Lake-Lehman School District Holds Delightful Yule Party

Lake Lehman Educational Committee held a delightful Yuletide Banquet at Irem Temple Country Club on Tuesday evening, honoring the faculty, secretaries, custodians, board members and their wives.

The festive tables were charmingly arranged with graceful baskets of holly, greens and Christmas balls, flanked by tall red tapers. Red and green foil nut cups and poinsettia programs completed the holiday decor.

John Sidler, toastmaster and chairman of the Educational Committee, welcomed guests and expressed pleasure at the growth of the organization in 14 years, which began with 22 members.

Invocation was given by Delbert Hines and Willard Sutton, president of the joint school board, extended greetings and introduced board members and new teachers. Lester Squier, superintendent, Anthony Marchakitus, supervising principal, and Robert Belles, ass't. supervising principal, received gifts and secretaries and custodians, cash Christmas presents. Each lady present was the recipient of a lovely holly corsage.

Mr. Wesley Davies, assistant superintendent of Luzerne County Schools brought greetings from the office.

The Brass Choir, directed by Mr. Molaskas, played an accompaniment to a reading by Carl Squier.

One hundred and seventy one persons attended the affair. Mrs. Dolores D'elia, Mrs. Celia O'Leary, Misses Mary Alice Hands, Mary Lamoreaux, Ann Antonello and Hannah Culp were in charge of arrangements.

Miss Ellen June Greene Is Bride Of Carl Bower Bailey

Miss Ellen June Greene, daughter of Mrs. Maude Belle Green, Albuquerque, New Mexico, announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ellen June to Carl Bower Bailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Bailey, Sunnyvale, Cal., on October 27.

The Baileys are former residents of Dallas.

Rev. Richard Rounds officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by I. D. Jordan, the bride wore a gown of hand-clipped chantilly lace styled with a jeweled saberina necklace and a bouffant tiered skirt terminating in a chapel train. Her veil of illusion was held by a pearl coronet. On her right hand she wore the engagement ring which had belonged to the groom's maternal grandmother, this is "something old and sentimental". Her bouquet of pink carnations, white feathered mums and tangerine stephanotis were carried on a lace-covered Bible.

Mrs. D. A. McCary was matron of honor and brides-matrons were Mrs. Robert Dillon, Roswell, N. M., and Mrs. Robert Virgil of Albuquerque. Their dresses of silk organza over taffeta were in shades of tangerine and coral with bouquets of carnations in matching tones.

Dressed in white, Charlene Bais, was flower girl and Paul Ritchie was ring bearer. Candles were lighted by Misses Mary Laurine Dubuque and Linda Wood.

The groom selected Lynn Ritchie as best man and serving as usher were David Holt and Robert Woolsey.
