Bird Count On Dec. 21

The Back Mountain Bird Club will hold its Annual Christmas Count, Saturday, December 21. This is the only Winter Field Trip that the local club holds during the winter season.

Edwin Johnson is in charge and he requests that any and all persons who would like to participate call him, or any of the other chairmen. The Club is hoping to achieve a goal of fifty species this year, heretofore they have been able to score only forty-one. Other chairmen are William Reid, George Nesbitt, Trucksville.

Deisher, and Mrs. C. L. Nesbitt.

Another event of interest to birders and conservationists is an Audubon Screen Tour to be held in the Science Auditorium, of Muhlenberg College, Saturday, January 4, 8:15 p.m.

Earl L. Hilfiker will speak on "Wildlife of the Eastern Woodlands. His movie with close-up photography will show the animal life in and about a beaver pond. If this lecture is as good as the first two in this series it will be well worth the trip to Allentown. For further information call Mrs. Nesbitt, Trucksville.

Services Friday For Mrs. Amanda Boline

Mrs. Amanda Boline, 74, Trucksville, died suddenly Tuesday morning at her home on Vonderheid Avenue.

Services are scheduled for Friday at 1:30 from the Graham Funeral Home, S. Franklin Street, where friends may call this evening. Burial will be at Mt. Greenwood. Officiating minister will be Rev. John O. Lindquist.

Mrs. Boline, the former Amanda Ebbeson, was born at Sugar Notch, daughter of the late John and Johanna Goodmanson Ebbeson. She belonged to the Salem Lutheran Church in Sugar Notch. Since 1940, she lived in Trucksville.

Surviving are: her husband J. Adolph; two sons: Hubert, Buffalo, and Donald, Illinois; six grandchildren; sisters: Hilda Ebbeson, Trucksville, and Mrs. Bala Neary, Kingstown.

Perry Hoover Will Be Buried At Maple Grove

Services for Perry Hoover, Jr., Pikes Creek, are scheduled for Saturday morning at 11 from the Bronson Funeral Home, with burial at Maple Grove. Officiating clergyman will be Rev. Fred Elster and Rev. James Garrahan, pastors of Alderson and Maple Grove Methodist churches.

Friends may call tonight and tomorrow evening.

When a Hoover dies, the entire community is affected. It is one of the largest family connections in the Back Mountain.

Mr. Hoover, 65, had known for four years that his days were numbered. Tuesday afternoon he died at General Hospital where he had been admitted two days earlier.

Born in Luzerne, son of the late Perry and Ida Dexter Hoover, he spent most of his life at Pikes Creek. He was a miner and a construction worker. Prior to his illness, he had worked for a time at a cosmetics plant in New Jersey.

He belonged to Maple Grove Methodist Church. Many of the Hoovers are buried in the church cemetery, including Mr. Hoover's parents.

Surviving are: his widow, the former Cora Lord; these children: Mrs. Betty Whitesell, Loyalsville; Janis, at home; Sheldon, Carteret, N. J.; Wayne, Kunkle; brothers: Fred, Shavertown; Arthur, Lehman; Richard, Bloomsburg; sisters: Mrs. Edna Meyers, Stillwater, and Mrs. Louise Seitzchek, Kingstown.

Firing Squad To Salute Mark H. Brown At Grave

Military rites for Mark H. Brown, Center Moreland Road, are scheduled for this afternoon at 2 from the Nulton Funeral Home, with a firing squad at Marsh Cemetery furnished by Noxen VFW Post. Rev. William Watson will officiate.

Mr. Brown, 54, dropped dead of a heart attack Monday afternoon while hunting deer near Meshoppen. He had stooped over to help his son tag his first deer, when stricken. Mark, Jr., 15, ran to the nearest house for help. Death was instantaneous.

This is the second area death of a middle-aged man while hunting. His neighbor, Irwin Denmon, Beaumont, died early in deer season after dragging his kill to his car.

Born in Vernon, son of the late Levi and Anna Wright Brown, he was educated in local schools. He was employed in construction work by Hemp Brothers, Laceyville.

During World War II, he served with the 319th Infantry in North Africa and Europe.

He leaves his widow, the former Hazel Dymond, Center Moreland; two children, Mark and Frances Ann, both at home; three brothers: Harry, Beaumont; Stanley, Tunkhannock RD; Elmer, New Jersey; three sisters: Mrs. Elmer Shaffer, Eatonsville; Mrs. Emily Smith, Vernon; Mrs. Thomas Piscotty, Plymouth.

Have 16th Child

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stoss, R.D. 1, Dallas, became parents for the sixteenth time when a daughter, Brenda Lee, weighing 9 lbs, 15 ounces, was born Dec. 8 at General Hospital. The other children are Gloria, nineteen, Frank, seventeen, Lowell, sixteen, John, fifteen, Richard, fourteen, Linda, thirteen, Myron, twelve, Michael, eleven, Florence, nine, Thomas, eight, Jimmy, seven, Stephen, five, George, four, Eleanor, two and Arthur, one. Mrs. Stoss is the former Genevieve Eleanor Yale, Tunkhannock.

Three Young Hunters Bag First Trophies

Keith Gensel, 13, Chase Manor, is a proud lad these days, having bagged a 100 pound doe on Monday at Casetown.

Hunting with his father for the first time this year, Keith was disappointed when he missed a buck earlier this month, but the catch on Monday made up for any earlier dismay.

Keith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Gensel, Jackson Township and is a student at Lehman School.

Another successful hunter was Bobby Ide, Idetown, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Ide, Jr., who likewise bagged his first trophy this year, a six point buck on Dutch Mountain.

Bobby is in 7th grade at Lake Lehman Schools. His dad also shot a fine specimen. Both received an antlerless deer license, two of the 400 given out in the county, this year.

David Williams, Overbrook Avenue, was another student who got a 140 point doe on Monday afternoon. Dave, who is a senior at Dallas High School shot his fine specimen at five minutes to five Monday afternoon, while hunting at Lehman. Although he had hunted several years, he received his first success this season.

A 150 pound doe fell to the prowess of Billy Glahn on Monday at Loyalsville.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Glahn, East Center Street, Shavertown, Billy was hunting with his dad, when he spotted his catch.
