Over 1100 people were served at the 16th Annual Fall Festival and Turkey Supper held at the Fire Hall, Saturday evening, October 19. Chairman Carl Aston reported 1150 pounds of turkey, 6 bushels of potatoes, four bushels of sweet potatoes, four cases of No. 10 cans of peas and corn, twenty pounds of coffee and over two hundred pies were consumed by the large crowd.

This correspondent who learned the art of dishwashing helping out in the kitchen, was impressed with the thoroughness and spirit of fire company and auxiliary. Some of these people have been working at these affairs for the past sixteen years. Proceeds will be used to operate and maintain the fire department during the coming year. Chairman Aston wishes to thank all who worked to make this affair the grand success it was. Chief of Police Cooper and Asst. Chief of Police Gensel are to be complimented on the efficient manner in which they directed traffic and parking.

Harry Ostrum who recently spent some time at home with Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Gabel has returned to Flick State Hospital at Cresson, where he will undergo an operation for the removal of a lung. Harry celebrates his birthday today, and the Gabels would appreciate it if all our readers would send him a birthday card, making it a sort of a card shower to help bolster Harry's spirits.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sherwood, Denise and Scott, had the following visitors on Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Jack, David, Cindy and Carol, Nanticoke; and Mr. and Mrs. John Regis, Paul, Ann Marie, Dianne and Mark, West Wyoming.

Jackson Township Firemen's Association will meet Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock when a report will be made on the turkey supper last Saturday. Plans will also be discussed with regard to the Annual Christmas Party given for all children of the Township on the Saturday before Christmas. Firemen hold their meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month and any male resident over eighteen is invited to join.

Richard Bombick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Bombick, Chase Huntsville Road, who has been bedridden for the past several months due to rheumatic fever attack, is now able to be up and around, and if he continues to improve at his present rate, should be able to return to school within the next two months. He suffered no damage to his heart.

Mrs. Anna Barral, Wilkes-Barre, is spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barral, Jackson Road.

Rev. Robert Jones, Pastor of Huntsville Methodist Church, has been conducting a preaching mission Sunday evenings during October, and will conclude same Sunday evening, November 3 at 7:30. The public is invited to attend these Sunday evening services.

Robert Williams, Cubmaster of Pack 225, sponsored by Huntsville Methodist Church, attended the Pow Wow held at the Pennsylvania State University Center on Saturday. Donald Klaiber of Meadow Lake is the new Scoutmaster for Boy Scout Troop 225, which meets at the Fire Hall every Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. All boys between 11 and 14 are invited to join.

This correspondent along with his wife and ten other persons made a trip by train to New York recently. We had to get up at 3 a.m. in order to meet the group at Kingston to travel to Scranton to catch the 5:30 a.m. Erie-Lackawanna train to Hoboken, only to find out when we arrived at Scranton that the train would be forty minutes late arriving in Scranton. We arrived at Hoboken after having had breakfast in the trains dining car, which was an enjoyable experience after the great number of years since we had traveled on a train. We took the Hudson Tubes over to New York, and headed for Radio City to see the Rockettes. We ate a light lunch and proceeded to Pier 83, where the Circle Line boats leave for the three-hour trip around the city. You get a close-up view of the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, the Brooklyn Navy Yard, and many other places. Coming home, we left the bus Port Authority station by bus for Hoboken and boarded the train for Scranton. We took the trip because trains are fast disappearing. The Erie-Lackawanna is removing a train from this service.

WCSO of Huntsville Methodist Church will hold its last public dinner November 14, and will also hold a tea party November 20.

The "CN & U" Club of Huntsville Methodist Church will hold a Halloween Party at parlors for all children of the Church 7:30, Saturday evening. Children are asked to come costumed.

Despite all the hard work they performed in helping make the Turkey Supper the grand success it was, the Auxiliary will hold a rummage sale at the firehall Friday and Saturday, starting at 10 o'clock. The following items, in addition to clothing are requested: furniture, dishes, jewelry. Contact Mrs. Albert Balita, 674-5782, Mrs. Willard Sorber, 696-2486 or Mrs. Thomas Gimble, 696-1918, who will arrange to pick up any articles. Help the Auxiliary to help the firemen.

Congratulations to Bernadine Mrochko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mrochko, Chase Manor, who was 12 October 14, but who celebrated her birthday on Sunday with a combination birthday-Halloween party. Present: Bernice Winicki, Denise Witek, Clyde Littleford, Diane Aston, Dorie Ruggere, Edwin Yanchick, John and David Yankoski, Billy and Judy Gimble. Apple ducking and other Halloween games were enjoyed.

Halloween Spirit has hit Chase Manor with most of the homes gaily decorated with pumpkins, squashes and corn stalks. The Littlefords have a huge carved-out pumpkin placed over their electric lamp post.

The lovely vase of flowers at the morning service, Sunday was in memory of Mrs. George Casterline and given by her family.

Mt. Zion

Since last week's news Mr. and Mrs. Leon VanTuyke came home from the hospital.

On Sunday Oct. 13 Miss Nettie Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miles, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Seiple, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parrish, Mrs. Floyd Rozelle visited Mr. and Mrs. Addison Woolbert on Nov. 17 will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary with open house that afternoon. Their many friends hereabouts will surely want to congratulate this jolly couple on staying jolly for a quarter of a century. May they keep it up for many more quarters!

Mrs. Bill Hughes has been ill for some time at home on Sutton Creek Road.

Well, I might as well report on my own surgical experience of last week Tuesday at Nesbitt Hospital. And was I in stitches when the surgeon got through! Several threads in my mouth. Had all my lower teeth out—there were three of them; one had a root so long the doctor said it reached down to my little toe, well, perhaps a little exaggerated. I've been picking out soft food for my diet, but some of these foods I'll be having a whole new lower set. My program of work was somewhat altered, and I had to miss one lecture at the Mental Health workshop.

SURPRISE AT VALLEY CREST
 In adjusting my schedule at Valley Crest I went last week on Friday instead of Thursday. They were admitting some new patients and I was enjoying meeting the stretchers at the door and greeting the newcomers. So here came a stretcher along the corridor and not paying any attention to the stalwart ambulance men I bent over to tell Ralph Newcomb that I was Mr. Gilbert, the chaplain, and just then one of the ambulance men casually remarked, "And my name is Scott!" I looked up and sure enough, Leighton Scott! And there after a few minutes I met the mother of a Carol Williams a writer for Dallas Post whom I do not remember ever seeing, but anyway as one Dallas Post pusher to another, Hi, Carol!

A VISITOR FROM THE OLD DAYS
 Saturday afternoon a car drove into the yard and it was a long time friend, Roy Lamb, from a former parish in New York. With him was his daughter, Ruth Jane Lamb, R.N., who was a childhood playmate of our Dorothy's, now a nurse in the Veterans Hospital in Syracuse. We had a wonderful visit. When I was his pastor I used to help him take care of his bees sometimes. He was one of my church officials. This visit will be something to write Dorothy about. When Cathy came home she and Ruth Lamb had a good visit and it ended up with Ruth Lamb getting a box of plants and gourds to take back with her to her apartment.

Last Sunday was Laymen's Sunday with David Werts of Carverton preaching "the rounds." At Mt. Zion we featured an all-men's chorus which seemed to please people. David preached on "Communicating With God," in which he emphasized the need for silent thinking of prayer to God, keeping the lines open between us and God.

Mrs. Lila Felt was also on hand. Mr. and Mrs. Corey Meade will observe their 49th wedding anniversary on Sunday, October 27.

Safety sign: "Watch out for school children . . . especially if they're driving."
