Abram Gay, Longtime Resident Of Carverton
 A veteran Granger and longtime farmer, Abram H. Gay, 81, Lehigh Street, Shavertown, died Friday evening at Nesbitt Hospital, where he had been admitted a week earlier, suffering from pneumonia.
 Born in Patterson Grove, son of the late Harrison and Mary Mullisson Gay, he resided in Carverton most of his life where he engaged in farming and carpentry work. He also drove a school bus for a number of years and during his early manhood was employed by the Transit Company at Scranton.
 His wife, the former Edith Heftt,
 Carverton, died just six months ago.
 The Gays had moved to Trucksville sixteen years ago upon his retirement.
 Deeply interested in Mt. Grange,
 Mr. Gay always attended all meetings and activities of that organization and was a member for 50 years. He was also a director of Carverton Cemetery Association, a member of Carverton Methodist Church and Wyoming Lodge, Jr.
 Order United American Mechanics.
 He is survived by two sons, Ellison, Hyattsville, Md., Sheldon, Lime Ridge, two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Platt, Hyattsville, Md., and Kathryn at home; a brother, Llewellyn, Jensen Beach, Fla., six grandchildren and six great grandchildren.
 Services were conducted Monday afternoon from a Wyoming Funeral Home with Rev. William Reid officiating. Interment was in Carverton Cemetery.

 parents at North Lake.

Lycoming College Choir To Sing At White Church On Hill

The Lycoming College Choir of Williamsport, will appear at Trucksville Methodist Church on April 19th, at 7:45 P.M., directed by Walter G. Melver.
 Lycoming Choir's annual concert season consists of an extended tour plus many weekend engagements within several hundred miles of the College. Last year the choir travelled through the Southeast as far as Florida where they presented several concerts. In June of 1961 the choir recorded a long-playing record album in New York City.

 The Lycoming Choir has accomplished many things since its inception in 1947. During the Summer of 1957, the chorists sang twenty-four concerts in England, travelling 3,000 miles within the English borders, and presenting concerts in nineteen cities.
 The Choir includes selected students from every curriculum in the College program. Through competitive auditions of 125 chorists, members earn their way into the touring unit of forty singers.

 Trucksville Methodist Church Choirs will sponsor the appearance of the Lycoming College Choir. The public is invited to hear sixteenth century music balanced by 19th and 20th century compositions with a generous sprinkling of folk songs included.

Memorial Rites For Air Victim

Former Area Boy Dies In Pacific

A young man who once attended Lehman schools, was among twelve men killed in the Philippines, when a Marine Corps helicopter crashed in the mountains of West Luzon the day before Easter.
 Richard L. Moyer, 28, Greece, N. Y., an employee of Eastman Kodak Co. in Rochester, was working with a photographic unit on the former Sylvia Becker of Forty Fort, did not learn of his death until the following Monday.
 As it was impossible to determine when the body would be returned under military guard to this country, memorial services were held at John Knox Presbyterian Church April 3, with 200 present, and the theme, "Onward Christian Soldiers." For young Mr. Moyer gave his life for his country just as surely as if he had belonged to the Marine Corps with which he had been working.
 The body was returned for burial early this week.
 Richard's father Herbert J. Moyer, still lives at Outlet. His mother, Mrs. Vineta Moyer, resides in Rochester. Survivors include a son David and a daughter Susan; a sister Eleanor, also of Rochester area.

There are many relatives in this area. Four carloads of residents drove to Rochester for the memorial service, the Lawrence Wolfes, the Gilbert Ides, the Carl Baers, the Spencers, and the Boices.
 The shocking news of his untimely death was a terrific blow to former neighbors who had known him when he played in the band at Lehman, and later in the Navy, in which he had enlisted after graduation from Forty Fort High School, he joined the Eastman Kodak Company. He was a deacon of John Knox Presbyterian Church.

