Jeanette Eileen Shaw Weds William Wynn Quick, Oct. 12

First Christian Church, Sweet Valley was the setting Saturday, October 12, for the nuptial ceremony which united Jeanette Eileen Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond G. Shaw, Sweet Valley and William Wynn Quick, son of Mrs. Lois Albertson, Bloomsburg R.D. 5, and Freeman Quick, Sr., Plymouth.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Pastor B. Kirby Jones. Mrs. Kay Altemus, sister of the bride was soloist, and Mrs. Cletus Holcomb, Jr., organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Alencon lace over taffeta, with fitted bodice, long sleeves, tapered at the wrist, and scalloped neckline trimmed with rhinestone settings. Her bouffant skirt featured a hoop and train which was drawn into a bustle after the ceremony. Her tiered veil of French illusion fell from a crown of rhinestones and she carried a swing bouquet of carnations, centered with a corsage.

Lee Roese, Mooretown, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Bonnie Smith, Sweet Valley, cousin of the bride and Judy Shaw, sister of the bride. Their identical gowns were of pink taffeta, with fitted bodice and scoop neckline. The bouffant skirts were ballerina length and they wore small matching veils and carried bouquets of blue carnations.

Flower girls were Francine Altemus and Gail Shaw, nieces of the bride. They wore nylon dresses featuring full skirts with Francine in peach, Gail in blue. Timothy Shaw, Jr. nephew of the bride, was ring bearer.

Sonny Stout, Berwick, served as best man. Ushers were Freeman Quick, Jr. Bloomsburg and Wilbur Shaw, Sweet Valley.

A reception for one hundred guests followed the ceremony and was held in the church hall.

Mrs. Quick attended Lake-Lehman School. Mr. Quick attended Northwest Jointure High School and is presently employed at the Nescopec Lumber Co. They are residing at Bloomsburg, R.D. 5.

A pre-nuptial shower was given by Lee Roese.
