Dallas Matmen Lose To Knights
Lee Isaacs Remains Only One Undefeated

By Bradley Earl
Back Mountain wrestling fans were treated to a real thriller last Wednesday when Dallas matmen met Lake-Lehman at Lake-Lehman Senior High School. It turned out to be a very close one with Dallas losing by one point.
Dallas took an early lead when Lee Isaac won a decision over Evans, 7-6 and Lou Isaac took Crispell, 6-2. Bob Anderson, Dallas, drew against Keiper in the 112 pound class, and Scott Alexander pinned McDermott at 120. Alexander's victory and a pin by Stockage, (LL), over Wadas in 53 seconds were the only pins made.
Lee Isaac remains the only member of the Dallas squad undefeated.
The Knights took over when Ruckel decided Finn at 127 and took the next 5 bouts until Tom Kerpovich went to the mat for Dallas. Tom won a decision in the 165 class against Dersheimer, 11-1. Dallas, with no entry at 154, forfeited 6 points to Lake-Lehman. Kaschenbach and Brominski took the last two bouts for Dallas. The final score was 23-22.
Bout scores were as follows: 95; Lee Isaac (D) dec. Evan 7-6; 103; Lou Isaac (D) dec. Crispell 6-2; 112-Anderson (D) and Keiper, draw 0-0; 120 - Alexander (D) dec. Church league fans were treated to two great basketball games, plus the added attraction of the Dallas Junior High eighth and ninth grade All Stars, Saturday at the league's annual booster night program.
In the first game, Trucksville upset Prince of Peace in over-time, 77-75. Then Huntsville upset league-leading Harveys Lake to tie the Lakers for the league lead.
Trucksville vs. Prince of Peace
With more than two hundred fans in attendance, the evening got off to a hectic start. Trucksville's victory over Prince of Peace would have given the team a share of the league lead, going into the final week of play. Prince of Peace, however, had other ideas. The game started out according to form as Trucksville led 40 to 28 at half time. Even the third quarter gave little warning as to what was to come, as Prince of Peace still trailed by 11 at 58 - 47.
Then the roof caved in for Trucksville, as it scored only 11 points in the final eight minutes. As Trucksville got "cold", Prince of Peace got "hot" as Coolbaugh scored 7, Ell 6 and Allabaugh 5 to lead the eventual winners to a 22 point quarter and force the game into over-time with the score tied at 69-69.
Prince of Peace's momentum carried into the extra three minute period and they outscored Trucksville 8 - 6. That was the end of the ball game and for Trucksville it probably ended their hopes for the league crown. Both teams had four men in double figures as Ell with 25 and Coolbaugh, 18 led the winners. Trucksville was led by Don Hinkle and Bob Bolton as each hit for 20 points. Many fans commented on the fine play of both teams. Prince of Peace thought themselves involved in a real thriller for the second straight week as they lost to Huntsville last week in the final 3 seconds, 52-50. With the league play-offs coming up soon, they will certainly be the team to watch.

Huntsville vs. Harveys Lake
Huntsville won its fourth straight game and by far the most important when it defeated Harveys Lake to move into a first place tie with the defending champs. It was a thriller all the way. Both teams knew that this was the game they had to go going in the first quarter which ended in an unusually low score of 7-7.
Once the second quarter began, the scoring pace picked up quickly. Huntsville's Jack Eck and Harveys Lake's Dick Scarfoss scored 8 points each in the second quarter and by half time the winners were able to build up a 4 point lead, 26-22. Huntsville held their biggest lead going into the final quarter, 38-31. In the next three minutes, Harveys Lake caught and passed their opponents and threatened to pull away in the scoring column. From this point on, the lead changed hands with practically every basket. Although Huntsville was able to score only one field goal in the final quarter, they converted 7 out of 9 fouls and this, eventually, was the difference.
The game featured an almost obsolete brand of basketball under modern day standards, good defensive play. Strong rebounding, stolen passes and blocked shots drew repeated approval from the excited fans. The winners were led by Don Rome and Len Kozick, with a combined total of 28 points. Dick Scarfoss, one of the senior members of the league, led Harveys Lake with 15 points. Although the Lakers outscored their opponents from the floor, 40-36, the game was won at the foul line as Huntsville converted 11 of 14 attempts while the losers could only cash in on 6 of 15 foul thies.
If both Huntsville and Harveys Lake win their final game, it will force the league into a playoff for the championship between the two teams. Huntsville will have the most trouble as they must beat Trucksville while Harveys Lake meets winless Shavertown this Saturday at the junior High School.
