Organ Dedication Sunday At 3 P.M.

First Christian Church of Sweet Valley will dedicate its new Wurlitzer Concert organ Sunday afternoon at 3. The public is invited to attend the ceremonies, and to enjoy a concert of sacred music presented by Ivor Price, professional organist with the Raymond Memorial Church in Scranton for the past twelve years. Mr. Price has been a frequent visitor to the Internationally known Eisteddfod in Wales.

Morgan Leysbon, also of Raymond Memorial, will direct the singing, and Mary Evans Salamida will present solo work.
Coffee, tea and cookies will be served in the church parlors following the program.
The organ, anonymous gift to the church, was installed in September, replacing the piano which had until that time been used for services. At the console have been several organists of the congregation: Burl Updyke, Sharon Coombs, June Mungus, Frances Smith, pianist has also been working with the organ.
Rev. B. Kirby Jones minister, standing by the organ in the picture, says that the anonymous gift is a stride forward in history of the church, an affirmation of faith in the future.

Educational Wing Is Erected And Roofed
Harry A. Pieffer of Dallas has been awarded the plumbing contract for the new Trucksville Free Methodist Church, announces Wesley Cooper, Jr., chairman of the Board of Trustees.
Construction began on the new church on the morning of September 16 when the bulldozer arrived to begin the excavation. At this writing, the educational wing has been erected and the roof is completed. The basement walls are all complete and the subflooring is complete in the entire building.
The company providing the laminated arches did not deliver them on schedule, so the work on the sanctuary has been held up temporarily. However, the other work continues in a drive to enclose the entire building before bad weather arrives.

Card of Thanks
Mrs. Meryl Wagner wishes to thank friends and neighbors for cards and flowers received while she was in the hospital.
