Junior Miss Contest — Dallas is honored to have Beverly Eck and Margaret Lawson as students. Beverly won the title "Junior Miss" and Margaret was chosen as fourth runner-up in the recent contest.

Following is a schedule of the two final days: Saturday — In the morning, fifteen semi-finalists were introduced to the coming events, then rehearsals were held. That afternoon, a parade formed at Forty Fort Airport and proceeded to Irem Temple. Here they had an opportunity to "really get to know" each other. After interviews, they were guests at dinner. Sunday was the big day for the girls. Officials of the program were introduced along with Beverly Ritts, last year's queen. Each girl was presented to the audience with a brief life history and list of school activities. They performed in sportswear, talents and evening gowns. Five finalists were then selected. Weeks of preparation and worries were condensed into the crowning.

Beverly and "Maggie" are certainly a credit to our school.

This week is American Education Week at Dallas Junior High. All parents and residents are cordially invited to visit our school today and tomorrow from eight thirty to three. We know how anxious everyone is to see his little darling hard at work.

Friday, November fifteenth, the P.T.A. is sponsoring a Record Hop. Everyone is sure to have a rollicking time.

Our cheerleaders have been practicing very hard for our up-coming pep-rally to be held November eighteenth. The pep-rally is to cheer the boys for the last game of the season when they will play Clark Summit at Dallas. The captain of the cheerleaders is Patti Larson. The co-captains are Barbara Lohmann and Christine Grose.

Some of the able bodied teachers are playing volleyball at the Senior High. These giants play with an enormous ball about the size of five basketballs. The teachers are George McCutcheon, William Baron, Leonard Kozik, Clinton Brobst, and John Bauer. So far they are undefeated. But we are getting up a team to end this lucky streak.

DOWN GOES THE COST Of Electric WATER HEATING

There never was a better time than right NOW to change to the use of an automatic ELECTRIC WATER HEATER!

With the reductions in rates just announced you now get MORE ELECTRICITY AT THE 1c RATE FOR WATER HEATING

No matter how many loads for the washing machines or how many hot baths are needed, there will always be PLENTY OF HOT WATER for dishes and other purposes at the low 1c rate with a new, modern, full automatic ELECTRIC water heater.

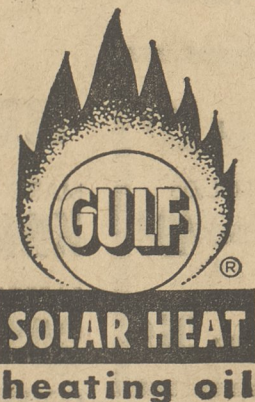

A customer using an ELECTRIC WATER HEATER, where all energy is billed through one meter, will now get 400 KWH at 1c per KWH instead of 300 KWH at 1c per KWH under the former residential rate, and the low cost 1c electricity will be available after using 200 KWH per month instead of 300 KWH.

HOUSEWIFE'S DREAM COME TRUE! This quick-recovery electric water heater supplies plenty of instant hot water for home laundry and family showers at the point of use without long, wasteful plumbing runs. Electric hot water heaters are convenient and can be installed anywhere as shown in this utility room.
