P.F.C. Leslie Dickson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Dickson, is on a 30 day leave, at his home on Ransom Road. Leslie has been in service on Okinawa, then to Japan and Hawaii. He has to return to the Camp Marine Base, West Virginia, to sign in on Christmas Day. Leslie is a graduate of Dallas High School. We were all very glad to welcome him home, and hope he will soon be home for good.

Mr. and Mrs. Darryl Dickson, a brother of Leslie, spent a few days at their parents' home last week, but have now returned to their own home in New Jersey. Darryl is a male nurse in Lyon's Veterans Hospital, New Jersey.

It was like a family reunion for the Dicksons, as their daughter, Carolyn Spudis is back home from Texas, where her husband Robert Spudis is stationed in the Armed Forces. It will be a happy day when he will be able to join her soon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rice, Forty Fort, and Mrs. Rice's mother, Mrs. Floyd Nulton, Binghamton, spent last Thursday with Myrtle Miller and George Snyder, Hildebrand Road.

Mrs. Grace Moore, Mabel Bell, Lucy Morgan and Myrtle Miller attended the annual Christmas banquet and party, of the Orange Methodist Church, Ladies Bible Class. A turkey dinner was prepared and served by the Cheerio Class, in the church social hall Saturday, Dec. 7.

Due to illness, their teacher, Mrs. George Schallenberg was unable to attend.

Artie did it again. While sliding at Bill Perry's home, Artie Baird, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baird, fell and cut his leg bad enough that he was rushed to hospital where it required four sutures.

Ella Moore Memorial Class of East Dallas Methodist Church, held their annual Christmas party in the social hall, Tuesday evening, December 10. A covered dish, buffet style dinner was enjoyed by Mary Hoover, Jule Wilson, Helen Siley, Betty Kintzer, Rev. and Mrs. William Watson, and sons Brian and Mark, Gladys Brace, Viola Brace, Jean Sommers, Jessie Moore, Mary Cook, Jeanette Dickinson, Mary Ryman, Margaret Weiss, Dorothy Heslop, Mrs. Frank Heslop, Myra Carlin, Beatrice Ockenhouse, Hilda Moore, Irene Moore. An interesting talk was given by Linda Watson. Young Brian Watson had a grand time passing out the Christmas gifts.

In case you are wondering who the trio trumpeters are who will accompany the carol singers from East Dallas Church, Sunday evening, Dec. 22, they are Warren Dewitt, Robert Wiley, and Thomas Rowett.

Next Sunday morning during Sunday School, 10:15, a film on "The Spirit of Christmas" will be shown to all departments, courtesy of Commonwealth Telephone Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nicholas, Binghamton, were guests last week of the latter's sister, Mrs. John Mokychie, and family. No doubt they helped Nettie move and get settled in the newly remodeled home, on the late Wilson estate, which Wilson Ryman purchased. Mr. and Mrs. Magee live in one half of the home.

The "Singspiration" held in East Dallas Church Sunday evening was certainly worth all the time and effort put in by the choir, accompanied by Howard Dymond, organist, and Reverend Mr. Watson at the piano. Members were Beverly Dickson, Carolyn D. Spudis, Carol Cadwalder, Priscilla Coolbaugh, Mary Ann Gobie, Mimi Cadwalder, Diana Pickett, Dorothy Mason, Pamela Hunter, Mary Morgan, Mrs. Robinson, and Betty Lamoreaux. Ronald Clemow planned

Noxen

Noxen Fireman's Auxiliary held a well-attended Christmas party December 10. A delicious ham dinner was enjoyed with the tables decorated, and a musical Christmas tree. Games were played and gifts exchanged. A business meeting was also held, with the following new members added: Mrs. Paul Keiper, Mrs. Loren Case, Dorothy French, Miss Pat Newell, and Mrs. Russell Newell.

