

Purely Personal

Neighborhood News And Notes Of Personal Interest

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daily, Shavertown returned Sunday night from a flying trip to Vale, Oregon, where they attended the funeral of a cousin, Thomas Goodwin, fatally shot in an accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Binder, Lindenwood, N. J. have moved to 75 Huntsville Road.

Miss Judy Moser, senior at Penn State University, spent the weekend with her former roommate, Miss Susie Anderson, Pioneer Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wright, Highland Avenue, are building a new home on the Rice development. Mrs. Estella Pascoe, West Pittston, was the guest of Mrs. Blanche Piatt, Carverton, Saturday night when both ladies attended the Mt. Grange Harvest Home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sands, Tunikhanock, formerly of Carverton visited Mr. and Mrs. Hal Shaver on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford, Hatboro, Pa., have moved to Highland Drive, Dallas.

Mrs. Grover Anderson, Harvey's Lake, admitted in August to Neship, is now staying with her daughter Mrs. Dorothy Wright at 807 Ocean Road, Point Pleasant, N. J. She is able to be about in a walker.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hilbert, Bordentown, N. J. visited George Landon, Kunkle, over the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Eekert, Lancaster, are residing with Mrs. Paul Eekert until their new home on Maxwell Avenue is ready for occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Dreher, Lynchburg, Va., have purchased a home on Woodcliffe Drive, Dallas. They have two small daughters, Linda and Susan. Mr. Dreher is an engineer at General Cigar.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Edwards and Mrs. Blanche Piatt, Carverton and Mrs. Estella Pascoe, West Pittston were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards and son, Todd, Coopersburg, Pa. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Hal Shaver, Forty Fort.

Miss Karen Culver, Dallas, recently resumed her studies at Chamberlayne Junior College, Boston, Mass., where she is a senior. During summer recess, Karen was employed at Howard Johnson's, in North Conway, New Hampshire. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scalfie, Wellsburg, N. Y., visited relatives in Dallas, on Sunday. Mrs. Fred Scalfie, Blossburg, returned home with them, after spending a week, visiting in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brown and daughter, Cheryl, Elmira, N. Y., visited their respective parents over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore MacHenry, Orange and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown, Parrish street.

Recent visitors to this area were, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stem and Raymond, Endicott, N. Y.; Mrs. Harry C. McKel, Monroeville, Pa.; Ralph C. Antrim, Jr., Ralph C. Antrim, III and Andra Lee Antrim, Annendale, Va., and Mrs. David P. Williams, Rohway, N. J.

Harry Smith, Basking Ridge, N.J. spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. Louis Wagner, Shavertown.

Mrs. Howard Risley has returned home after being a patient in Nesbitt Hospital for two weeks.

Andrew Kozemchak is getting about a little following a lengthy hospital stay. He will be unable to return to work for another month.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shuman, New York City, will spend the weekend at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Kear, Lake Street, The Schumans have just returned from a three week tour of Greece.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Drake, Dallas, are slowly improving at Nesbitt Hospital.

Has Award For Entry In Canton Fall Show

Mrs. Robert Crosson's entry in the Sixteenth Annual Fall Show of Canton Art Institute, Canton, Ohio, brought her two prizes: a cash award of $15 for the best drawing, and the Elizabeth Stough Award of $10.

Mrs. Crosson, a new comer to Shavertown, who moved here when her husband was appointed YMCA executive secretary, regularly entered material in the Canton Art Show when living in Ohio, but drew blood for the first time this season, with her pastel sketches. Material was judged by Thomas C. Colt, Jr., director of Dayton Art Institute.

Her favorite field is textiles, with the accent on wall-hangings. She does woodblock work as well as more usual forms of art. Active in the Mansfield Ars Guild, she was former secretary and membership chairman.

Mrs. Crosson had an exhibit at the Fall Fair on Saturday, and demonstrated weaving at the Library Auction in July.

