Homemaker's Holiday Sewing Classes Enroll Many Members

Back Mountain YWCA Homemaker's Holiday announces that the adult classes of Mrs. Warren Yarnal, teacher of Beginner's Sewing, have a very large enrollment. These YWCA members have a chance to learn how to sew, while their preschool children are being well taken care of in the supervised nursery from 9:30 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. In this way a housewife has the opportunity to relax, to learn, and to socialize with other women in her classes during the hours when her husband is at work. Classes are held each Tuesday from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00.

Mrs. George W. Carey, Jr., chairman, invites all YWCA members, regardless if they are enrolled in a class or not, to bring their sandwich and to join in the luncheon and then to stay for the planned program at 12:00.

All classes are held in the social rooms of the Shavertown Methodist Church. At 9:30 a.m. early coffee will be served by Mrs. John A. Diefenderfer, new staff assistant for the Back Mountain YWCA Homemaker's Holiday Adult Program. Last Tuesday Att. Enoch Thomas spoke to the women about "Legal Points Women Should Know."
