Judith Buckley Becomes Bride Of Lawrence Polachek, Dallas

Miss Judith Buckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacque Buckley, and Lawrence Polachek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Polachek, East Dallas, were joined together in marriage at a double ring, candle light ceremony, Saturday, November 23, at 2 P. M.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fred Eister in Alderson Methodist Church, Harveys Lake.

Organ music was played by Mrs. Dorothy Dodson.

Escorted by her father, the bride was attired in a white brocade dress, trimmed in white fur and a white fur hat. She wore a corsage of pink tea roses, and carried a white prayer book.

Miss Margaret Ayers, bridesmaid, wore a peach colored knit dress, with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

John Dymond served as best man. The bride's mother chose a beige wool dress with brown accessories, and a corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother selected a gown of antique white, embellished in gold and gold accessories. She wore a mink stole and a corsage of white carnations.

A reception followed in the newly-weds home, 48 Joseph Street, Dallas.

The bride is a graduate of Tunkhannock High School and the Empire Beauty College in Wilkes-Barre.

The groom graduated from Westmoreland High School and is employed by Bendix Corporation at Montrose.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stiles and Irvin Berber, Washington, D. C.

Both are in fairly good health. Mrs. Davies spends her time turning out lovely handwork, while her husband reads and enjoys keeping up with current events both through newspapers and television.

Edward Stredny, Polio Victim, Is Improving

Edward Stredny, Harveyville dairy farmer who was stricken with polio over two months ago, and has been in an iron lung at General Hospital, is improving to the point where he can breathe outside the apparatus for an hour and a half without distress. He is regaining use of his arms and shoulders. In spite of the interruption to his dairy farming, necessitating sale of his livestock, Mr. Stredny feels confident he will farm again.

Talk To Nephew

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bottoms, King Street, Dallas, talked with William DeReemer and family, Colorado Springs, Colorado, Thanksgiving eve. They were informed DeReemer had just bagged a ten point deer and also received a promotion to Sp. 5.

YOUR HEALTH

It is colorless, tasteless, odorless, nonirritating. The most widely distributed poisonous agent known, it is carbon monoxide.

Carbon monoxide is a Frenkenstein created by man, a product of the industrial age.

This poison enters the home through accidental leakage of manufactured gas from open burners and defective appliances.

In industries such as coal mining, gas manufacturing, and in the steel industry, carbon monoxide is a common hazard.