Baby Shower Held

Mrs. Gary Cooper, Davenport Street, Dallas, was hostess at a baby shower, Thursday evening, September 26, in honor of Mrs. Joseph Zalt, Burlington, N. J.

Present were Mesdames Paul Fiske, Francis Dunham, Charles Hann, Charles Gabel, Vicki Bryant and Misses Carol Williams and Dianne Fiske.

Ellouise Holmgren Will Become Bride of James Rogers, Oct. 19

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Holmgren, Hemlock Street, Fernbrook, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Ellouise, to James Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Rogers, Maple Street, Fernbrook at 12 noon Saturday, October 19 in Trucksville Methodist Church.

Rev. Andrew Derrick will perform the ceremony.

Miss Carol Ann Rowe, Newark, N. J., will be maid of honor and bridesmaids selected by the bride are Mrs. Spencer Holmgren, Jr., Noxen; Mrs. Willard Lansberry, Lehman and Mrs. William Sammon, Philadelphia.

Thomas Rogers, brother of the bridegroom will be best man and Spencer Holmgren, Jr., Noxen brother of the bride; Robert Sorber, Middlesex, N. J., and Arthur Prutzman, Kunkle, ushers.

Reception will follow at Trucksville Methodist Educational Building.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Dallas Area High School and is employed at Commonwealth Telephone Company, Dallas.

Mr. Rogers is a graduate of Dallas Township High School and is employed at Sears-Roebuck, Trenton, N. J.

Wyoming Valley Club To Sponsor Caryles

Wyoming Valley Woman's Club will present The Caryles October 29 at 2 p.m. in the YWCA auditorium, Northampton Street. Mrs. William H. Pierce, Jr., Harveys Lake, is chairman. Many Back Mountain women are club members.

The Caryles, Bonnie and Harry, graduates of the Julliard School of Music, have an extensive repertoire of songs, ranging from classic to popular. They include selections from Romberg, Herbert, Kern, Puccini and Verdi, Irving Berlin and Cole Porter. They have had successful engagements in supper clubs in the United States and Canada, and have sung leading roles with the New York Opera Company.

Money realized from the benefit performance will go toward the many organizations the Woman's Club helps to support.

Grandson Makes Mark In Freshman Game

Metropolitan Boston newspapers handed a palm to young Dick Scogins, who made two touchdowns in the opening game of Chelmsford freshmen against frosh of Westford Academy. Dick made another touchdown, but it was called back.

Dick, son of Captain and Mrs. Charles Scogins, Chelmsford Farms, is grandson of Mrs. T. M. B. Hicks, Dallas Post, who was present at the game. Fourteen years old, Dick is reaching for six-foot mark.

Two Grandchildren For Mrs. Kubasti

Mrs. Victoria Kubasti, Garfield Street, Fernbrook, announces the births of two grandchildren in Nesbitt Hospital.

A daughter, Donna Marie, was born Sunday, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kubasti, Peekskill, N. Y. Mother is the former Carol Zimmerman, Luzerne.

A son, David Edward, was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kubasti, Fernbrook. Mrs. Kubasti is the former Betty DeReimer, also of Luzerne.

Both mothers are in Room 310 at the hospital.

Kevin Austin Hoover

First Lt. and Mrs. Dale A. Hoover, Chicopee Falls, Mass., announce the birth of a son, Kevin Austin, born September 16.

The couple have another son, Keith Allen, aged two.

Mrs. Hoover is the former Jean Cobleigh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cobleigh, Idetown, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger, Shavertown.

Lt. Hoover is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoover, Lehman, and is a member of the U. S. Air Force.

Toby Creek Lodge

Toby's Creek Lodge, #1078, will install new officers Tuesday evening at 8 P. M. Oyster Stew will be served following the ceremony.

LAKE AUXILIARY PLANS PARTY

Harveys Lake American Legion Auxiliary will stage its fall party October 14, 8 p.m. at the Jonathan R. Davis Fire Hall, Idetown. Chairmen are Mrs. Frances Yankoski and Mrs. Francis Desiderio.

