The Buck

One wonders what will happen at the crossroads and how well the youngsters will be protected since Supervisor Smith disclosed the sad news that an overpass would cost the township approximately $40,000 from its own coffers. How much state money is being spent on relocating the railroad that may never be used again?

Observes Birthday

The lovely yellow flowering bush at the home of Mrs. John Owens, W. Center Street, has attracted much attention but its identity has not been established.

Personals
