Dallas Kiwanis Had Busy Month

Two new projects, the Aunt Je-mima Pancake Festival and the Gift Packs for local convalescent homes are included in the Dallas Kiwanis Club February report of standing committee, stated Leo A. Corbett, Jr., secretary.

The Dallas Club placed third among the nine clubs of Division 15 on the basis of January reports.

The Boys and Girls Work Committee sent $50 to Kislun for the continuance of its Boy Scout and Explorer Scout activities and continued sponsorship of the Keyettes at Dallas High School, which included completion of their self designed uniforms for the marching group.

Robert Dolbear reported several Key Club members attended a division meeting in West Pittston, had assisted at the Rotary Fair and worked at the local churches.

Vocational Guidance Committee had several scholarship committee meetings and reported three job placements. George McCutcheon, chairman, also reported members attended the Engineering Society Awards meeting.

The Club will have a telephone exchange meeting with a Canadian Club in April to promote International Relations, John Henninger, chairman, announced.

James Huston, Sr., Chairman of Agriculture and Conservation, has secured film on "Management and Feeding of Horses" and "Dog Training for the 4-H Clubs." This group also aids in bird and wildlife feeding.

Harry Lefko said, "Our main public and business activity has been support of the Back Mountain Library Auction." Four members are on the committee and one is co-chairman of the event. Identification Highway Signs for the local High School and the Susquehanna River Basin Development Authority are also supported by the local club.

Prayer tents have been placed in restaurants where needed, reported Bradford Alden, Chairman.

Past Lt. Mitchell Jenkins will give a special talk on Kiwanis history at the induction of new members scheduled for March.

Attendance percentage for February was 82.6 percent.

YWCA Homemakers Holiday Plan Dessert Smorgasbord For Guest Day March 31

A dessert smorgasbord will be a feature of Guest Day at the Young Women's Christian Association Homemakers' Holiday Program at Shavertown Methodist Church on Tuesday, March 31, at 12:00 Noon. All Back Mountain women are invited to attend this Guest Day Affair. Guests are requested to bring a sandwich and desserts of many varieties will be provided. The luncheon program will be on "Kitchen Wares."

New classes begin on Tuesday, April 7, for another eight weeks. Some of the new homemaking skills to be offered are: Bridge, Sewing, Millinery, Glass Etching and Green Thumb. For the out-door sports enthusiasts there will be a golf class. It will be possible for those attending the YWCA Guest Day to participate in the current classes and to register for the new spring classes.

John T. Scoble Dies Suddenly

The funeral of John T. Scoble, Carverton, was held Wednesday afternoon at 3 from Carverton Methodist Church which he had served as a faithful member for many years.

He died at his home early Saturday afternoon following a lengthy illness.

Born in West Pittston, Jack made his home in Carverton for the past 38 years. He was a skilled mechanic, working for Roy Stauffer in West Pittston until ill health brought retirement. He enjoyed gardening and his grandchildren.

As a trustee and Sunday School teacher at the Carverton Church, his strong faith and encouraging smile will be remembered by those who worked and studied with him.

He served as secretary and treasurer of Wyoming Lodge F & AM and was a member of Camp Earl Gun Club on Dutch Mountain.

Mr. Scoble is survived by his wife, the former Viola Sobocinski; daughters, Mrs. Audrey Howe, Flourentina, and Mrs. Marion Signin, Beachwood, N.J.; son, John Thomas, Jr., Lancaster, California; sisters, Mrs. Harriet Newell Weed, West Wyoming, Mrs. Ethel Smith, Benton, Mrs. Hyla Slusser, Wyoming, Mrs. Gert Jones, West Wyoming; brothers, Harry, R.D. 3 Wyoming, and Russell, Jersey City, N.J.; nine grandchildren.

Rev. William Reid, pastor of Carverton Methodist Church, officiated at the funeral, assisted by Rev. Charles H. Gilbert, retired former pastor. Burial was in Memorial Shrine Cemetery.

Emory Huey, 35, Dies In Abington Hospital

Emory D. Huey, 35, former Dallas resident, died Monday morning in Abington Memorial Hospital, Abington, Pa.

Son of Mrs. Mary Huey Arntz of Hatboro and the late Milton Huey, he moved to Abington 14 years ago. A veteran of World War II, Mr. Huey was later employed by Standard Pressed Steel, Jenkintown. Two years ago he underwent heart surgery.

Mr. Huey is survived by his wife, the former Dolly Stolarick of Kingston Township; children, Mary and Emory, at home; sisters, Mrs. Marian Kubiski, Kingston; Mrs. Betty Honeywell, Perkasi; Mrs. Dorothy Dixon, Warminster Township; Mrs. Yvonne Newman, Hilton, N. Y.; brothers, Paul, Hatboro; Milton, North Miami, Fla.; Gilbert, Oklahoma; and Richard, Trucksville.

Funeral will be this afternoon in Hatboro with burial in Warden Cemetery, Dallas.

Can You Help?

Many mental patients at Retreat State Hospital recover to a point where this question must be answered, "Can they now take their place in private home life?"

A new trial method of rehabilitation has been suggested for these patients, namely—occupying one of the cottages located on the grounds at Retreat for a period of time to simulate home life and home making. These cottages are now unused and unfurnished.

The Mental Health Committee of Luzerne County asks for help in furnishing these cottages. Items needed listed below and must be in good condition are, hot plates, rockers, bureaus, mirrors, small tables, chest of drawers, rugs (washable), rugs (straw), pictures, hand sweepers, table lamps, floor lamps, porch furniture, refrigerators, towel racks, waste baskets, clothes trees, irons, radios, linen hampers, sewing machines, washers, toasters, percolators, and plastic flowers.

Call the Mental Health Office at Kirby Health Center, the Council of Churches or Mrs. Edgar Lashford, 696-1006, and arrangements will be made to pick up your donations.

CARD OF THANKS

Tom and Carol Metz, Carverton wish to thank all those who so kindly assisted them in many ways following the destruction of their home by fire and the many friends and neighbors who sent cards and flowers to Carol while she was hospitalized.
