RESIGNATIONS

Several previously announced intentions of resignation materialized last week when Supervisor Lester Hauck submitted his formal resignation to the Board.

The story of a family harassed by disagreeable phone calls was indeed true but there is more to the decision.

Mr. Hauck's tenure in office was marked by a sincere desire to improve his chosen community and he made tireless efforts to do so. How these were frustrated in many instances proved trying indeed to a man of his ability.

It is strange that the circumstances parallel the tenure of another dedicated man, who also resigned. Austin Line had similar objectives and improvements to offer and he, too, was thwarted.

The third man to resign within two years, Secretary Edward Richards, was likewise caught in a web of circumstance and, too, found the situation untenable.

This is indeed something to think about. Every member must be aware of all matters, and not excluded from any pertinent procedures.

Continued interest on the part of taxpayers can help to solve the stalemate. Again, I say, come out to the meetings.

SUCCESSOR?

The supervisors have 30 days in which to appoint a successor to Hauck. It is to our interest that such be done. Another court appointment would point up the friction which has proved a problem.

Several residents from Shavertown are interested in the post and Shavertown should have representation. The general favorite for the post is Milton Evans, who has one such an admirable job in heading up the Kingston Township Board of Appeals. He would bring stability to the board. Dan Shaver has also been proposed for the job and Ted Poad is having petitions signed.

Rumor has it that Richards was offered the vacancy but turned it down.

Many are wondering why our police chief was so interested in presenting a list for consideration on the appointment. Were other employees ever allowed this privilege?

HERE AND THERE

When the Shavertown 6th graders go to the World's Fair, they will be met by Flossie Pugh and daughter, Debbie, who now reside in the near vicinity.

Debbie will have a chance to join old classmates and Flossie will join the big group of chaperones.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Arnold Yeust in the death of his sister, Mrs. Minerva Stoltz, Lincoln Park, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Yeust and daughter, Carol Jean, returned home last Wednesday after a hazardous trip to attend the funeral services in the north central state.

Mrs. Norman Honeywell, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Honeywell and Barbie attended the 7th birthday party of Norman Honeywell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Honeywell at Plains on Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Frederic Eidam visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Sterner in Allentown last week. Mr. Sterner had not been feeling well.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Metz and family will soon move back to Carverton after spending several weeks with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart. They will reside in a trailer near the site of their home which was destroyed by fire.

Our best wishes go to Sam Spacianno, recuperating in General Hospital following injuries suffered in a fall from a roof at his home two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones and Perry Binghamton, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Updyke.

Mrs. Margaret Traver is home again from Mercy Hospital but is not feeling too well.

Mrs. Harold Ash and Mrs. Emaré Franklin visited their sister, Mrs. Morris Welsh at Gessinger Hospital on Sunday. They were accompanied by Mr. Welsh. Mrs. Charles Dressel, mother of Mrs. Welsh, visited her daughter on Saturday.

Tom Reese, is again seriously ill at Nesbitt Hospital.

Our very best wishes go to Earl Hons, who celebrated his 70th birthday on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Sowden and Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hoover returned home on Monday after spending some time in Pinehurst, N. C. The Hoovers went down last week.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of the late William Oldershaw. Always interested in his friends and community, he will be missed by his friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Daniel Shaver is a patient in General Hospital where she underwent eye surgery last week.

Mrs. Robert Daniels, Philadelphia, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrew over the weekend. Tom and Mary drove her back to school on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Newman and children, Reading, visited her mother, Mrs. Sally Ell on Sunday.

How nice to know that spring is almost upon us. Freddie and Dottie called Sunday evening and said the youngsters were kite flying in their area. I was surprised to hear that they had had a mild winter in the vicinity of the Illinois-Iowa border, but Dottie, a Michigan gal, said she had missed the snow. It was good to hear their voices.
