Penns Woods Notebook

If at any time you're out for a ride around Harveys Lake, stop at the Outlet section and watch the trout swimming around. Some people even take bread along to feed them. I myself have seen some nice sized trout swimming out at the Lake.

Morris King of Shavertown is busy planting trees at his place up at Nordmont in Sullivan County. Mr. King has received 500 Norway Spruce and 500 Japanese Larch trees from the Department of Forests and Waters.

Mr. King also told me that he has three gallons of maple syrup so far this year during the tapping season.

Two local Boy Scout Troops have given me their total number of rabbits trapped alive for redistribution by District Game Protector Edward R. Godsky. Troop 231 with Scoutmaster Mal Kitchen trapped a total of 15 rabbits. Three scouts of troop 232 with Scoutmaster John Butler trapped 27 rabbits.

Bill Robbins, well-known conservationist and sportsman, is busy as a bee taking care of his bees and doing some fly tying. Bill receives orders for flies from General Dwight D. Eisenhower. Bill said that General Eisenhower has not yet sent his order for this year. Conservationist Robbins does his fly tying at his home in Trucksville.

We here would like to hear from our readers. If you wish to drop us a note, send it to PENNS WOODS NOTEBOOK, BOX 408, DALLAS.

Little League

Dallas Little League registration for boys between 8 and 12 years of age is scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday at the Little League Field, Dallas Junior High School grounds. Bob Perry says there will be three major and three minor teams. Boundaries for Dallas are Overbrook Avenue, New Goss Manor, and Dallas Township.

Safe After Earthquake At Anchorage, Alaska

Dorothy Ruiz was at her work in the bank at Anchorage, and her husband, Sgt. Rudy Ruiz was still at the Air Base nearby when the earthquake struck on Good Friday. Mrs. Margaret Sholtis, formerly of Lehman, was at the Ruiz home with her grandchildren, ten year old Nancy and twin sisters Linda and Diane, seven. It took hours for the family to get together, but not one was injured, and the house, though shaken, was intact.

The family will leave Alaska May 20, headed for Laredo, Texas, for Sgt. Ruiz' next assignment.

Mrs. Ruiz, before going to Alaska, was employed at Miners National Bank, Dallas Branch. Mrs. Sholtis is sister of George Yanek, Lehman.
