

Injures Hand In Lift

Wesley Lamoreaux, Chase, caught his left hand under a lift while working at Luzerne Lumber Company Thursday, one finger was badly lacerated, the neighboring finger painfully bruised, but x-Rays taken at Nesbitt Hospital showed no fracture.

Shavertown

The snowfall has made an ideal Christmas setting, and with school out on Friday, the youngsters could well use those new sleds which were among their requests from Santa.

Scout Master Mal Kitchen placed a huge Christmas package on his front door. The lovely madonna at the Hozempas is also bringing admiring comments.

The rush of last minute preparations for a wedding out in the northern peninsula of Michigan has taken some of the time which I usually spend to get around and see what's doing. A Christmas wedding is lovely, but most difficult during the busy holiday season. However Freddie and his bride-elect chose to be wed during this most holy of seasons, and since his work and hers will center about the promise given by the Christ Child's birth, we gladly overlook the little inconvenience and rush which accompany preparations at this time of year.

By the time this paper goes to press, we will be 1200 miles away witnessing the ceremony. Latest newscasters say thirty inches more of snow has fallen there but since we decided to make the trip by train, we hope to have little difficulty. This will be our first experience on the rail lines.

FROM ANOTHER LAND

The Sinicropes should have a delightful Christmas with two charming visitors from Sweden and Switzerland on hand to share their holiday. Since our forebears come from both countries, we hope to meet them.

A young couple from Taiwan were to share the festive days with us, but due to the trip, changes had to be made. This young man is now studying for his master's degree at the University of Louisiana and his betrothed is taking further study at a Canadian college. We hope to have them with us a little later.

HERE AND THERE

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Poad will have Christmas dinner with the latter's niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Clark, Colonial Gardens, Forty Fort.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald Getz and small son will spend the holiday with their parents in Flushing, Long Island.

Miss Helen McCord, Holcomb Road, will be a Christmas guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. Mark Robinson, Tunkhannock, R. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Wally Gosart and sons will be dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerlach, Fernbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berlew, formerly of Ridge Street, have moved into their newly built home at Haddonfield Hills.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Supervisor Arthur Smith in his recent bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rau, Danville and Mrs. Wesley Evans, Forty Fort, will be Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander, Perrin Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Earl and son, Johnnie, will arrive early next week from Hamilton Square, N. J., to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hontz, Perrin Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Youngblood and children, Falls Church, Va., will come the day after Christmas, and Thomas Jr. and family, Pittsburgh, expect to be on hand.

George Poynton is a surgical patient at Nesbitt Hospital.

Little Tommy Swingle, who keeps the household laughing with his unexpected comments was watching his mother, Mary Lou, wrap some packages the other day. She told him they were for his grandmothers and Tommy noted a closet full of packages nearby. He wryly commented after determining whose gifts his mother was decorating. "If my grandmothers knew those packages were here, they would be swarming about like flies." Tommy has his own wrappings this year, made under the supervision of Mrs. James at kindergarten, and real cute too.

Little Larry Biggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Biggs, was admitted to Nesbitt Hospital on Monday.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Mrs. Ruth R. Smith wishes to thank friends and neighbors for their greatly appreciated expressions of sympathy during Mrs. Smith's illness and at the time of her death.

with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart.

Idabelle and Charlie Mannear had a memorable week, observing their 25th anniversary and birthdays a few days apart. Good friend, Ollie Daubert made a lovely birthday cake.

To all of you, big and small, my wishes for a very happy holiday. May your Christmas day be most pleasant, and good health and happiness be your gift for the coming year.

BIRTHDAYS

Greetings this week to Robert Bullock, Roseann Scutt, Therese McGovern, Mrs. Charles Dressel, Pauline Kelly, Margaret Dungey, Dale Ehret, Eddie Fritzing, Ann Jane Cochran, Elsa Heidel, William Pierce, Bill Alexander, Mary Lengel Seafoss, Mrs. Willard Lozo, Sr., Nancy Lozo, Cora Hill

East Dallas

Like the pony express, or U. S. Mail, "neither rain, hail, or snow, etc." work still keeps going on on Ransom Road.

Even with the house shut up to keep Old Man Winter out, the pounding of Dick Strazdus' hammer can be heard. He works on his new home every available day, and has been putting siding on. It's shaping up wonderfully and will be a large home.

Speaking of pounding, John Parish and his crew are putting a new roof on Myra Carlin's home, and doing other repairs.

The Elias Miller family, Demunds Road, are rejoicing over the birth of a son born last week in Nesbitt Hospital.

Peggy Kasmark's pet dog was found dead by the side of the road, most likely from a hit and run driver.

Her dad, Ben, got her a newfoundland puppy only seven weeks old and weighs (get this) twenty pounds. Oh boy! What will he weigh when full grown?

We are saddened over the death of Mrs. Bessie Ruch, Demunds Road. She had been a patient in Nesbitt hospital the past two weeks, following a stroke.

Ronnie Lucy, nephew of chief of police Pete Lange and Edna, left Sunday 1:35 p.m. by bus for Richmond, Virginia, to spend the holidays with his parents and family. His mother is the former Dorothy Moore of East Dallas. Ronnie's expected to reach Virginia at 9:45 p. m., as it was a straight through bus. That's going some, I think.

Julie Wilson and Betty Kintzer, representing the Ella Moore Class of East Dallas church, distributed poinsettia plants to shut-ins in the Now I've told you about the bees, so here is something about the birds. I received a large parcel of papers on Clearwater, where my sister and brother-in-law Chester and Carrie Hawke live. There were pictures of a "Parakeet tree". Thousands of all colored parakeets have been making their home in that one particular tree for the past couple years. It stands in a trailer court, and people come from all over to see them, especially in evenings when they fly around a lot before settling all at once for the night. Residents of the court have provided large feeders for them. Hawks, Parakeets, and Bees — there you have them.
