Married At Trucksville Methodist

MRS. JAMES ROGERS

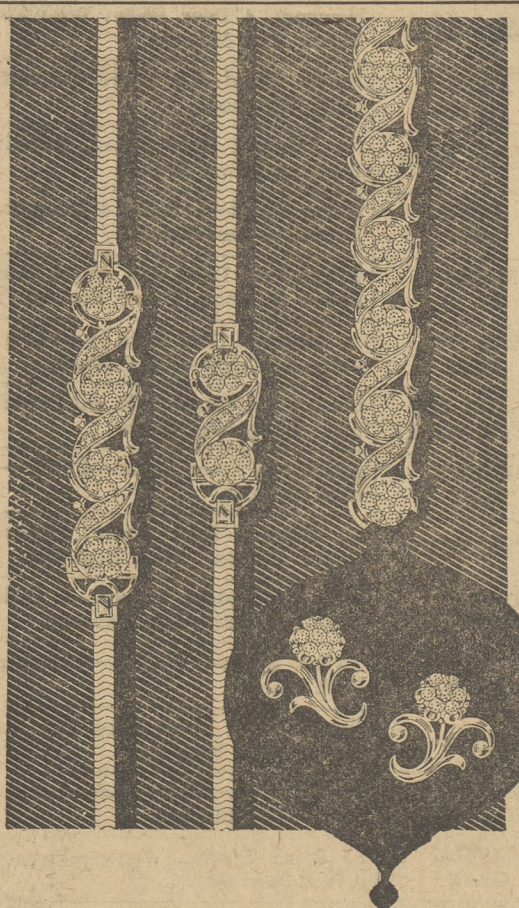

With the beauty of the autumn foliage forming a rustic bower at the little White Church on the Hill, Trucksville, Miss Ellouise Holmgren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Holmgren, Hemlock Street, Fernbrook, became the bride of James Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Rogers, Maple Street, Fernbrook on Saturday, October 19.

Rev. Andrew Derrick of Glenview Primitive Methodist Church, Fernbrook, officiated. Treva Sorchik was soloist and Marie Pomeroy played the wedding music.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white floor length wedding gown with an open scalloped neckline and long tapered sleeves ending in points at the wrist.

The bouffant skirt was trimmed with wedding ring lace which formed the chapel length train in alternating rows. Her headpiece was a double crown of pearls and aurora borealis which held a four tiered veil of imported illusion. She carried an arm bouquet of white mums, pom poms, interspersed with yellow rosebuds and tied with white satin streamers.

Miss Carol Ann Rowe, Newark, N. J. was maid of honor and Mrs. Willard Lansberry, Lehman; Mrs. Spencer Martin, Jr.,

The bridegroom's mother chose a royal blue sheath peau de soie made with a jacket and three quarter length sleeves. She wore a blue hat and black accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses.

Mrs. Anna Jones, grandmother of the groom, selected a blue floral dress with a flowered hat and Mamie Eisenhower carnation corsage.

A reception followed at Fellowship Hall, Trucksville. The couple left on a honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls and Canada.

The couple are residing at 249 Hamilton Street, Trenton.

Wed At St. Therese's Church

MR. AND MRS. S. RICHARD STRAZDUS

Saint Therese's Church, Shavertown, was the setting for the recent wedding of Miss Barbara Rodack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rodack, 260 S. Sherman Street, Wilkes-Barre, and Stephen Richard Strazdus, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Strazdus, Dallas.

Rev. Francis Brennan performed the double ring ceremony, before an altar of white gladioli with a touch of yellow asters. Mrs. Robert McDowell, was organist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length gown of imported organza with a Sabrina neckline trimmed with hand cupped Alencon lace medallions and seed pearls. The long sleeves were tapered and controlled front trimmed with Alencon lace medallions, the skirt finding fullness from unpressed pleats.

Her veil of imported English illusion was arranged from a crown of seed pearls with crystal droplets. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, white carnations, stephanotis and ivy interspersed with yellow roses.