Dallas Couple To Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cole, 20 Jackson Street, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary on Tuesday October 15.

The couple were married in Plymouth Methodist Church in 1913 by Rev. Ben Johns. Mrs. Cole is the former Carrie Morgan, Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole are the parents of two daughters, Mrs. Leamon Mintzer, Harvey's Lake and Mrs. William Tredinnick, Dallas. There are three grandchildren, Lee and Fred Mintzer, Harvey's Lake and William Tredinnick, Jr., Dallas. Also one great grandchild, Ellen Mintzer, Harvey's Lake.

Mr. Cole is a 50 year member of Ashley Masonic Lodge and a member of Irem Temple.

An Open House will be held at the home for relatives and friends on Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m.

Harvey's Lake Women Will Hold Hilarious Sadie Hawkins Dance

An evening of hilarious entertainment is planned for Saturday evening, October 19, at Hanson's Park when Harvey's Lake Woman's Club will sponsor a Sadie Hawkins Dance, beginning at 9 p.m.

Mrs. Joseph Rauch is general chairman of the event with Mrs. Robert Pilger as co-chairman. Mrs. Fred Dodson heads the orchestra committee, Mrs. Allen Sorchick, entertainment; Mrs. Clarence Montross, publicity; Mrs. Malcolm Nelson, Mrs. Richard Williams, decorations; Mrs. Lee Bicking, prizes; Mrs. Charles Williams, president is honorary chairman.

All attending are to come in costume as relatives of Sadie Hawkins, the more original the greater the opportunity of winning a prize. The Merry-makers will play for dancing, featuring both modern and square.

A shotgun wedding will highlight the evening's entertainment and special door prizes and dance prizes will be awarded. Refreshments will be served.

The public is cordially invited to participate in the pre-Halloween party.

Joel Thomas Field

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Field, Church Street, announces the birth of a seven pound, fourteen ounce son, Joel Thomas, September 30 at General Hospital. There are five other children, Jackie, Cheryl, Stevie, Cindy and Mike. Mr. Field is the former Virginia Funstrom, Jenkin Twp. Mr. Field is employed with King Fifth Wheel, Mountain Top.

Sandra Glace

An eight pound seven ounce daughter, Sandra, was born Sept. 30 at Mercy Hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Glace, RD 5, Shavertown. Mrs. Glace is the former Marian Thompson, Parsons. Mr. Glace is employed as an electronic inspector for the government.

Women See Glenn Film

"The Life of John Glenn", popular astronaut, was shown to Harvey's Lake Women's Club at their recent meeting.

Mrs. Allen Sorchick, program chairman, gave a brief history of the United States.

Eric Jay Rambus

Mr. and Mrs. George Rambus, RD 1, Dallas, announce the birth of a seven pound, nine ounce son, Eric Jay, September 29 at General Hospital. Mrs. Rambus is the former Marjorie Franklin, Centermoreland.

Attend Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Faegenberg, Applewood Manor; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ackerson, Lehman, and Mr. and Mrs. William Guyette, Trucksville, attended the State Kiwanis Convention at Reading last week. The men represented the Dallas Club.

Auxiliaries To Meet

Northeastern Pennsylvania Association of Hospital Auxiliaries will hold its annual meeting October 16 at Irem Temple Country Club.

THE CONTINENTAL INN LUZERNE-DALLAS HWY.

Facilities For

- WEDDINGS
• BANQUETS
• PARTIES
BUSINESS MEETINGS

For Information Phone 287-7588

Don't Forget To Enter GOSART'S Football Contest

WINNERS OF TRANSISTOR RADIOS

SEPT. 28 FRANK PAVLICK Wyoming Ave. Dallas, Pa.
OCT. 5 PAUL LABAR 102 Elizabeth St. Dallas, Pa.