Present were Mesdames Paul Keiper, Loren Case, Dorothy French, Ronald Hopfer, Jacob Miner, Ruth Field, William Butler, Fred Schenck, Oscar Fish, Loren Case, Roy Dendler, Clark Oliver, Wheeler Hess, Joseph Dotter, Willard Bender, Calvin Strohl, Robert May, Elvin Bean, Chester Keiper, Earl Beahm, Jr., Ralph Lutes, Edith Smith, Richard Smith, Joseph Nalbene, William Hollos, Ralph Engleman, Misses Stella Shook and Pat Newell.

Mrs. Tom Swire underwent major surgery at Wyoming Valley and supervised. After a jet went over recently, leaving its lovely white trail in the sky, my granddaughter, Pattie Moore said, "Oh look! There is Jesus's clothesline." Sort of a child's fellowship connection, wouldn't you say?

Which reminds me, not too long ago the Sunday School lesson was about the Feast of the Passover. After the class, the teacher asked who could tell her what the lesson was about. One of my granddaughters lifted her hand and said, "It was all about the Feast of the leftovers."

The local hobby club met December 10, at Kingston House, for their annual Christmas Party. Secret Pals were made known and gifts exchanged after a hearty dinner. Present were Barbara Lasher, Sally Wagner, Mary Reese, Mary Lasher, Verna Cummings, Joyce Sidorek, Carol Lasher, Bonnie Wendel, Sue Welch, Ruth Young, Marilla Stanton, Florence Martin, Priscilla Coolbaugh.

Harry Martin Sr., has been ill at home for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bloomer and two daughters were weekend guests of the Harry Martins.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Kline Jr., Pine Grove Mills, and Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Schaffer, King of Prussia, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stanton. They were formerly Geraldine and Shirley Stanton. All three couples were here to attend the Rotary Christmas Dance at Irem Temple Country Club, Saturday Evening Dec. 7.

I was happy to receive a letter last week, from the Paul Valentines, Auburndale, Florida. They were both well and happy, and busy as bees with church activities.

Birthday greetings to Warren Stanton, Vivian Dymond, Josephine Matukitis, Texas Wilson Jr., Mrs. Rush Lamoreaux, Carrie Moore Hawke, and Sue Ellen Hobbs, Aunt Jennie Evans would have been 85 Saturday.

Anna Stradus made a one day trip last Friday to Geisinger Hospital for a scheduled monthly check-up. She's doing good, I'm glad to say.

Hospital this past week. She would appreciate cards.

Classmates Christmas party will be held at the home of Mrs. William Munkatchy December 20. Fifty cent gifts.

Ladies Society of St. Luke's Lutheran Church held their Christmas party at the Paris Hall last week, enjoying a delicious turkey dinner. Present were: Mrs. John Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Case, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crispell, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Engleman, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Keiper, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bender, Pastor Wesley Kimm, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dendler, Mr. and Mrs. Loren Case, Christine Blizard, Mrs. Samuel Blizard, Mrs. Robert Horlacher, Mrs. Joseph Dotter, Mrs. Clark Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler Hess, and Mrs. George Montross.

Roger Race, Wallingford, Conn., spent the week here, deer-hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Boone and Michelle, Evers Grove, spent Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Engleman.

Mrs. Harry Wells and daughter Cynthia, Rockland, Mass., spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Patton, and also attended the wedding of niece, Carol Bennett, and Allan Hobbs Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Morris, Newark, N. J., spent several days this week at his home in Noxen.

Robert Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thompson, who is stationed at Biggs Air Force Base, El Paso, Texas is home on a thirty-day leave.

Children of Noxen Lutheran Sunday school will hold their Christmas exercises at the Church Sunday, Dec. 22, at 6 p. m.

HELLO... TELEPHONE COMPANY?

"I just wanted to thank you for our new kitchen phone. Since we've had it, I haven't had a single overheated bottle... and I never have to cry to make Mommy hear me. I just gurgled a little 'cause she's always right here with me. That makes us both happy. Yes, I promise. I'll thank Daddy as soon as he gets home. And I hope other Daddy's are as thoughtful as mine is."
