Chaplain's Patient Has Warmest Praise

Larry Hummel, Valley Crest writes: I met Rev. Charles Gilbert at Valley Crest where I am a guest of the home. Rev. Gilbert visits our home twice a week. He always has a smile for everyone. He brings happiness to many a guest, by prayer, or singing a hymn with the guest. If he misses a Monday or a Thursday, you hear, "Did Rev. Gilbert miss us or did I miss him?"
 He gives the people who take Physiotherapy encouragement. It is wonderful what a kind word will do.
 We were talking, I said at night I count my blessings for the day and not the sheep. The week of October 21, I picked up the Dallas Post and under the town of Zion, I saw a story by Rev. Gilbert, that he had a dream of a large black horse in his bed room, but when his wife and daughter woke him no black horse.
 We hope Rev. Gilbert will be with us a long time as our chaplain.