ENTRY BLANKS AVAILABLE ONLY AT

GOSART'S Main Highway - Dallas

OPEN 9 A. M. TO 10 P. M.

Rotary Ann's Plan Yuletide Ball Exchange Students To Be Guests

Dallas Women of Rotary at a committee meeting held recently, announced the annual Christmas Dinner dance will be held Saturday evening, December 7 at Irem Temple Country Club.

This year's Yuletide affair will be a Snow Ball. Mrs. Lester Hauck has been appointed dance chairman and Mrs. Ralph Posterville, food chairman. Mrs. Richard Post, president of the local organization met with them to discuss plans.

Bobby Baird's Orchestra will play for dancing.

No tickets will be sold this year but invitations will be issued to fellow Rotary Clubs, exchange students and friends of Rotary members.

Bride Elect Feted At Lovely Showers

Miss Ellouise Holmgren, bride elect, was honored recently at a surprise Linen Shower given by her maid of honor, Miss Carol Ann Rowe, at the home of Mrs. Charles Gregory, New Providence, N. J.

Attending were Mesdames Helen Rowe, Pearl Mae Bencivenga, Janet Sorber, Rose James, Pearl Gregory, Gertrude Ogin, Jay Bencivenga, Mildred Holmgren, mother of the bride, the guest of honor and the hostess.

On Saturday evening, September 28, bridesmaids, Mesdames Spencer Holmgren, Willard Lansberry and William Sammon entertained Miss Holmgren at a Variety Shower at the home of Mrs. Mildred Weidner, Fernbrook.

Color scheme was carried out in pink and grey with a large parasol forming a canopy for many lovely gifts.

A buffet luncheon was served to the following: Mesdames James Ide, Mary Ann Gobel, John Miles, Mary Miles, Thomas Tognelli, Arthur Shelley, Beverly Perrego, Richard Sands, Freda Goss, Eldon Rogers, Millicent Burke, Mildred Weidner, Mildred Holmgren, Misses Lorrai Novicki, Carol Hadsel, Gladys Hummel, Margo Davis, Sharon and Carol Rogers, Stella Fetchko, Betty Howell, Elaine Swan, Dianne Davis, Nancy Mles, the honored guest and hostesses.

Dorothy Diane Swire Fiancee Of Don LaBar

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Swire, Noxen, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorothy Diane, to Donald W. LaBar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank LaBar, Stroudsburg.

The bride attended Lake-Lehman High School.

Mr. LaBar is employed as a mason in New Jersey.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Rainbow Girls To Honor Dads

Charles E. James Memorial Assembly of the Order of Rainbow for Girls have planned a skit for "DADS' NIGHT" at the close of their meeting Thursday, October 17, at the Trucksville Methodist Church Educational Building. Refreshments will also be served.

Miss Colleen Conaghan is Worthy Advisor and Mrs. Betty Meeker, Mother Advisor.

Advertisement for CHAZEL saddles and bridles, listing various items and contact information.

Our deepest sympathies are extended to Mrs. Walter Mohr, Lehman avenue, upon the death of her father, Mr. Evan F. Whitby.

Advertisement for Rexall Pharmacist, featuring a cartoon character and the text 'YOUR PHARMACIST SAYS...'

Good health is the foundation of good living. Without it life becomes a meaningless burden. Fortunately, it is not usually difficult to maintain health. You need only follow a few common-sense rules, one of which is to have your physician examine you regularly.

And you can rely on us when you need to have a prescription filled.

Advertisement for EVANS DRUG STORE, 'Your Prescription Pharmacy', located in Shavertown, phone 674-3888.

Large advertisement for WALLACE SILVERSMITHS, featuring a large image of a silver bowl and listing various items like salad, punch, dessert, trophy, flowers, popcorn, fruit.

Advertisement for COLLEGE MISERICORDIA Educational Guidance Institute, featuring reading laboratory and improvement classes for elementary, junior high, and high school students.

