In Wellesley Show

Miss Cynthia Townend, Yeager Avenue, took part in the annual water ballet show to be presented by the Wellesley College Swim Club April 3 and 4. Thirty members of the club based their show on quotations from such literary figures as Shakespeare, Dickens, and Cervantes. The music was selected from works by Grieg, Bizet, Offenbach and others. All of the numbers in the show were designed and directed entirely by the students of the club. This year's Swim Club is distinguished by the fact that its officers are also the officers of the Synchronized Swimming for College Women. Wellesley College will be the hostess for the national synchronized swimming meet next fall. Miss Townend was the nathographer (or designer) of two of the numbers and performed in three. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Townend, she is a graduate of Wyoming Seminary in Kingston.

Rev. And Mrs. Emery Stokes To Mark Silver Anniversary

Rev. and Mrs. Emery D. Stokes, Harveys Lake, will celebrate their silver wedding anniversary on Friday evening with their family and close relatives present. The couple were married Easter Sunday at noon at Free Methodist Church, Allaban, N. Y., April 10, 1939, in the heart of the Catskill Mountains. Rev. Howard Deats, former pastor of Bowman's Creek Free Methodist Church performed the ceremony and will be on hand with his wife to help the Stokes' celebrate their 25th anniversary.

Rev. and Mrs. Stokes have been residents of Harveys Lake for the past seven years where he is pastor of Outlet Free Methodist Church. This is his 17th year in the ministry of the New York Conference and Outlet is his fifth charge. Three children complete the Stokes family, Joyce, employed at Commonwealth Telephone Company, Dallas; Nancy, a junior at Lake-Lehman High School and David, serving with the U. S. Army at Fort San Antonio, Texas.
