LOVE'S LABOR LOST

The new plan for eliminating the 6th legislative district, which includes us, will sure play havoc with our school district. It will mean that after a successful union district has been established, Dallas Borough and Dallas Township will no longer be a part of our educational set-up. Franklin Township's future also is in doubt. This is but one of the factors to be considered, and we hear that the whole deal was engineered by some bigwig in Luzerne County. What puppets we are.

TOYS ARE NEEDED

I owe Bill Pugh an apology. Right before Thanksgiving he asked me to post a notice and I forgot. The Shavertown Fire Company has a big barrel in the Fire Hall waiting for all your discarded toys.

The local boys are helping out the Marine Corps Drive "Toys For Tots" and Boy Scout Troop #231 will pick up any offerings you might have, or you can leave them at the hall.

The annual Christmas project brings cheer to many youngsters, so let's fill up the barrel. Wagons, tricycles, trucks, dolls, games and any others will be put in tip top shape by the Marines. Our firemen are anxious to do their share. Mal Kitchen is in charge of the Scout troop.

Speaking of the scouts, a number of residents have tagged trees for the holiday, purchasing them early from the local scout troop. Trees are lovely and reasonably priced. The boys are at their lot across from Shavertown Methodist Church every night and weekends.

The Cubs, too, are taking orders for assorted nuts and fruit cakes.

POST OFFICE HOURS

Richard Griffith, superintendent of mails at Shavertown Post Office announces the following holiday hours: December 14, 8 to 3, December 15, 10 to 2, December 16 — 20, 8 to 6, Dec. 21 and 22, 10 to 2, December 23 and 24 8 to 6.

Another Christmas will soon be upon us, and the local stores are overflowing with all sorts of acceptable gifts for the holiday. The Fire Auxiliary had a lovely party on Saturday night, treating the kiddies to an early visit by Santa.

keeping a certain jolly gentleman busy.

HERE AND THERE

Well, the bear story really had Obed Hontz buffaloed as to its origin. He did get a spiked buck on Dutch Mt., and Billy got a "Y" buck in Lehman on Saturday, but there will be no bear rug on the living room floor this year.

Two beautiful specimens were hanging in the Merl Bigelow yard, a six pointer brought down by "Butch" the first day of deer season and weighing 125 pounds, shot at South Mt., and a four pointer, weighing in at 140 pounds and killed at Sweet Valley by Merl himself on Wednesday. This is Butch's second successful season since he bagged his first trophy last year.

What a wonderful plan the Bill Dungeys have for Christmas. With both the girls now young ladies, there is a yen for some youngsters to share the holiday with the family. Ann and Bill have searched high and low for several orphans to bring into their home for Christmas week, but thus far there has been no definite commitment.

Keith Yeisley is back in this area. He had hoped to move his family here for the holidays, but thus far has not found a home for rent. Three bedrooms but preferably four are needed for the children. Surely there must be something available.

I was surprised to learn that the John Ferguson family has turned so much land over to Kingston Township, Center Street, Druid Hills, Spring Street, Ferguson Avenue, Lawn Street and Longdale Avenue, and other property are now highly developed sectors, yet Mrs. Ferguson cannot get the township to take over a small extension of Lawn Avenue.

Mrs. Sarah Reese Ferguson, Lawn Street, spent Thanksgiving weekend in Danville with daughter and family, Mrs. Ralph Swartz. Her sister, Miss Mary Reese, was also a holiday dinner guest of Mrs. Swartz, who is the former Mar-

East Dallas

Friendship Class of East Dallas Church held their annual Christmas Party in Centermoreland Methodist Church social room Tuesday evening, December 3. Ladies of the church served them a turkey dinner, followed by a Christmas program, gifts, and games. Attending: Dorothy Mason, Alberta Cook, Linda Watson, Helen Smith, Betty Lamoreaux, Mary Morgan, Anna May Robinson, Jean Phillips, Hilda Moore, Beatrice Ackenhouse, and Francis Cybalski.

Bessie Ruch, Demunds Road, still remains on the critical list at Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. Ellen Garinger had another fall in her home last week. She was lucky not to have broken any bones this time, but it will slow down her recovery from past falls. "Get well wishes" are going your way, Dear Friend.

I'm happy to report that Anna Straudus has returned to her home after being a medical patient in Nesbitt Hospital for a week.

garet Ferguson. Mrs. Ferguson returned home Sunday night after helping out while Mr. Swartz underwent surgery. It took her three hours, instead of the regular four drive, due to slippery conditions on the highways.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill and Miss Brenda Clause spent the weekend in New York City visiting relatives and doing some Christmas shopping.

Conratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Marcase, 200 Goeringer Avenue, on the birth of a daughter, Dec. 4, at Nesbitt Hospital.

Spec. 4 Johnson Miers and family spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Miers, Perrin Avenue. The young soldier will leave the middle of the month for a three year tour of duty in Germany. He is at present stationed at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walz and sons Bob and Ralph, Jo Ann Hadsell spent the Thanksgiving holiday with friends in Shepherdsville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin have a copy of the Dallas, Texas, papers giving first hand accounts of the shooting of President Kennedy. Their son Jim, an attorney in that city, was joshed by his dad that he might have to defend Oswald, now deceased, since he was the newest lawyer in town. The Texas Martins have a great pride in their adopted community, and were perturbed that the incident happened there.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lukasavage spent Thanksgiving at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Kate Mulligan, Newburgh, N. Y. Jerry, who is attending Western New England College in Springfield, Mass., was able to meet them at the half way point and share the holiday meal with his family. He is majoring in Industrial Engineering.

Sincere sympathy is offered to Mrs. Robert Currie in the loss of her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. James Peters, Broomall, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Dungey.
