

Theatre 3 Season To Open Oct. 10

Noted English Actor To Appear In Role

Robert Harris, distinguished English stage and screen star, will play the role of Sir Thomas More when College Misericordia's THEATRE 3 offers "A Man For All Seasons" on October 10. This widely acclaimed drama written by Robert Bolt and winner of the New York Drama Critics' Award will be presented by Misericordia at Irem Temple.

As Chancellor of England, Robert Harris portrays a man whose devotion to truth forced him into conflict with King Henry VIII. More's refusal to condone his king's disdain for church and marriage vows cost him his life.

Educated at Sherborne School and College Oxford, Robert Harris studied at the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, where he won the Readean Scholarship for the Critics Circle School of Acting Competition.

In 1925, Mr. Harris paid his first visit to America, playing John Whitaker in Noel Coward's "Easy Virtue," with Jane Cowl. In London Mr. Harris, in many West End plays, joined the Old Vic Sadler Wells Company. He returned to America to play Eugene Marchbanks opposite Katherine Cornell in Candida.

Commend Postoffice Saving Promotion

Postmaster Edward Buckley, said he had received a letter from William H. Neal, National Director of the U. S. Savings Bonds Division, commending Dallas Post Office for its successful efforts in promoting the sale of U. S. Savings Stamps. The letter also said that children buying their first stamps of the school year will be given a free certificate signed by the seven Mercury Astronauts, designating them as "Junior Astronauts." These certificates are now available at the Post Office.

In his endorsement, Buckley said, "Selling Saving Stamps through the schools and over-the-counter to the public is a part of the Post Office Department's services of which we are particularly proud. The Treasury sponsored School Savings Program not only promotes practical thrift but also acquaints our young people with their government and their duties and privileges as American citizens. I know of no finer way to build for a better tomorrow than by training our youth of today in the sound American heritage of thrift."

The employees of Dallas Post Office have received a citation from the Treasury Department in recognition of participation in the Savings Bond Program.

Gamelands Tour

Public is invited for a supervised five-hour tour of State Gamelands 57, Sundays, starting at 11 a. m. at Ricketts Gate on Route 487, two miles north of the Air Force Base.

Guides will be Walter Malinowski, food and cover foreman, and Ed Gdosky, game protector.

Senator Scott Asks A Vote For H. E. L. P.

Senator Hugh Scott urges support of Amendment 1-A in the November election, a measure to establish a loan program for benefit of needy Pennsylvania students who hope to attend college. Senator Scott points out that surrounding states Ohio, New York, New Jersey and Virginia have such loan plans. Establishment of Pennsylvania Higher Education Loan plan would work through private lending institutions.

Main Street Bump

Cars belonging to William Brace, Kunkle, and Sylvia Bunney, Fernbrook, collided around 3 Saturday afternoon on Main Street, with minor damage, and parties agreed to settle.

Highway Collision

Two cars, driven by Mrs. Edith E. Jones, East Center Street, Shavertown, and Mrs. Elizabeth Cease, Franklin Street, going in opposite directions on the highway in front of the A&P, collided at 8:45 Thursday evening, and police signed an information against Mrs. Jones for "reckless driving."

PLANNING DATE CHANGED

Regular meeting date of the Luzerne County Planning Commission has been changed from the second Wednesday to the second Thursday of each month, 2:00 p.m. in the executive suite of the Wilkes-Barre Publishing Company. The meetings are public.

Supervisors To Meet

Franklin Township Supervisors will meet Monday evening at the home of Russell Race at 8 p.m.

These Are The Princesses Selected For The Rotary Fair

These lovely seniors—two from Lake-Lehman and two from Dallas Area Schools, selected as princesses by friends and fellow students, will ride in the opening parade of the Dallas Rotary "Fall Fair" Saturday.

Following the parade the girls will attend school football games and then return to the fair. At 9:00 p.m., following the Boston Store fashion show, a "fair queen" will be selected.

Peggy is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. E. Jordan, Trucksville. Upon graduation from high school she plans to enter nursing. She is a varsity cheerleader, has been with the Keyettes drill team for five years and the chorus for a year. She is a member of St. Therese's Sodality.

Service Club Group Picks Man Of Year

Interservice Club Council, consisting of Lions, Kiwanis and Rotarians met last night to present each club's candidate for Man of the Year, and selected among them.

Name of the one selected will be announced at a dinner at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday, October 8 at Irem Temple Country Club.

