Wallace Perrin Succumbs At 70

Truckville Native Loved By Children

Services for Donald Wallace Perrin, 70 Holly Street, Truckville, were held Saturday afternoon from a Forty Fort Funeral Home with Rev. Robert Germond officiating. Interment was in Memorial Shrine Cemetery, Carverton.
 In ill health for a number of years, Mr. Perrin died Wednesday morning at Nesbitt Hospital following his admittance on Tuesday. He had suffered a severe heart attack some months ago but had recovered from a serious seizure at that time. An extremely popular person, Mr. Perrin's prime interest was his family. A lover of children, many came to him with their problems. He was known affectionately as "Pop" to many in the community, where he had lived for 50 years.
 The son of the late Fred and Barbara Wallace Perrin, he was born in Luzerne. For a number of years he operated a grocery store there and later was employed by Harris Hardware Company, retiring six years ago.
 Mr. Perrin was a charter member and founder of Anthracite Veterans of Foreign Wars, Post 283, having served with the 109th Field Artillery during World War I. He was a member of Truckville Methodist Church.
 He is survived by his wife, the former Marion Miers; children, Mrs. Jayne Montgomery, at home; Mrs.

Violent Deeds Are Logical Outcome Of National Bent Toward Violence

On the Sunday following the death of President Kennedy, William Reid, pastor of the Carverton Methodist Church, spoke on the meaning of the death of the president.
 Recognizing in the words of King David at the death of Abner that "a prince and great man has fallen," Mr. Reid stated that the assassination cannot be blamed alone on a deranged mind, but that deeds such as this arise out of a national temper that encourages violence.
 "All too often," he said, "we have failed to respect the right of others to disagree with us. Name calling has replaced the willingness to search for truth. National leaders have been smeared; Mr. Eisenhower has been called a communist; conservatives have been called Birchers. How often we have heard someone say, though just in jest, 'He ought to be shot.' Disrespect and hatred and distrust have been preached in the political arena, in schools, and even in churches.

 "Violent talk," Mr. Reid continued, "leads to violent action. The bombing of Negro churches, the spitting on Mr. Stevenson, and finally, the assassination of Mr. Kennedy are the inevitable results of the irresponsible attitudes of our day."
 Mr. Reid noted that our country and our churches have grown strong because of the sacrifices of many people. He called upon all peoples to dedicate themselves anew to the cause for which Mr. Kennedy and others have given their lives in the assurance that if they thus dedicate themselves, God who is our Refuge and our strength will guide our nation through these days. Thus, he said, the sacrifices which have been made for us will not have been made in vain.

Mrs. Lillian Bauman Dies At 61 In Elmira

Mrs. Lillian Bauman, 61 Pioneer Avenue, died Friday night at the Argnot-Ogden Hospital in Elmira, where she had been a patient for two weeks. She had been on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. George O'Hanlon, of Big Flats, N. Y. when she became ill.
 She was a daughter of the late Bernard and Josephine Benedict Phoneman, Dallas natives. Her husband Emil died two years ago.
 Burial was at Big Flats, following a memorial service at First Presbyterian Church, Big Flats. A memorial service was also sponsored at Kingston Presbyterian Church, of which Mrs. Bauman was a member. Rev. Herbe

She leaves in addition to her daughter, three grandchildren. Louise Philbin, Bronx, N. Y.; Wallace F. Roslyn, Pa.; Howard W. Wilkes-Barre; Carl, Luzerne; son-in-law, Mrs. Donald Coughlin, Fort Fort; brother, Calvin, Harrisburg. Also 10 grandchildren.

Former Resident Dies In Florida

Robert Currie, a member and one-time president of Kingston Township school board when he lived in Druid Hills, Shavertown, died at 65 Friday night in his home at Daytona Beach, Florida. Burial was in Florida, where Mr. and Mrs. Currie had made their home shortly after leaving this area in 1957.
 Both Mr. and Mrs. Currie were active in the community for the seventeen years of their residence. Mrs. Currie for a term was president of Wyoming Valley Woman's Club.
 Church affiliations were with Shavertown Methodist, where Mr. Currie was a member of the official board.
 Illness forced retirement from the General Reinsurance Co. of New York. He had been expecting to continue with the firm, based in New York, when stricken.
 He had suffered a stroke while at Druid Hills, and a second stroke and settling in Seaside.
 Recovery had been to the point where he could walk with a cane, but disability was marked, and a heart condition complicated it.
 He and Mrs. Currie had enjoyed a cook-out on the beach the night he later collapsed. Death was practically instantaneous.
 He leaves his widow, the former Ruth Bayler of Tyrone; and a son Robert Jr., of Allentown; and a brother Stuart.

Heartwarming Joy...
 Give a Christmas Gift To a St. Michael's Boy!
 Again this year the public is invited to participate in a heartwarming Holiday endeavor by visiting either of the two main offices of the Pennsylvania Gas and Water Company — 41 North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre, or 135 Jefferson Avenue, Scranton — to place a Christmas gift under trees traditionally decorated in honor of St. Michael's School for Boys.
 The principal gift suggestions are articles of clothing for boys between the ages of 12 and 15. Shirts, jackets, sweaters, trousers, shoes, underwear and articles of personal grooming are most suitable. If checks are donated, they should be made out to "St. Michael's Christmas Fund" and donation boxes are located at each office.
