Shavertown

The tremendous enthusiasm and cooperation evidenced this past weekend by Shavertown fire and ambulance crews, boys scouts, their leaders and concerned residents in the search for lost Henry Metzger made one proud to live in a community such as ours.

Many have voiced the opinion that there are no more dedicated men or finer scouts to be found anywhere and to that statement I add a hearty amen.

The quick response at a late hour, the flicker of a hundred flashlights in the early morning, the patient efforts of Major Charles Sieber as he gently urged on his bloodhound, "Lady", the last search by Scoutmasters John Butler and Mal Kitchen before giving up for the night, forty men converging in half that number of cars before the fire siren had died away, gave an anxious wife and family assurance that help had come.

And it was mighty fine of Eleanor Frederick and Florence Pugh to make sandwiches for a multitude of hungry scouts, some so eager to join in the search they had neglected their breakfast. Andy Roan brought potato chips, soda and pickles while Jean Parsons and Phyllis Roman made hot chocolate.

I think we were all glad the boys had found him, for they had walked many miles that day. It is good to give the youngsters credit for a job well done. Other teenagers had turned out the night before. Tommy Campbell also assisted, riding his palomino through every trail in the hills behind Evergreen Cemetery, when the animal wasn't being commadeered by "Marshal Dillon" Upsyke.

It was a time of joint effort, when dog tired men forgot the appeal of a soft bed and swiftly passing hours, and eager lads tossed in their sleep in anticipation of the continuing hunt next morning. And a life that could well have been lost was saved.

RUMMAGE SALE
 Don't forget to hand in those unused articles for the Fire Auxiliary Rummage Sale scheduled today, tomorrow and Saturday at the Fire Hall.

UNJUSTIFIED ATTACK
 I was sorry to read in another paper an unjustified attack on Supervisors Hauck and Smith, blaming the poor fellows for the dissolution of Trucksville.

Trucksville may be having problems, but she will meet them with fortitude and solution. No one is to blame for the current situation except perhaps the state road planning commission who has let no one locally in on the blueprints for the new highway.

What a nice idea the Keller Class had when they agreed to join in the WSCS district effort of giving up green stamps to outfit a hospital bus in India with medical supplies.

PERSONALS
 Gail Lamoreaux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lamoreaux, W. Franklin Street, celebrated her 16th birthday on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kennington, Somers, visited friends in the area over the weekend. The Kenningtons formerly resided on Perrin Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sterner, Allentown, frequent visitors to this area and parents of Mrs. Frederick Eidam, will celebrate their 64th wedding anniversary on Oct. 26.

Three deer appeared in Mrs. Walter Shaver's back yard on Friday evening.

We were all happy to learn that no further operations are necessary at this point for John Clause, who was checked at Wills Eye Hospital last week.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Fred Pettit, our former neighbor, who passed away this week in Point Pleasant, N. J.

Harry Evans is erecting a new home on Ferguson Avenue.

Craig Givens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Givens, Forty Fort, formerly of Main Street, returned home last week after being a hospital patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kingston and daughters, Cornwell Heights, are new residents of W. Center Street, living in the former Williams home.

Robert Aldrich, formerly of E. Center Street, is recuperating at his home in Filmore, N. Y., after submitting to surgery for a ruptured appendix.

Capt. and Mrs. Peter Gaughn, Kilgerr, Texas, are residing at 39 N. Pioneer Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bartz, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bartz, Sr., Mt. Holly, N. J., spent last weekend with the Milo Bauerlys and the James McFarlands. They also attended the Wilkes-Moravian Football game and saw their daughter and granddaughter, Carol Bartz, in action on the kick line. Carol is a junior at Wilkes, majoring in education. Mrs. Bartz, Jr., is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McFarland and a sister of Mrs. Bauerly.

Mrs. Cleora Chamberlain, Pioneer Avenue, was admitted to Nesbitt Hospital Saturday afternoon, after she suffered a heart seizure at her home. She was taken to the hospital in the Kingston Township Ambulance with Bill Frederick, Walter Davis, Jack Lasher, and yours truly as crew.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis, Shagbark Drive, on the birth of a new daughter.

Mrs. William Morgan was ill at her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Porter will leave next month to visit daughter, Mary Evans, and family in Florida.

BIRTHDAYS
 Greetings this week to John Clause, Mrs. Walter Gerlach, Lorraine J. Wills, Anita Rauscher, David Roberts, Marjorie McCarty, Robert E. Kemmerer, Mary Bennelack, Robert Nico.

