Dallas Key Club News
by DAVE KOPETCHNY
Dallas Kiwanis Key Club held its monthly meeting Thursday, January 30 and discussed plans for the convention to be held in Philadelphia, April 17 to 19.

It was announced that drill team practice will begin in two weeks and seniors are reminded that if they wish to aid in practice or act as substitutes at parades, it will be appreciated. Letters were distributed to the following seniors who have been with the team three years: William Glahn, John Campbell, "Buddy" Jones, Jack Kaleta, Dave Elston, Mike Jones, Tom Pierce, Joe Ulinoski, Lee Philo and Bob Brown. Tom Rowett and Phil Heycock have been cleaning and repairing the drill rifles. The Keyettes have been designing new uniforms.

A report was given on projects undertaken by members of the Key Club. Many helped needy families during the recent big snow storm; they delivered food to homes and brought in clothing for a family that was burned out. They shoveled snow and assisted in a search for a missing dog.

Three members did an exceptional job during the three day storm pulling seventeen cars out of ditches and digging out many residents in the Center Street area of Shavertown.

Brad Earl drew up posters for the American Legion and along with John Farley, wrote up the wrestling meets and other articles for the newspaper.

Elmer Lameroux and his committee have been doing a wonderful job bringing up the mats before wrestling meets. Some members have aided personnel in the guidance office. They usher in church and Scott Alexander gave a general prayer in church. Members referee at intermural basketball games and