Russell E. DeRemer, president of Dallas Lions, presided at last night's meeting of the Council, which as far as known, is the city such organization in America.

Speaker at the October 8 dinner will be Dr. Stephen Budash, guidance director of Kings and Marywood Colleges.

Safety Measures Are Promised At Lehman

Mrs. Morton Connelly, Lehman, met with State Highway officials Monday morning to press for safety measures at the dangerous Route 118 intersection in that community.

Officials promised the crusading correspondent that reflectors would be placed on the four corners to call attention of motorists to the hazardous condition.

John Fielding, Huntsville, also plans to attend college. She is particularly interested in the band, journalism, art and Future Teachers of America. Her favorite subjects are Spanish and English. In Huntsville Methodist Church she is active in MYF and choir.

Dee Dee, daughter of Merle J. Pope, Sr., Trucksville. She has been accepted at the Allentown Hospital School of Nursing. She is head majorette at Dallas, sings with the chorus, is a member of the Keyettes and the student council. She is a reporter for the Dallas Post and a "candy stripper" at the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Bony is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gennetts, Loyallville, plans to attend college upon graduation from Lake-Lehman. She is member of the cheering team and chorus, and is particularly interested in home economics and journalism. She attends Lady of Victory Church.

Susan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gennetts, Loyallville, plans to attend college upon graduation from Lake-Lehman. She is member of the cheering team and chorus, and is particularly interested in home economics and journalism. She attends Lady of Victory Church.

Both the Lake-Lehman and Dallas schools are contributing to the success of Dallas Rotary's first "Fall Fair." Both bands will march with the parade between 11:30 and noon, and will entertain during the evening session. School 4-H clubs will also participate.

The Fair will be held on Lehman Horse Show grounds, Route 118, starting with the parade and ending near midnight with a spectacular fire works display. Free parking for all.

Local Architects Plan Renovation Of Grey Towers, Once Pinchot Home

On the drawing boards of Allen, Rodda, and Hauck, architects, are complete plans for redecoration and renovation of the forty-three room mansion on the Pinchot Estate at Milford, with plans also made for renovation of three accessory buildings on the 101 acres of Grey Towers.

Edward Allen, Bear Creek, associate of Paul Rodda and Lester Hauck, was at Grey Towers when President John F. Kennedy made his visitation last week, inaugurating conservation Project 70.

Eventual goal, says Mr. Hauck, is to make of the estate of the late Governor Gifford Pinchot a conference center by the Nation, dedicated to conservation of natural resources, equipped with assembly rooms, dormitories and classrooms. Already the Federal Government has repaired roads and modernized the water system.

Engineering firm of Martin and Fladd is working with Allen, Rodda and Hauck. Bids will be advertised and contracts let in the near future. For over five months, the local architects have been working on the renovation project.

Opening gun in the Project 70 conservation program was fired over television Monday night, when local stations carried news that Wapwallopen and Nescopeck were high on the list of areas to be earmarked for conservation of beautiful scenery and important water power.

Also on T-V was a preview of Frances Slocum Park, already in the works, with a forecast of its value to greater Wyoming Valley as well as to the Carverton area.

Project 70 includes the work now proposed for Grey Towers, part of a Nation-wide conservation program which would have been heartily approved by Governor Pinchot and the late President Theodore Roosevelt both of whom were conservation-conscious on a National scale. It was Teddy Roosevelt who set aside vast areas for national parks before a then-current land grab could be put into effect, preserving for posterity hundreds of thousands of square miles of untouched wilderness.

Break Into School
Unidentified vandals broke into Dallas High School, by smashing a window late at night last week, according to Police Chief Frank Lange, and made a bee-line for teacher Donald Evans' homeroom, where they apparently expected to find about $300 in receipts for class pictures. The money, however, had been removed to a safe.

The Biggest Parade Ever, On Saturday

The largest parade in the history of the Dallas area will precede the Fall Fair Saturday, at 11 a.m. Line of march starts at Lehman Center and proceeds down Route 118 to the Fair Grounds.

Parade Marshal, Dr. Les Jordan, has invited several new units not commonly seen in local parades. The Township supervisors, Borough Council and Police Chiefs have been invited as special guests. It is hoped that Congressman Daniel Flood and Senator Harold Flack will be honored participants.

Colorful floats will be numerous. Harveys Lake Boat Club will show three sailboats with sails unfurled if the wind is gentle, with pretty girls on the decks. Rave's Nursery, the YMCA and Dallas Rotary will decorate other floats.

