Mrs. Maude Yeisley To Observe 80th Birthday At Open House

Mrs. Maude Yeisley, Foster Street, Dallas, will be honored at an Open House at her home on Sunday afternoon and evening beginning at 2 p. m. in observance of her 80th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Yeisley, Kingston, son and daughter in law of the celebrant are hosting the affair.

A most esteemed resident of the Back Mountain, Mrs. Yeisley was born in Lansborough, daughter of the late Charles and Kate McCoy. She moved to Wilkes-Barre with her parents when she was three. Her father was a well-known stone contractor and laid most of the streets in that city.

She married the late Warren Yeisley, court house stenographer for many years and the couple resided in Wilkes-Barre until taking up residence on Overbrook Avenue 33 years ago. Mr. Yeisley passed away in 1948.

Three children were born to the couple: Darryl, Kingston; Jack, Florida, and Mrs. Kay Van Campen,

Washington, D. C. There are now nine grandchildren and eighteen great grandchildren who adore their kind and cheerful grandmother.

Mrs. Yeisley has resided at her present address for the last four years, enjoying its nearness to the center of activities. She is an active member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, OES Dallas Chapter, and Toby Creek Lady Rebeccas.

The octogenarian does all her own housework and in her spare time crochets lovely tablecloths and doilies which are sought for gifts by her friends and neighbors. Numerous quilts also are fashioned by her deft fingers and she does her own quilting.

She believes in leading an active life and is interested in world events and people. Her host of admirers attest to her pleasing personality and her concern for others.

The Dallas Post joins with your wide circle of friends in wishing you a most happy anniversary Mrs. Yeisley.
