Marlene Cease will be instructor for a new Teen-Age Dance Class, offered by the Back Mountain Branch YMCA. The class, beginning Tuesday, March 3, and lasting ten weeks, will feature a variety of steps, including Rock and Roll, Fox Trot and Latin dances, among others.

Rev. Frick Improving

Latest reports from Rev. Charles Frick, a patient at the Veterans Hospital in New Orleans, ever since he was injured in a traffic accident some weeks ago, is now out of traction and vastly improved. Hopes are entertained that he can soon be flown to Veterans Hospital here in Wyoming Valley, to complete convalescence from a fractured pelvis.

Former parishioners at Huntsville Christian Church join the rest of the community in wishing a favorite pastor a speedy recovery.

Back Mountain YMCA Desperately Needs Space For Larger Program

Back Mountain Town and County YMCA is outgrowing its facilities.

Rapidly growing interest in the many classes and activities being offered by the Y is taxing available space.

Two popular courses which have been requested were set aside although instructors were ready and waiting. Physical fitness and weight lifting and teen age dancing classes failed to materialize due to the pressing problem of where to conduct the classes.

Seventy-five teenagers filled the Shavertown building to capacity recently when The Comets drew a record attendance.

Secretary Bob Crosson who took over the problem last fall will be handicapped in his ambitious endeavors if the community fails to provide ample quarters for this vital need.

The Back Mountain Library Board has been co-operative in offering its Annex for board meetings. Day Camp is held at Melody Park, but the problem of better headquarters facilities remains.

Here is a project for some interested group or the entire community to take on.

In Memoriam

(To Emory Lozier)
We miss you now, our hearts are sore
As time goes by we miss you more
Your loving smiles, your gentle face,
None can ever fill your place.
Your loving wife,

A soft answer turneth away wrath, but grievous words stir up
Remove not the ancient landmark which thy fathers have set.