District WSCS To Convene At Dallas
 Spring Meeting of Wilkes-Barre District WSCS will be held Thursday, April 14th, at the Dallas Methodist Church with registration set for 9:30 a.m. Theme of the meeting will be "It Is Time."
 Mrs. B. Everett Lord, president of the Wilkes-Barre District WSCS will call the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m. Mrs. Harold Davenport, District Secretary of Spiritual Life will conduct the worship service followed by a welcome from Mrs. Charles Hosler, President of the Dallas Methodist Church WSCS. A report of the nominating committee will be given by Mrs. Roger Glazier, President of the Wyoming Conference WSCS with election of officers following. Ladies of the church will serve a beverage at noon with each woman bringing her own lunch.
 Afternoon session will convene at 1:00 p.m. with Mrs. Stephen Johnson, District Vice-President introducing the speaker, Rev. Margaret Henriksen, Sullivan, Maine who is the author of the book, "Seven Steeples". Rev. Henriksen was born in Plainfield, N. J. and is a graduate of Union Theological Seminary. She is a Methodist minister serving five churches in the Sullivan, Maine, area.
 Mrs. Joanne Netter Herron, West Pittston, will be soloist with Miss Fern Coldren, Dallas, organist. Rev. Leon W. Bouton, Superintendent of Wilkes-Barre District will conduct the installation of officers. Rev. Russell Lavry will be host pastor.

Retired Mail Carrier Was Friend To All

Stricken with a heart attack, Mark S. Bush, 74, 179 N. Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown, died unexpectedly at his home Saturday morning at 10.
 His grandson, Dr. Edward Carey, Virginia, was with him when he passed away. Mr. Bush had not complained of illness until several days before his death.
 A resident of the Back Mountain since 1946, Mr. Bush had lived alone following the death of his wife, Margaret Bush, in 1952. He was a good neighbor and a fine citizen, taking an interest in all about him. A welcome conversationalist, his friendly chats were pleasing to all who knew him.
 In the summer he was to be found in his garden, where a beautiful assortment of lovely blooms thrived under his care and he remembered his ill neighbors with many a bouquet.
 Prior to retirement some years ago, Mr. Bush was employed as a mail carrier out of Kingston Post Office for 35 years. He had resided in Forty Fort before moving to Shavertown, the town in which he was born, son of the late Jeremiah and Ella Smith Bush.
 He was a member of Shavertown Methodist Church, National Association of Letter Carriers and Shavertown Fire Company.

He is survived by two sons, Jerry E. Falls Church, Va.; Cleson, Arlington, Va.; one daughter, Mrs. Edward Carey, Shavertown; a brother, Jay Bush, Kingston, and a sister, Mrs. Nancy Smith, Scranton. Also five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Services were held from a Forty Fort Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Robert D. Yost officiating. Interment was in Denison Cemetery.

Hostess To Ladies
 Ladies of Shavertown Bible Church held their monthly meeting, March 30, at the home of Mrs. Dayton Garnett, R.D. 1, Plymouth, Pa.
 The speaker was Mrs. Robert Matthews.
 Present were Mesdames Donald Easton, Russell Edmondson, Dayton Garnett, Samuel Keast, Ernest Bell, George Seelandt, Mary Jones, Ira Button, Walter Meade, Robert Matthews, Mildred Ruzselski, James Brace, Misses Florence Garnett, Marybeth Keast and Erma Garnett.

Mrs. Amy Louise Reese Rites Held Saturday

Mrs. Amy Louise Reese, 87, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chester Hartman, Orange, Wednesday evening following several months of illness.
 Born in Williamstown, daughter of the late Paul and Sarah Miller, she had resided in the Back Mountain area for the past 35 years, having moved to Orange from Fernbrook.
 Prior to her illness, she was an active member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church to which she had belonged for many years. Her husband, William, died in 1946.
 Mrs. Hartman was interested in her home, her church and her family and as a hobby, turned out lovely handwork in her spare hours, alternating between this pastime and reading.
 In addition to Mrs. Hartman, she is survived by the following children: Mrs. William Bowen, Kingston; Mrs. William Dawkins, Orange; William, Evans Falls; Robert, Plymouth; Arthur Hallstead; six grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren and one great great grandchild.
 Services were held Saturday afternoon from Disque Funeral Home, Memorial Highway with Rev. Frederic Eidam officiating. Interment was in Memorial Shrine Cemetery.

He is survived by two sons, Jerry E. Falls Church, Va.; Cleson, Arlington, Va.; one daughter, Mrs. Edward Carey, Shavertown; a brother, Jay Bush, Kingston, and a sister, Mrs. Nancy Smith, Scranton. Also five grandchildren and three great grandchildren.
