Stanley Jones tells me that the Ambulance Association starts its drive to pick up coin cards beginning the week of April 13 and at the same time to distribute the coin cards for the Fire company. All of Franklin Township is to be covered in the drive.

Maza Best Speaker

Joseph Maza, Dallas RD 2, took the palm for the best extemporaneous talk at last week's meeting of Wilkes-Barre Toastmasters Club, held at the YMCA.

East Dallas

Well, March went out like the proverbial lion, but he certainly has a tail long enough to extend a few days in April.

Dick Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, Demunds road, rushed the spring season. While playing baseball in his yard, he fell and broke the large bone in his arm in two places. It doesn't pay to rush, I guess.

Mr. and Mrs. John Newberry and daughters Debby and Joann, Ransom Road, and Mrs. Lucy Morgan, Hildebrandt road, drove to Clifton Heights last weekend to visit sister and daughter, Ada Brown and family.

Pottstown, friends of Lois Ryman, were Easter guests of her parents, Wilson and Mary Ryman.

Mrs. Melvin Morris was feted at a birthday party Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wilson. Guests were Kenneth, Gary, Sharon, Melvin Jr., Melvin Morris Sr., Jule and Ted Wilson. Many happy returns, Marilyn.

Mrs. Louis Goeringer, Applewood Manor, is a patient in General Hospital having submitted to a 6 hour operation on her back. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Dr. Blanche S. Davis, Athens, Pa., spent the week with her cousin, Mrs. Bessie Thomas, during the time of Bess's bereavement over the loss of her brother, Dan Davis, Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Friend Hildebrandt, Apalachin, N.Y., spent Easter weekend with his sister Myrtle Miller, and George Snyder. We were pleased to worship with them at the Sunrise service in East Dallas Church.

Marian Hildebrandt is in traction in Mercy Hospital, and expects to be there two or three weeks.

Mrs. Ellen Garinger has reentered Nesbitt Hospital, her condition serious.

Mrs. Beatrice Moore has returned from Nesbitt Hospital to her home in East Dallas.

Mrs. Anna Strizius was brought from Nesbitt Hospital to her home on Ransom Road by ambulance, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baird were host and hostess at an Easter Dinner at their home. Guests were: Mrs. John Hughes, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Gay, Ernest Jr., and Enola; Arthur Emmanuel, Wilkes-Barre; William Meade, Lehman; Sandy Baird, Jersey City Medical Center; Barry, Marjorie, and Arty.

Arthur Morgan Sr., was honored by a birthday dinner Saturday evening. His mother, Lucy Morgan, was a guest with the family, while his sister Diana Newberry and brother Robert and families dropped in later to celebrate.

Malcolm Baird attended the Layman's and Minister's Convocation at Buck Hill Falls, Saturday and Sunday as a delegate from Orange Methodist Church.

Ella Moore Memorial Class of East Dallas Methodist church, will meet at 8 p.m. in the church social room, Tuesday.

Linda Watson and Betty Kintzer will be hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Naylor, Vermont, visited her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hayden Phillips, Upper Demunds road, over Easter. Also children Donna, Barby, and Ellen. New Monkeys

Mrs. Betty Kintzer visited the S.P.C.A. last week, taking two puppies to find them a home. She retaliated by bringing back to her home two eight month old monkeys. The family are all real fond of them already. Anyone is invited to see the new additions to their family. Kintzers will end up with a zoo. Im sure.

Birthday greetings to Marilyn Morris, Roy Moss, Thomas Neyhard, Brian Watson, John Cool. Anniversary congratulations to Dorothy and Thomas Heslop.

Mt. Zion

Sunday afternoon I called at the funeral home to see Abe Gay's family. It was only last October that I was there to give my sympathy to Abe himself, and the family, on the occasion of Edith Gay's death. It is a bit heartening to be one of the "old timers" meeting other old timers on various occasions. Years have a way of deepening friendships, making memories more golden. Sheldon and Frances, for instance, were reminding me of twenty-seven years ago when I performed their wedding. And the youngster they asked me to baptize the night when I came down from N. Y. State to show Africa pictures at Orange — well that "youngster" now is married and has a bouncing baby girl. And as I was going out the door of the funeral home I met Howard and Dolores Platt just coming in. Dolores first thing said, "I always read your articles in Dallas Post... I like to read about the people I know, about Clara Goner who used to teach me in Sunday School."

I recall Abe Gay as a man of rich, quiet humor, and genuine friendship. One day as I was coming up from West Wyoming, there was Abe wanting a ride. So I pulled up and said, "Want a ride?" To which he replied with a quirk, "Have you got a radio in your car?" But of course he got in.

