BOWLING NEWS

BY DORIS MALLIN

Forty Fort Lumber with only four girls on the line, rolled 2271 total pins last Tuesday and took 4 points from Bernie's Pizza as Anita Pascavage spilled 177 (486) pins and Ruth Bennett piled up 182 (481), Liz Weale hit 174 (473) and Rose Novroski turned over 191 (468). The "pizza" gang featured Helen Bonomo with 173 (478) and Eltanor Olenick with 161.
Bernie Pape was top scorer when she rolled a beautiful series of 594 including big games of 206-209-179, for Joe's Pizza. Her team took 3 points from Dallas Hardware despite a nice series of 168-160-187 (515) by Evelyn Roberts, 200 by Marg McCarty and 165 by Jean Agnew.

Bocar Manufacturing took 3 from Link's Tavern on the strength of a 180 (496) by Mary Dimmick, 168 (479) by Marie Bellas and 176 by Barbara Egliskis. Liz Lozo hit 166 and Mary Ann Considine, 165 for Link's.

Industrial Men
Al Wendall posted highest series in last Wednesday's play when he totalled 191-214 (589) for Stanton T.V. His team lost 3 points to Mushal's Construction. Ouch! That handicap!

D. Jordan rolled 207 (567) and E. Espen had 213 (564) for Harvey's Lake American Legion. The "legionnaires" took all 4 from Gordon's Insurance. D. Wickard led the "insurance men" with 203.

Tops for Kern's Beverage as it took 3 from Adams Market, was J. Casterline with 204, Jack Landis 194 and G. Boice 193. G. Boston had 192-201 for the Market.

A & P lost all to LAD's and Parker Fuel took 3 from Automatic Service.
We missed Rich Bonomo of Gordon's Insurance last week. He rolled 225-201 (561). Sorry!

Sapphires did the high scoring for the women last Thursday with 577 (1663) and they are only 1/4 point behind the Topazes who head the league with 11 1/2 points. Garnets and Emeralds are tied with 8 each.

Top scorer was Margaret Milne when she topped 167-193-161 (521) for the Sapphires team. Eleanor Moyer hit 179-168 (486), Helen Bonomo had 163-161-160 (484) and Ruth Lewin rolled 177.

Duke Isaacs heads the league with 12 points followed by Monk Plumbing and Heating with 11.

Libby Cyphers took honors for Monk's with 171-160-192 (523) and Ann Whiting rolled 198-167 (520) for Whiting's.

Other high scores were J. Bevan 188, K. Kalafsky 167, F. Rosenberger 166, L. Bolton 165. In the 150's were D. Cyphers, A. Corbett, E. Anderson, D. Oravitz, and J. Inman.

The Bosses took over top spot with 15 points. But, after losing 3 to Rubber Trim, they're just 1 point ahead. Press Room B has 13.

Jewel Thompson piled up three nice games of 178-160-173 for Tubing. Her 511 series set a new high for the girls.

The girls were the real stars of the evening. Carol Johnson posted 167-171 (469) for Maintenance. Tess Harvey hit 169-163 (465), R. Pilger had 167, M. Webber 163, M. Higgs 160, K. Groff 152, J. Branno 175.

Heading the list for the men was Charles Higgs with 194 (548). Neon rolled 540, Schuler 198 (538) and Groff 528. Johnson hit 212, Miller 204, Elston 191. Thies 191, and Thompson 196.

Boiler Room took team honors with 796 (2348).
Imperialettes

The tie between Garrity and Goodman's was smashed when the two teams met Friday and the "florists" took all 4 points from Garrity, Goodman's has 17 points and Garrity, 13. Garrity is now tied with Delaney, 13 points each, after Delaney took 4 from Joe's.

O'Malia, splitting 2-2 with Apex, has 12, tied with Mac Tools. Mac took 4 from Elston's Dairy.

Anita Pascavage took the honors again when she turned out a series of 552 including big games of 179-187-186 for Mac Tools. Jean Agnew took honors with a 200 game and totalled 516 for Goodman.

Mary Ann Considine rolled 163-166 (475) for Delaney and Becky Casterline hit 189 (476) for Apex. Other high scores were posted by G. Gabel 166, A. Kardell 162, G. Grant 170, J. Berkey 166, B. Egliskis 171, L. Weale 163, E. Shaffer 164 and B. Isaac 178. This was an exciting game for Becky Isaac when she finished with four strikes in a row and in one frame, converted the 7-3 split.

Mac Tools hit 756 (2198) for team honors.
Crown Major

Gosart's Appliances is in front with 65 points and Dallas Nursery has 60%. Next in line is Shavertown Lumber with 53 and then Wesley Gulf, 50%.

Dallas Dairy took all the team honors Friday when it rolled a 1057 game and 2844 total pins. Four men hit over 200 in that game, headed by Lewis Reese with 256. Lew's game was high for the night and along with a first game of 218, he wound up the evening with a 643 series.

Mike Rudick rolled 226-231 (635) for Automatic Cigarette and Pete Hospodar had 212-231 (612) for Monk Plumbing and Heating. Harold Koehler hit 225-210 (616) and Bob Moore rolled 224 (612) for Birth's Esso.

Hitting in the upper 500's were Dave Eddy 213 (595), Fred Adams 215 (589), Marty Panunti 203 (571), Ted Kostrobala 204-204 (589), Ed Havrilla 217-201 (589), Nick Stredny 226 (579), Dan Gula 224 (568), Jim Lohman (571), A. Vanderhoff 227 (578), Amby Vida (581) and Cliff Garris 205 (572).

L. Yankoski hit 200, J. Landis 218, D. Myers 205, Kundrat 205, Corgan 205, Lozo 203, Wendel 200 and Williams 205.

Monk Plumbing and Heating took over first place with 14 points and Duke Isaacs dropped to second with 13. Whiting Parts and Service took team honors with 730 (2101).

Libby Cyphers, (Monk's) and Ruth Nygren, (Whiting's) tied for individual honors when they each posted 491 series. Ruth rolled 175-171 games and Libby had 171-166.

Other high games were A. Whiting 174, A. Corbett 165 and J. Bevan 166. In the 150's were J.