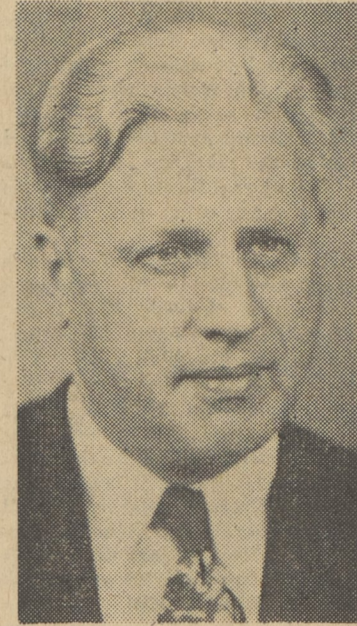

The parade will be led by the color guard of the 109th Field Artillery. Later in the parade the Naval Reserve Center and American Legion will have their color guards and units. Scouting, Little League and the Red Cross will be prominently represented.

Featured in the parade will be the Championship Lehman High School Band and the precision drill teams of the Dallas Area Schools who have won recognition in many areas of Pennsylvania.

New features in the parade will be sport cars and any sport car owner is welcome to participate. Several new car dealers will show their 1964 models. Horses of all sizes from the small ponies to the best of show classes will be spotted at various places in the long parade line.

The mysterious Pierre LaPew will be there.

Former Pastor Dies

REV. WILLIAM H. HEAPPS

Rev. William H. Heapps, pastor of Dallas Methodist Church from 1952 to 1956, more recently pastor of Port Byron Methodist Church, N. Y., suffered a fatal heart attack Sunday night. He had just come into the house after officiating at a Young People's service in the church.

Friends in Dallas recall that he had a heart attack the last year of his ministry here.

Shortly thereafter, he exchanged pulpits with Rev. Russell Lawry, going to Oneonta, N. Y. From 1961 to 1963 he was pastor of Ashley Methodist Church, before transferring to the Central New York Conference.

He was born in England near Sherwood Forest, lived for a time in Stoffville, Canada.

Surviving are: his widow, the former Jean Holdrege, of Birmingham; three sons: Dale, William Jr. and Paul; a daughter Donna at home; a brother in England.

Blood Donor Day Friday, Oct. 11

Enroll Now In PTA To Rate Protection

Blood Donor Day for the Back Mountain is next Friday, October 11, 11:45 to 5:45, at Shavertown YMCA.

Back Mountain PTA Council offers a Blood Assurance program to members. Residents may join any PTA group, whether they have children in school or not. Membership carries with it protection under the Red Cross Blood program.

Families seeking such protection are advised that it is necessary for a member to contribute blood at least once a year, unless everybody in the family is sixty years old or over, or in case of serious disability making donation impossible.

Ten per cent of the membership of any organization must give blood at the semi-annual donation time, to keep the entire membership on the right side of the ledger.

Mrs. Edward Gilroy, coordinator for the Back Mountain, quotes Dr. Gordon Bell as explaining: After donating blood, the bone marrow which makes the red blood cells, takes on a spurt of activity, and enriches the blood with good new cells, leaving it better than before, new blood for old.

Back Mountain PTA Council, Gate of Heaven PTA, Natona Mills, Commonwealth Telephone Company, expect to fill quotas October 11.

Block chairmen of PTA Council are: Mrs. Richard Farley, Dallas Junior High School; Mrs. Luther Stark, Shavertown elementary; Mrs. Robert Summers, Trucksville; Mrs. Harry Siskler, Westmoreland; Mrs. Stephen Hartman, Dallas. These chairmen will enroll applicants.

Supervisors Will Aid Truckville

Engineer To Study Clearview Avenue

The dilemma of Truckville was brought to the attention of Kingstons Township Supervisors Wednesday evening by resident Stanley Cashmark.

Mr. Cashmark stated that the proposed taking over of Truckville Pharmacy and Gavy's Market land by the State for road widening would leave its citizens without benefit of a drug store and food market, remove the last sign of identity for the community, and lower property values.

He read the following copy of a petition signed by 333 taxpayers which he had sent to Congressman Daniel J. Flood.

"The undersigned residents of Truckville area respectfully petition that highway plans be reconsidered to permit continuance of the vitally necessary business conducted by Truckville Pharmacy and Gavy's Market."

This removal and consequent elimination of Truckville's identity will, we also believe, adversely affect property values. Furthermore the necessary width to establish a waiting lane can be secured by widening the highway in the opposite direction."