At this writing Catherine continues to improve, especially in her general feelings. The leg is a long time healing and getting back to normal color. The doctor told her

Trucksville

Louise Hazeltine, spent the Easter season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hazeltine, Harris Hill Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Miller, Orchard Street, were guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Swatt and family in Hyattsville, over the week-end.

Ladies of Trucksville Fire Company will hold a fish dinner Friday, April 24th in the Educational Building of the White Church on the Hill.

Frederick Dingle, Orchard Street, was admitted to Nesbitt Hospital after injuries suffered in an automobile accident on Monday.

Mrs. Ben Post was hostess to the Reynolds Class, White Church on the Hill, Wednesday evening.

Lucy Courtwright, Harris Hill Road, has returned after being a surgical patient in Nesbitt Hospital five weeks.

Mrs. Addison Woolbert, Sr., of Crawford, N. J., has returned home. She was here to attend the funeral of her son, Addison, Jr. Our sincere sympathy to all the family.

Mrs. Addison Woolbert, Sr., Mrs. Ralph Hazeltine, Lucy Courtwright, and Arline Bessner were luncheon guests of Mrs. Dorman Woolbert last week, in Shavertown.

Donald Anderson, son of Mrs. Emma Anderson, Holly Street, is spending the week with her. He is a student at Union College, Barboursville, Kentucky.

Evelyn Wheeler, Carverton Road, remains a patient in Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. David Peters, Lehigh Street, has returned from Nesbitt Hospital where she was a patient.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bush, two daughters and son, Syracuse, N.Y., have become new residents of Rice Street, Trucksville. They are renting the Ben Davis home. Mr. Bush was transferred here by General Electric Company.

Joseph Walton, Trucksville, has returned after having spent four years as a member of the Air Force in foreign service, in Formosa.

Boys between ages of eight and twelve, inclusive, may sign up for Little League Baseball from the Trucksville area Saturday morning at 10 at the practice field near Checkerboard Inn. Ben Pieczynski makes the announcement for both major and minor league teams.

Fernbrook

Mr. and Mrs. Price Knarr, Upper Greenwood Lake, N. J., are spending a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dymond, E. Overbrook Avenue. Visitors of the Dymonds on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Don Knarr and family, Jersey City, N. J., and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berlew, Iliou, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGough, Summit Avenue, had as a weekend guest, the latter's mother, Mrs. Ralph E. Johns, Wilkes-Barre.

Sincere sympathy is extended to the relatives of Mrs. Amy Reese, who passed away last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Shaver, Jr., and family, E. Overbrook Avenue, visited on Sunday afternoon with David Eves and family in Milton. David was the roommate of Mr. Shaver while he was a patient in Geisinger Medical Center.

Mrs. Lena Carey, Summit Avenue, is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital where she was taken on Saturday.

Bird Club Tonight

Bird Club tonight at 8 in the Library Annex will feature a talk on wild-flowers by Rev. George Deisher, illustrated by slides. Visitors are welcome.

It would be slow. She has enjoyed the many expressions of concerned friendship. Her friends at the oratorio sent word they would "save a seat for her!"

Priscilla Krum came over, and Cathy gave directions about holding the meeting of the Kings Crusaders class of which Priscilla is vice president. Mrs. Hronich took care of the youth choir that sang last Sunday. And Cathy sent over to John Reid, president of the oratorio Board of Directors, the minutes of the last meeting, and he was to ask somebody to take the minutes of the meeting in Cathy's place. And up stairs on her bed, among books and magazines, are copies of her oratorio music which she rehearses all by herself "a capella".

Lilacs are budding. Rhubarb is pushing through. Cathy has seen the phoebe bird a couple of times.

Sciatica

What is Sciatica? Ask anyone, who has had Sciatica, this question, and they will be at a loss to find words to adequately explain the extreme pain involved. Sciatica is usually preceded by sensitivity of the lower back, which if ignored, will proceed from slight pain running down the back of the leg, to extreme pain which may stop at the back of the knee or continue to the heel of the foot.

Sciatica is usually associated with pressure on the sciatic nerve root, produced by one or more misaligned segments of the lower spine. If this pressure is allowed to exist for any length of time, the sciatic nerve will eventually become inflamed. It is at this point that the pain becomes unbearable. There is nothing that you can take that will completely relieve the pain.

The only course that can be taken with this condition is that of removing the pressure from the sciatic nerve root. Like any other neuritis, even after the cause is removed, pain will still exist until the inflammation is able to heal.

