Rinken-Congdon Nuptials Are Performed At Lady Of Victory

Our Lady of Victory Church, Harveys Lake was the setting for the recent wedding of Miss Janice E. Rinken, R.N., daughter of Mrs. Vivian Rinken, Idetown and the late Alexander Rinken, to Melvin R. Congdon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Congdon, Demunds Road, Dallas.

Rev. Michael Rafferty performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white gladioli.

Miss Patricia Mastalski was organist.

Miss Judy Neary, R.N., Scranton, was maid of honor. Miss Debra Rinken was flower girl for her sister.

Robert Rukstalis was best man. Ushers were Robert Rinken, cousin of the bride, and Kenneth Koehler.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Clarence Rinken, the bride wore a white gown in silk organza over tissue taffeta, fashioned with a scalloped chantilly lace portrait neckline with long, tapered sleeves. The molded bodice was fitted to a slim waistline accenting a gracious skirt enhanced in lace motifs extending into a circular sweep train.

Her veil of imported silk illusion was fashioned in medallion tiers and styled from a lace crown embellished with seed pearls and crystals. She carried a swing bouquet of white roses and ivy and wore a diamond and pearl pendant, a gift of the bridegroom.

Her maid of honor, Miss Judy Neary, R. N., wore a gown of white crisp organza over a heavenly blue silk taffeta styled in an off the shoulder neckline, fitted to an empire bodice, and a shirred midriff waistline in a modified bell-shaped waltz length skirt.

She wore a heavenly blue picture hat with dainty floral sprays and back bow with flowing satin streamers and carried a swing bouquet of pink and white carnations and ivy.

The flower girl, Debra Rinken, sister of the bride, wore a dress of white imported pure silk organza over pink taffeta, styled in a tight-fitting bodice with Swiss applique flowers around the waist, puffed sleeves and a large Oliver collar. She wore a pillbox hat featuring pink and white flowers and streamers. She carried a miniature swing bouquet of blue and white carnations and ivy.

The attendants wore sterling silver charm bracelets, gifts of the bride.

An afternoon reception was held at O'Connell's Twin Lakes, Harveys Lake, after which the couple left on a motor trip to California. For traveling the bride wore a brown and white silk suit, white accessories, and a corsage of white carnations.

The bride is a graduate of Lake-Lehman Area High School and Mercy Hospital School of Nursing, Scranton, Pa. She is a member of the nursing staff of Mercy Hospital, Wilkes-Barre.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Kingston High School and served four years with the United States Air Force. He is in business with his father.