Supervisors were in sympathy, and voted unanimously to offer all aid possible and send a letter similar to the petition to Representatives Flack and Shupnik and the State Department of Highways, recommending a relocation.

Mr. Ziegler remarked that Carverton folk also use Truckville's facilities. Mr. Hauck proposed that the business was outgrowing present quarters and a new location should be looked into.

Supervisors voted to have a qualified engineer look over the problem presented by Clearview Avenue before further repairs were made. John Coon was selected to study road problem and offer a solution.

It was also decided that Skyline, Terrace and Clearview Avenues be paved this year, since equipment was in that vicinity and would save time and cost.

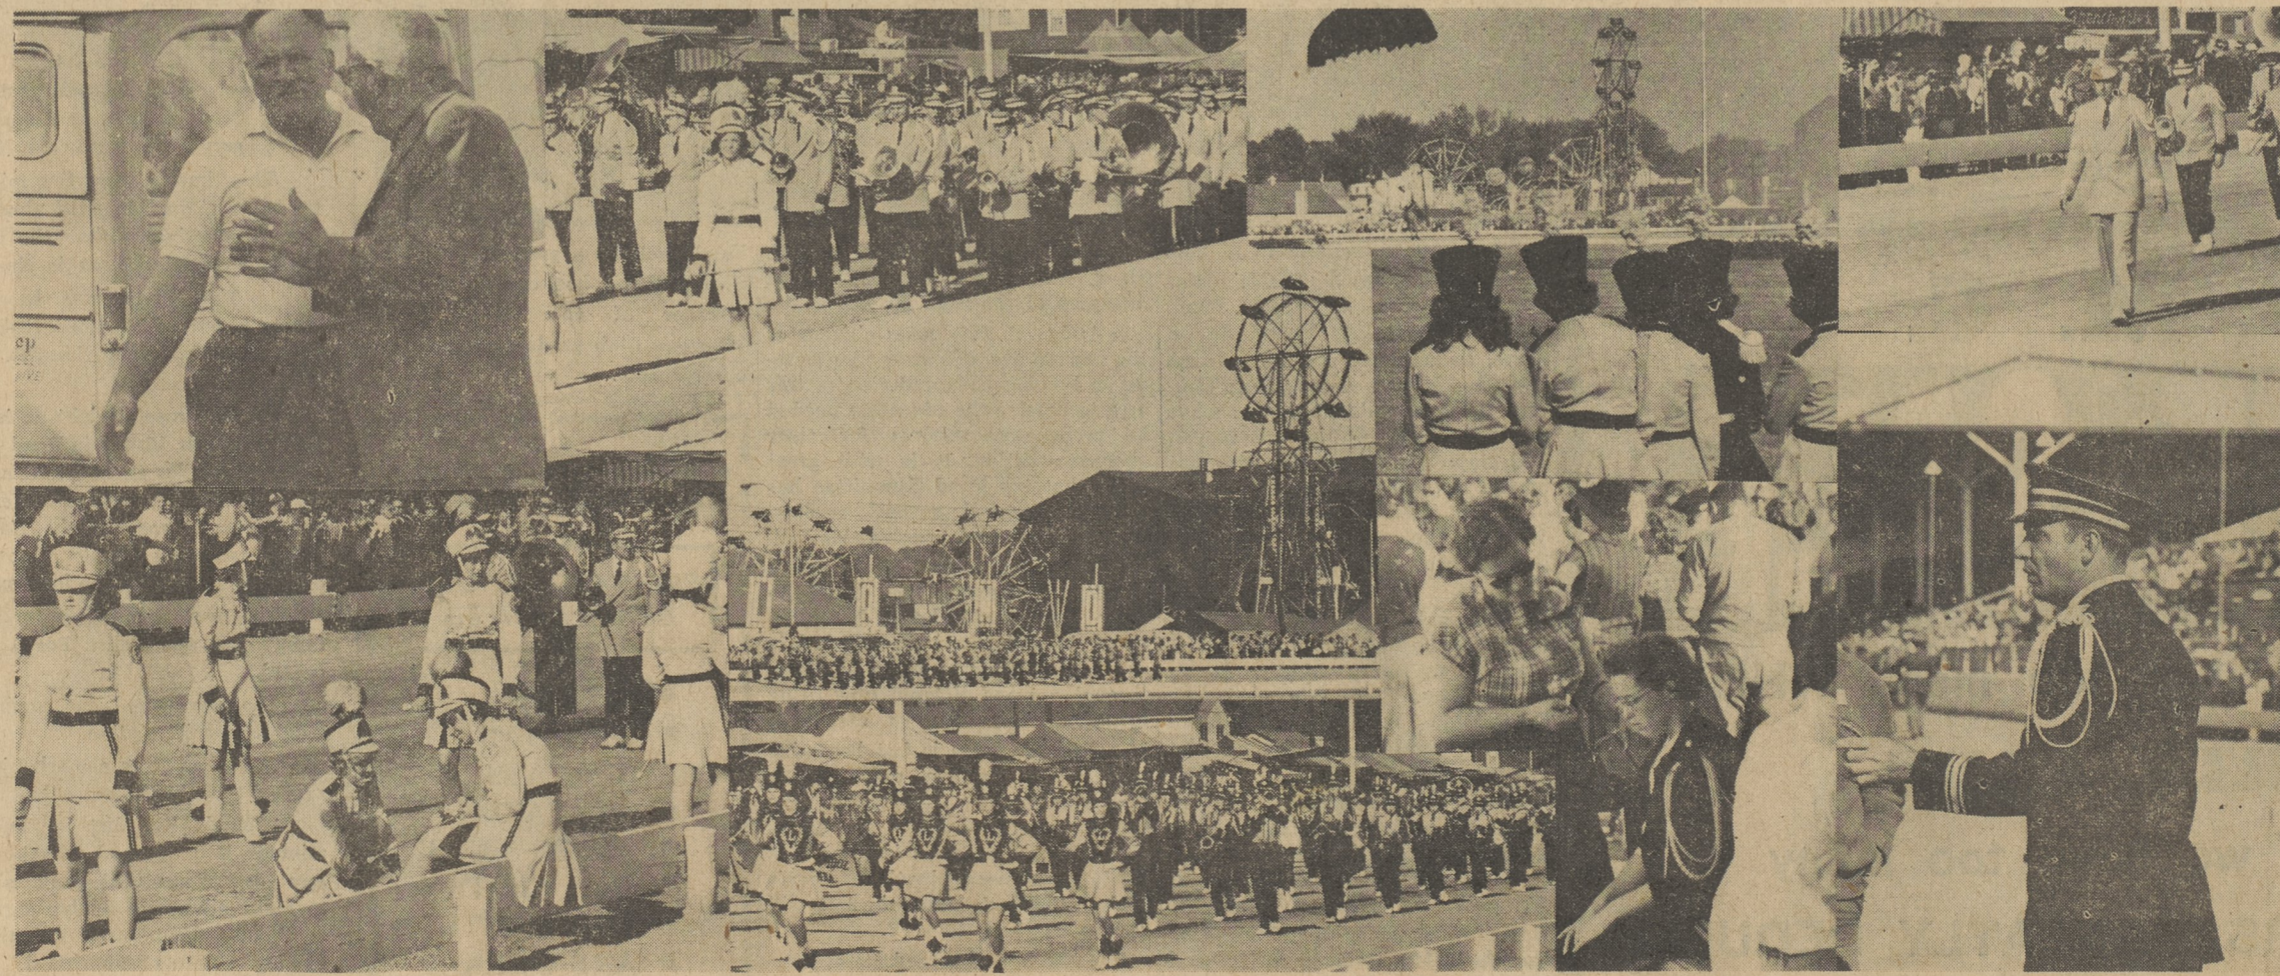

Mr. Hauck's suggestion that another crew be hired to speed up road work before frost also met with approval. All dirt roads will have their gutters rebled. Bunker Hill Road and Cedar Avenue were reported paved.

Board expressed concern over slowness of traffic in Truckville area during peak hours. Supervisor Smith reported Carverton Road light will soon be installed. A longer period was suggested for pedestrians crossing highway.

Parking facilities at proposed new township building site on Carverton Road would accommodate 20 automobiles, and bank in back could be dug into if more was necessary it was disclosed. No final decision has been made on the joint use of new building by fire company, some members being loath to give up all title to the land.

Mr. Cashmark complimented the Board for the fine job it has done in meeting many problems now confronting the township.

AREA WELL REPRESENTED AT SUNNY BLOOMSBURG FAIR

Take one Dallas-Lake-Lehman game, and add to it the Bloomsburg Fair, and you've got an exciting weekend in the Back Mountain.

A few Dallas Post traveling camera scenes show a busy Friday at Bloom, with many familiar faces in