Your chiropractor is trained to locate and correct misalignments of the spine that are responsible for sciatica. See your chiropractor at the first possible signs of sciatica.

COMING EVENTS

With Easter past, we come into a busy season. Many activities are scheduled, and again comes the job of cleaning up our yards and our homes.

No word has yet been received on the installation date for the new lights at the Center Street intersection. With increased traffic accompanying nicer weather, some sort of protection should be offered the citizens who must cross against oncoming motorists.

Men's Brotherhood of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold their annual Roast Beef Dinner on Saturday, April 25. Plan now to attend.

Ladies Auxiliary of Shavertown Fire Company will hold a Card Party on May 1. This will be a really nice affair and the ladies really contribute much to the equipment needed for the new fire hall.

Mrs. Frank Wadas and Mrs. Robert Bayer are co-chairman of the Cancer Crusade for Shavertown. Many will aid them. Welcome these volunteers when they call, for their efforts may save a life very dear to you.

LEAGUE REGISTRATION

All boys, ages of 8 to 12, from Shavertown area who are interested in playing on the Shavertown Little League Team are asked to report at Shavertown Fire Hall on Saturday morning at 10 a.m.

Bill Roberts, manager, will be on hand to register players. Practice will begin April 25 with the first game scheduled the first week of June.

HERE AND THERE

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malkemes are in 7th heaven these days with the arrival of their very first grandchild to daughter, Peggy Mahoney and her husband. They are now in Long Island, getting their first glimpse of little Ronald Frederick.

Jimmie Morgan returned to classes at Mansfield State College last week after spending the Easter recess with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Morgan, Jr., Spring Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nicely, Main Street, returned home on Saturday after spending nearly two weeks in the Midwest, where they visited Airman 2nd Class and Mrs. Robert Nicely at Madison, Wisconsin, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Evans and family at Taylor, Michigan.

The Nicelys reported bad weather nearly the entire time of their trip with terrific winds and blizzard conditions at Chicago on Easter Sunday, but the opportunity to spend time with their children and their families made up for any adverse weather conditions.

The sudden death of Mark Bush, one of our good neighbors, left the community shocked and saddened. Mr. Bush was a fine man and a good citizen. We shall miss his friendly chats, and the lovely flowers which filled his yard with beauty.

Our sincere sympathy is offered to his daughter, Mary Carey, and his family.

A fine turnout at St. Paul's Lutheran Church greeted Rev. Carl Schindler, formerly of St. Paul's, Wilkes-Barre, when he supplied for Pastor Frederic H. Eidam on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Harmon and Richard, Tarrytown, N. Y., returned home on Sunday after spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ritts, Sr., Pioneer Avenue.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Miss Kathryn Gay in her recent bereavement.

Jack Eck returned to Muhlenberg College and Marilyn to Susquehanna University last week, after spending the Easter holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eck, Lehigh Street. Dorothy, student nurse at Allentown Hospital was able to be home for the Easter weekend.

Mrs. Herman LaBar, Mt. Airy Road, will return this week after spending the winter in Melbourne, Florida with her daughter, son-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Christ and children.

Larry Newhart returned to classes at Penn State last week after spending the Easter recess with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Newhart. Larry will graduate in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Daily, Lawn Avenue, had as Easter visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wrigley, Barbara, Richard, Pamela, Christine and Jennifer, Arlington, Va., and Mr. Daily's mother, Mrs. Agnes Heath,

Philadelphia

Harold Raynor, Division Street, is reported improving at Nesbitt Hospital following a heart attack.

Glen Stroh is building a new home on upper Pioneer Avenue.

Mrs. Marge Stout and son, David, Wilkes-Barre, came back to the area for a brief visit when they spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Swingle.

Mrs. Olwen Overman, Alta, Oklahoma, has purchased a home on Londale Avenue and is among the newcomers to our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Daubert, Spring Street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Berlew, Wilkes-Barre, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berlew, Dallas, on Sunday, at a family get-together.

On Easter Sunday, the Daubert family, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mannar and children, took off for Montrose where Billy and Bobby Daubert and Johnnie Mannar set out 1,000 Scotch Pine seedlings on the Mannar farm, while a snow-storm engulfed the region.

BIRTHDAYS

Greetings this week to Debra Ann Gelsleichter, Amy Rowett, Heather Alexander, Beatrice Ell Newman, Fredric Anderson, Jr., Katherine Whitehead, Louise W. Roberts, Frances Rowlands, Linda Woolbert, Joseph Earl Tweedle, Frederick J. Eck, Jr., Mrs. Bob Wright, John Beagle, Richard Daniel Lengel.
