EAST DALLAS

Yes sir, Spring is really here — lovely weather, birds singing, bees buzzing, moth millers flying around outside night lights. Squirrels were busy trying to outdo the birds at feeders, but are now frolicking around my beautiful pine trees out back. Not only the wildlife, but human signs of spring: Richard Stradusz still busy working on his new home every available minute; Robert (Corky) Cyphers adding a new, very large room on the rear of his home on Ransom Road; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harvey from Johnson City working around, and in their little pink summer cottage also on Ransom Road. They plan to have a well drilled soot and install bathroom and other improvements. Their daughter and husband, Betty and Bill Salmon, spent last week in the cottage.

Myra Carlin up the road had a new roof on her house, and John Parrish is about ready to start painting her home. Then next door, Betty and Ben Kasmark Jr., are grading and improving the grounds around their pretty new home. Yes, spring is here with pep for everyone.

Herman and Bert Coons are demolishing the sawmill on the Wilson Ryman Road. It was built by Harry Martin years ago on daughter and son-in-law's land (Warren Stanton's, formerly Paul Carlin's home and land.)

Infant Donald Derhammer has returned to his home on Demunds Road from General Hospital, but still has to have treatments at the hospital. His father Carl is home on a visit, being a patient in Lebanon Veteran's Hospital.

Boy's Club of Orange met in their club room at Dick Hislop's April 3, celebrated the club's 2nd anniversary and election of officers with a party. Fourteen members present also made plans to earn money for football and baseball equipment. At last Friday's meeting, April 10, they planned to hold a raffle soon. If successful, dues will be lowered from 40 to 25 cents a month. Dues help pay for trips.

Three new members were taken in: Jim Prebela, Lou Banta, and David Kulick. Committees and chairmen are as follows: raffle, Brian Duffy; picnic, Billy Smith; new members, Bruce Goeringer; trips, Stanley Zarno; new equipment, Joe Phillips.

A public auction is to be held Saturday afternoon, April 25, at the home of the late Bessie Rich, Demunds Road, East Dallas Church W.S.C.S. will provide a refreshment stand.

Mrs. Ralph Kauffman is ill at her home on Demunds Road.

Mrs. George Salisbury, Providence, R. I., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moore, East Dallas, last week, traveling both ways by bus. While here, Jean and parents visited Mrs. Moore's sister Musittia Montanye, Johnson City, and Byron and Harold Moore and families in Binghamton.

Shep Moore visited his parents, Tom and Jessie Moore, last weekend to claim his wife Eleanor and children, Bonnie and Tommy, who had a happy week with Grandma and Grandpa Moore and great grandma Hislop, and take them home to Lanoka Harbor, N. J.

Mrs. Ralph Kauffman, Demunds Road was made happy last week by a visit from her two sisters:

Minnie Wolsiefer, Mrs. Minnie Shaw, her daughter Lois and two children, of Wilkes-Barre.

Betty and Larry Kintzer have added a four day old lamb to their (almost a) zoo, and are feeding it from a bottle in their home. They have had many interested visitors to get acquainted with their two humorous monkeys.

There are sad times at their place too. Last week Lauren's pet horse slipped, fell and knocked the wind out of himself. They had quite a time getting him up by pushing, pulling, and lifting. I'm as happy as Lauren that her horse is all right, no bones broken.

There will be an all-day quilting at East Dallas Church today, W.S.C.S. will meet in the afternoon, Mrs. Kauffman and Betty Kintzer hostesses.

Mrs. Rose Jones, a surgical patient in Nesbitt Hospital, is showing great improvement, and hopes to return to her home, in Orange soon.

John Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Orange, who has been a patient in Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, for the past few months has been discharged from the hospital and army. He is in good health now and very happy to be home again, for good.

Birthday greetings to Cheri Salanty, Donna Patricia Moore, John Cook, Michael Moore, Marilyn Carlin, Beatrice Ockenhouse, Beverly Kintzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles Wilson visited relatives in Williamsport over last weekend.

After a long siege from broken bones and casts, Mr. Irvin Barber and daughter Linda, have returned to work and school. Mr. and Mrs. Barber, Linda, Gary, Ernest and Timothy Dymond, motored to College Park, Maryland, to visit relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Monroe and family. They also visited son Irvin and wife at Falls Church, Va., over the Easter holidays. They were thrilled by the car races in Washington while visiting Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Barber Jr. spent three days here last week while the Mrs. took her state examination at Empire Beauty School to be a licensed teacher.

DEESCRIBES TORNADO

A/2C Lloyd W. Ryman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Ryman, stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas, wrote home about his experiences during the terrible tornado.

He said they saw it coming, jumped into cars, etc. and headed for the highways to get out of the path of the terrifying black menace. After it passed, all that was left of one house was one side with a clothes closet attached, into which a whole family had crowded and were miraculously saved. One woman who wouldn't leave her trailer was killed, and only a wheel and a few pieces were left where the trailer had been.

Mr. and Mrs. George Ryman, Johnson City, visited brother Wilson Ryman and family last week.

Members of East Dallas Church are planning a fair at the church grounds June 20. There will be booths for games, refreshments, rummage, pony rides and numerous other attractions. Please plan to join in the fun.

Joan Croman Moore, wife of David Moore, Massachusetts, fell and chipped a bone in her foot. Mrs. Croman flew up Monday to assist the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCullough, Roy, and Mrs. Lena Scott, Milford, Delaware, were guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin and family on Sunday. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin, Monday. Mrs. McCullough is a sister of Charles Martin.

Harveys Lake Mr. and Mrs. John Stenger and children, Jay, Pat and Annemarie, of Harveys Lake spent last weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Payne and family of Greensburg, Pa. Jay Stenger and his cousin, Sally Payne are both recuperating from recent operations. Jay was in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital while Sally was in Childrens Hospital, Pittsburgh. Jay has recently had his leg cast removed and is able to get around well enough to return to his classes at West Side Central Catholic High School. Sally will remain in her body and leg casts for a few more months. She is anxiously awaiting the time when she can spend her vacation at Harveys Lake. Both Jay and Sally want to thank all their friends for the gifts and cards they received while they were in the hospital.
