Was Wife Of Former Dallas Post Editor

Services for Mrs. Blanche Anderson, 82, Elizabeth Street, Dallas, were conducted from Bronson Funeral Home Monday morning, Rev. Norman Tiffany officiating. Interment was in Mt. Greenwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Anderson, who died at her home Saturday morning had been in ill health for some time. She had resided for many years on Huntsville Road in the home now occupied by the Warren Reeds, where her lovely flower beds attracted much attention.

Her husband Harry, who died in 1935, was a former editor of the Dallas Post when the newspaper office was located at the corner of Norton Avenue and Huntsville Road.

Born in Lehman, Mrs. Anderson was the daughter of the late Vincent and Maryella Hoyt Hoover. She was a member of Dallas Methodist Church.

Mrs. Anderson is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Edna King, Meeker and Helen, with whom she resided, head of the Guidance Department in Dallas District schools, four grandchildren and nine great grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Fred Gordon, Dallas.

A son, Philip died in 1961.

Apply Now For Student Exchange Program

Dallas Rotary is accepting applications for their Student Exchange Program. Object of the program is to afford one year's study in another country and further international friendship and goodwill.

Students must be at least 16 years of age and not over 18 on arrival as an exchange student and in the upper third of their class scholastically.

Applications must be in to Dallas Rotary Club by October 20 and are available from the Club or through James Alexander, chairman of the program in this club.

Local students accepted will be interviewed by the District Committee at Hotel Casey, Scranton, during the first three Sundays in November starting at 1:30 p.m.

Parents must be present with students and each will be assigned a definite time by letter. Students selected will be notified when assigned to an exchange opportunity or by April 30, 1964.