Mt. Zion
 The other day I had a heart-warming visitor at curbside for a few minutes in the person of George Pollock. Niece Lydia had been taking him out for a ride to visit some of his relatives and see some of the extravagantly pigmented autumn foliage. George says he doesn't remember a year when it was so beautiful. That's the funny part of these sprees of color, each year seems to spell-bind the viewer into thinking he never saw it so brilliant. This annual carnival comes for a few brief weeks once a year, temporarily wiping out any comparable scenes. Each is the finest ever seen! Lydia and "Uncle George" came down on Rt. 92 to see Nancy Lewis Kinsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lewis. And of course Tina, the little heart-throb, was there. Uncle George had a wonderful visit and then up our road they came, and into our driveway Lydia drove. George's legs were just too tired to get out on them — that's his only weakness. So we chatted at the car door. He is going on the second half of his 96th or 97th year, I can't remember which. (Shame on me for not having the exact figure in mind, for I wrote him up the last two years!) One feature of George Pollock's personality is unforgettable, his often expressed gratitude to Almighty God for His goodness in letting him live with a clear mind and good conscience on and on toward the century mark. And in generally good health. (Dear Creator, do you suppose you could give George Pollock a little more strength in those legs so as to hold up his near century framework? But of course, dear Creator, we would want you to do as you think best. Amen.)

TINNAMON SINS!
 O isn't talking funny sometimes? Well, the other day Mildred Lloyd, (whose brother-in-law Cornelius Hastie is a home baker and makes mouth watering binnamon sons) was talking to me on the phone and asked if we could use a few tinna-mon sins, for sending things to Dorothy in! When I got through laughing, I said yes, we would be glad for some cinnamon tins. So we now have some nice packaging units for something-or-other, and they'd be nice in Africa to keep out the ants and cookie-snitchers.

Tuffy and I were walking past Willis Hawkins last week and saw Willis fussing around his car and trailer in his driveway. "Looks like you're going somewhere," "No," says he, "We've just come back from Florida." Come to find out, they had driven down two weeks ago last Thursday and enjoyed ideal weather both coming and going. In Florida the foliage was green, that of palm trees, until they got up to North Carolina. Then the tree leaves began to take on the colors mile by mile that we know around here. In Florida, they visited Mrs. Hawkins' aunt and uncle near Sarasota and then traveled along the coast from one area to another. She said the wind blowing from the other direction had brought in lots of mosquitoes.

Mrs. Mary (Howard) Lewis is recuperating at home from her recent severe surgical experience. Emma Miles stays with her days to see that she doesn't fall and can get about some. She is apparently making a good recovery.

When I asked Nadine VanTuyile how her mother was, for she has been a patient in Nesbitt Hospital several days, she replied that her father, Leon VanTuyile, had just joined her there. Leon has been having some pain and the doctor thought it best to have him go in for some observation. Hope they are soon all well and home again.

I see by the church bulletin that next Sunday, being Laymen's Sunday, David Werts of Carverton is to speak at all three churches. David did a fine job the Sundays he has spoken at the Valley Crest services.

Sweet Valley

Sharon Coombs, Lehman, Lillie June Ferrey daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ferrey and Susan Lamoreaux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lamoreaux, were guests last week-end of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Smith and Donald Dayton Long, Lancaster. The girls enjoyed attending services in Lancaster where the White Sisters, Evangelistic singers, were guests.

Paul Farver, prominent local businessman, was admitted last week to Nesbitt Hospital where he is a medical patient.

Pastor and Mrs. William G. Hughes, Linda and Billy, attended a family dinner at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes, Sr., Ashley, the occasion marking the birthday of Mr. Hughes. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hughes, Jr., Wilkes-Barre. Pastor Hughes was the guest last Saturday of Pastor Nolan Moore, Berwick Christian Church. They attended the Bloomsburg-Berwick football game.

There will be an important meeting tonight at the home of Pastor and Mrs. William G. Hughes for the Community Halloween party plans to be formulated. Members of the committees from the church of Christ, First Christian Church and the Ladies Auxiliary are kindly urged to attend this meeting.

Jan and Wanda Long, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Long, have been confined to their home with chicken-pox. Jan is a member of the fourth grade and Wanda second grade at Ross School.

Items of interest for this column will be greatly appreciated. Of special interest is news of our boys in service. Kindly call your correspondent at 477-3271.

Sconoley, Nancy Claire McInaoid, Eliot Perrego, Isabel Ceasby, Bobby Snerry, Ernest Bevan, and Mrs. William Grunitz.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laidler, Dallas and Arline Bessmer were guests at the 40th wedding anniversary dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Oberst in hazelton Saturday night. Mrs. Oberst was the former Marion Learn of Chase, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. George A. Learn. Both were Back Mountain residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Parsons have returned from New Jersey after visiting their son Bill and family and daughter Mrs. Robert Crudeaux and family.

Mrs. Beatrice Williams, Hill St., had as house guests last week, her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fumer, Philadelphia; Mrs. Elwood Dymond, Collingswood, New Jersey, and Mr. and Mrs. Lucy Williams, from North Plainfield, New Jersey.

Mrs. J. C. Aten, New York City, is spending some time with her sister Mrs. Beatrice Williams.

Our sympathy this week to Mrs. Franklin and family on the death of her mother.

Sincere sympathy to Mrs. George W. Nichols and family on the death of her mother this past week.

Mrs. Albert Thompson, Irvington, New Jersey, was guest last week of Mrs. Loretta Roche of Luzerne and Arline Bessmer, Trucksville.

Lehman
 Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eustice entertained Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Puderbaugh and son Terry, Benton, recently.

