Idetown Church Installs Organ

Recital Scheduled For Sunday, Oct. 27

Idetown Methodist Church will use its new organ for the first time on Sunday. The Allen transistor model has two keyboards, and full foot-pedal banks, is a twin of the organ at Dallas Senior High School, and a slightly smaller version of the organ at College Misericordia. It has bells and a harp arrangement.

Mrs. George May, assistant to organist Mrs. Loren Keller, will be seated at the manual on Sunday.

The old organ, in need of expensive repairs, has been sold to a retired Trucksville school teacher, through the classifieds in the Dallas Post.

In June, the decision to buy a new organ was made by members of the thematic committee: Mrs. Keller, Mrs. May, Mrs. Bruce Williams, Mrs. Ralph Welsh, Rev. Norman Tiffany, and lay leader Bruce Williams. On September 15, the contract was signed, and on Monday, October 14, the organ was installed.

A recital, open to the public, will be given Sunday, October 27, at 7:30 by Marjorie Davis, a professional organist from the factory.

The cost of the organ, $2,840, is being defrayed by voluntary contributions of individuals and organizations, and by the efforts of church women who make pasties and serve dinners.

A turkey dinner will be served Thursday evening, October 24, beginning at 5.

See The Post's Beautiful Christmas Cards New Old-Fashioned Baked Beans

Out of Idaho's bean bags and your scrap bag comes Beanie the Clown with a partner or three. Fun to make while dinner's Pot-o-Beans slow-bakes unattended, sending its tantalizing fragrance all over the house. These Baked Beans have something which cannot be bought—the flavor of Home!

The bean "recipe" is traditional except for the use of Idaho-grown large white Great Northern variety of dried beans. Sometime, break with tradition and use instead Idaho's dappled Pinto beans, a flavor treat indeed.

Old-Time Pot-O-Beans

2 pounds (4 and 3/4 cups) Idaho Great Northern Beans, washed and soaked
2 medium onions, chopped (1 cup) 2 teaspoons dry mustard
3/4 pound salt pork 2 teaspoons salt
1/2 cup brown sugar 1 cup molasses

Wash beans; add 3 quarts water. Bring to boiling point rapidly. Boil 2 minutes only. Add 1/2 teaspoon soda. Cover; let stand 1 hour. Or soak overnight in measured amount of cold water and the soda. Either method—bring to boiling point in the soaking water. Add 2 tablespoons salad oil or butter to cut down foam. Reduce heat, cover and simmer until beans are tender but firm, about 1 hour. Using a slotted spoon, place beans in cooking pot in alternate layers with chopped onions and the salt pork cut in 1/2-inch slices.

Mix together remaining ingredients with the bean liquid. Pour over the beans, adding enough boiling water so that beans are covered. Put on the tight-fitting lid or foil and lid. Bake in a 250 degree F. (slow) oven for 8 hours, adding some boiling water if beans are not quite covered. Just before serving, remove lid; raise oven heat to brown surface. Makes 12 hearty servings.

Yours for the asking? If you would like a pattern for the Clown Bean Bag, send a post card to Idaho Bean Commission, 212 Continental Life Building, Boise, Idaho.
