

Lehman

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Brown's daughter Susan was taken to Nesbitt Hospital Friday evening for tests. They live on Lehman Heights. The Little Notes Choir sang "My Bible and I" at the Methodist church. I was thinking of the little innocent faces, what they could think if they knew there was a group trying to take the bible away from them. W.C.T.U. Institute was held in party Fort Methodist Church this past week, with a nice group from Lehman and the Outlet Road.

Present from these parts: Mesdames Russell Hoover, Edith Hoover, Floyd Milbrose, Francis Smith, Emery Stokes, H. A. Brown, Harry Howell, Arthur Hoover, Lillian Hildebrandt, Morton Connelly, and Stella Schuler. Mrs. Hazel V. Davis, Wilkes-Barre, mother of Mrs. Gordon Hoover, passed away last week. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hoover and daughter from New Jersey, attended the funeral. Mrs. Earl Chamberlin is at home coming along slowly, after being in Wyoming Valley Hospital for a month. We are glad to see her back.

Mr. and Mrs. William Drabick have gone to Florida for the winter. They have good sense, like the birds. Mrs. Ella Major celebrated her 83rd birthday last week. I would like to say a belated Happy Birthday to the most pleasant and Christian lady I know. She had a broken hip and spends most of her time in a wheelchair, but that does not stop her from helping in the home. She does the washing, most of the cooking, and most of the entertaining. You never come away feeling sorry for her, because she puts you to shame. W.S.C.S. of the Methodist Church
