MT. ZION

This week I am entering the name of Mrs. Marie LaBar as a new subscriber to The Dallas Post. Marie has moved to Clifton Heights. Her daughter Sharon is a student nurse in Pennsylvania Hospital, Philadelphia. Her son is the one I refer to as "our Marine", Gene, now serving on Okinawa.

There is always one stock order for a Christmas present for Ruth, a new date book. It has to have a page for a week with plenty of space. So I saw one, just like she wanted, in fact just like the one she was just closing up — even to the year — it was 1963. Hope the 1964's aren't out of print yet!

In my stocking I got a set of knitting needles. The last time I got such a gift, it turned out to be the promise of something Cathy would knit for me during the year, a necktie. This time it is supposed to come out as a knit Andean Ski Mask. To wear when I walk the dog on a zero windy day. I'll look like someone from outer space!

It's a nice neighborhood when some can get together for a good party such as Mr. and Mrs. Howard George had on New Year's Eve. The following guests welcomed in the year: Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Rozelle, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Booth, and Marie and daughter, Sharon LaBar.

Travellers up and down our road have watched with interest the building of a new home up on the hill back of Ezra Rozelle's. The place was built and the road smoothed up so that the owners moved in last week Thursday and have had no trouble driving up. The folks are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kraynak, and two little children, from Wyoming.

Amazing how sorrow gets shared in so many directions at once when an unusual calamity strikes. So many people at Valley Crest expressed sorrow at the tragic loss of the whole Harden Coon Jr. family. One lady there told me that loss hit her especially hard because some years ago she used to work for the family. Another lady, on mere mention of the disaster, clasped her hands in prayer and ejaculated "O God love them, the whole family, and those little children!" One realizes how much the family unit means after all. The senior Harden Coon was in Wyoming Seminary when I was, and to him I submitted columns for the Opinator of which he was editor. I have not run across him since that time. My sympathy is surely with him and his wife in this time when he loses a son, a daughter-in-law and grandchildren; not only that but he loses a cherished partner in business on whom doubtless he had entrusted the whole future of the concern. Sympathy in this loss is, as I said and discovered widespread among people never known by the family.

Mt. Zion Youth Choir was entertained by the director Catherine Gilbert Monday evening at the church at a home-made pizza party. Present were: Susan LaBar, Jackie Van Tuyle, Linda Dymond, Lana Best, Karen Hronich, Timmy Earl, Betsey Alling, Nancy Alling, Nadine Van Tuyle, Hal Seiple. Special guests were Sharon LaBar former member of the choir, and Larry Earl, trumpeter.

Later they joined other members of the MYF at the home of their counsellor, Mrs. Harold Seiple. Surprise guest was Chuck Johns of Pittston, their former counsellor, now a student at Duke Divinity School Durham, N. C. Other MYFers were Hal Harris, Wayne Scull, Ronnie Earl, Don Daniels, Billy Miles, Tom Marcy, Margaret Marcy, Ray Earl and Mike Bell.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jenkins, North Scituate, Mass., were visiting the Wesley Lewis home during Christmas holidays. Mrs. Jenkins is the former Marilyn Lewis.

Word is still not reassuring about Mrs. Norman Lewis in General Hospital. She suffers quite a bit of pain.

Mrs. Rose Miller has left Nesbitt Hospital where she was taken following exposure when she fell outside her home. She has recovered and is now staying with Mrs. Katie Klein.

Marion Thomas tells me she had a letter from Sharon LaBar since she went back to Philadelphia Hospital School of Nursing. It seems Sharon had been concerned about her poorest subject, chemistry. She wrote Aunt Marion that she got a 93% on that!

CARVERTON

On the last day of 1963 Ruth had an appointment with Dr. Charles Gelb in Pittston. Just before leaving to go down-town we heard on the radio that a 3-alarm fire was raging on North Main Street so we went by way of the Wyoming bridge and got fairly close to Dr. Gelbs on South Main Street. This turned out to be a delightful visit to the doctor's on account of meeting his two boys, Ernie and Billy. By the way, the Gelbs live over in that new section called Carverton Heights. Their new house looks out over the site of the proposed State Park. Billy has streaked up tall since he joined the U.S. Navy and is a fine looking young man. Ernie has been eating growing food too by the looks and was in charge of the doctor's office while he stepped out a few minutes, Billy is stationed on the ship Yorktown, ORANGE

William Perrego was taken to Nesbitt Hospital a week ago Sunday but not by ambulance. His condition is reported as improving.

Nora Dymond and her sister Fanny were down to son Lee from the day before Christmas till the Sunday after, and reported a good time. They were at George Berlew's for New Years and had a good time. Nora has been teaching twice a week for some time, going to the home of a young student who suffered a broken hip, and could not get to school. The student is getting around on crutches some but it will be some time before she can go out.

On Soccer Team

DAYTON, TENN.—Wayne Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes of Shavertown RD, has recently been recognized for his contribution to the success of the Bryan College Lions' first soccer team. Wayne, who played halfback, is a senior science major at Bryan.

Brin Now Sergeant

Jacob Brin Jr. of Dallas, has been promoted to master sergeant in the United States Air Force.

Sergeant Brin, an administrative supervisor, is assigned to the Inspector General's Office, Thirteenth Air Force Headquarters, at Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma.

He is the son of Mrs. Jacob Brin Sr., R. D. 2, Dallas, and is married to the former Joan E. Stravinski, Wilkes-Barre.
