East Dallas And Alderson Lead Church League

At Season's opening: The 1964 Church League basketball season was off and running the weekend of December 7 as Harveys Lake, Trucksville, and East Dallas turned in wins at Dallas High School. The League seems to have more balance than past years, especially with newcomer Trucksville.

Alderson vs. Shavertown
Alderson was able to put 4 of its players in double figures Saturday night as they coasted to their second straight win. Gene Brobst led the defending champions over Shavertown Methodist with 22 points. Alderson's 69 points was a single game high for the season. Shavertown, hampered by the absence of Bob Hontz, was led by Dymond with 18 points.

Bonowitz	2	1 5
Eyet	2	7 4
Moskaluk	2	2 6

Huntsville Wins First
The final game of the evening featured the league's newest entry, Trucksville, against Huntsville Christian. Huntsville led 16 to 8 after the first quarter and Trucksville was never able to narrow the deficit. The winners were led by Peoch Kozik with 26, including 8 of 11 from the foul line. The only other man in double figures for Huntsville was Dale Mosier, brother of Clark Mosier, rookie with the Wilkes-Barre Barons. Dale, home from Penn State, contributed 11 points and a fine floor game.

E. Dallas Wins Forfeit
East Dallas was awarded a forfeit over Prince of Peace. The losers failed to come up with five men at game time, and the victory put East Dallas into a first place tie with Alderson. East Dallas opened the season last week with a win over Shavertown. League officials are quite concerned about the failure of Prince of Peace to field a team for the game, and also at the poor attendance at the games.

League Standings
East Dallas	W	L
Alderson	2	0
Trucksville	1	1
Huntsville	1	1
Shavertown	0	2