W. S. C. S. will sponsor a Roast beef dinner at Lehman Methodist Church basement Tuesday, October 29, serving from 5 to 7 P. M. All you can eat, with home made pie. Mrs. Ruth Wright is chairman. You can get tickets from any member.

Mrs. Earl Chamberlin is home from the Wyoming Valley Hospital, and is improving.

Willard Cilvik expects to get home from the General Hospital this week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eddy Cilvik, Outlet Road.

Have you folks noticed the white and amber reflectors at the turn of Routes 118 and 415? I want to thank all those interested enough to send letters to me, as they really helped a lot. I know the Highway officials read them. We want to thank the Highway Department Officials for their quick action. It may not look like Broadway, but it is a big help to all motorists.

The little girls, called The Little Notes Choir, sang this morning in the Methodist Church. It is so nice to see the little children take such an interest in church work.

Mrs. Mabel Major entertained the Wait And See Class of the Methodist Church Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ruth Wright presided at a short business meeting. The balance of money needed for the public address system was voted out of the church treasury. Mrs. Major was assisted by her granddaughter, Patricia Major.

Mrs. William Drabick entertained the Louella Neely Bible Class of the Methodist Church in her home, Mrs. Russell Ide, presiding. Present: Ellen Lamoreaux, Lillian Hildebrand, Faye Brown, Elizabeth Ide,

East Dallas

Former resident born and raised in Orange; Alfred Dymond, now living in Laceyville, was honored with a birthday buffet luncheon, at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Jean and Bob Miczkowski, Tunkhannock. It was also a family farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Dymond, as they plan to leave soon to make their home at 508 Desota Drive, Tarpon Springs, Bv. Florida.

Local folks attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howell, Mr. and Mrs. George Hess and family, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown and family, Mrs. Bert Brace, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Brace and family.

Mrs. Joe Franklin, Binghamton, Mrs. Bert Brace, and Mr. and Mrs. Alf Dymond, were dinner guests last Wednesday of their sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howell, East Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Hess, recently married, have started house-keeping on Parrish Street, Dallas. Clinton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hess, Upper Demunds Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lucy, Richmond, Virginia, were week-end guests of her mother, Mrs. George Moore. Mrs. Lucy is the former Dorothy Moore. My guess is that they were homesick to see their son Ronny, who after vacationing with "Grandma Moore", decided to stay in East Dallas. He is making his home with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Lange — much to the envy of his schoolmates. Imagine living with a Chief of Police? Aunt Edna was a drawing card too, of course.

The Ella Moore Memorial Class of East Dallas Church met with Mrs. Bert Brace in the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Hess. Due to illness there were many unable to attend. Present were: Julie Wilson, Mary Ryman, Myra Carlin, Louise Hess, Irene Moore, and hostesses Freda Hughey and Gladys Brace.

Mrs. Margaret Miller, Dearborn, Mich., is visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore and Mrs. Hislop, Demunds Road.

Jessie's mother, Mrs. Hislop, is coming along fine since her arm is out of its sling. I wouldn't be surprised to hear she is making bread soon. She has pluck!

Mrs. Beatrice Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Culver, and children, left Saturday afternoon to visit Janet Moore Decosta and family, in Massachusetts. They returned home Monday having closed the Economy store for the day.

Dottie and Tom Heslop, Demunds Road, left a week ago Sunday for Bradenton, Florida, intending to be back next Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Heslop, Tom's mother, accompanied them as far as Philadelphia where she is visiting her daughter Eleanor and family.

Mr. Sterling Keiner, Dottie's father is keeping the home fires burning. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Florence M. Howell, Mary Simpson, Kathleen M. Brown, Addie Searfoss, Sadie Johnson, Mrs. Grace Whitesell, Letha Wolfe, and Mabel Stolarick.

Happy birthday this week: Fern Rogers, Edward Cilvik, Mitchell Tough, Ella Major, Addie Kytte, Lynn Gordon Johnson, Edwin Stolarik, Alberta Steltz, Delphine Sutton, Eston E. Adelman, Edna D. Johnson, and Paul Hoover.

Eleanor Keiner, keeps him company on her off duty nurse's hours. Birthday greetings go to Eloise Holmgren, Mary Baron, Richard Phillips.

Wedding anniversary congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Wilson.

We are happy to hear Fred Lamoreaux is coming along slow but sure.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the Charles Volack family in Orange, over the death of their son, Airman 1c Charles Anthony Volack, Jr., in an aircraft over Bolivia.

Mrs. Lucy Morgan returned Saturday from a two week visit with her daughter in Philadelphia. She is very proud of her new grandchild, Judith Brown, six pounds.

Ella Moore Class will sponsor a Halloween party in East Dallas church social hall 8 P.M. Friday, October 25th. A small donation will be asked to defray expenses.

Mrs. Jeannine Wood, daughter-in-law of the Newell Woods, spent two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Hoover, Demunds Road.

Mrs. Lorraine Krains, Demunds Road is visiting relatives in Washington for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krick and son Bobby, Reading, were Sunday visitors of Walter Shutt and Irene Moore.

William Davis from Shavertown, will be the guest speaker in East Dallas Sunday School October 20.
