Move Over "Ben and Jim. Seventeen seniors, going into the field of medicine following graduation, attended the annual heart program at King's College last Tuesday. The feature entitled "Open Heart Surgery," was presented by the Biology Department of King's College and the Heart Association of Northeastern Pennsylvania. The following members of the senior class were present: John Brominski, Robert Brown, Howard Dymond, Lee Philo, Cathy Cawley, Susan Cheney, Teresa Cushman, Patricia Gorda, Joanne Hadsell, Margaret Jordan, Kathy Maury, Sylvia Phillips, Dee Dee Pope, Janice Pribe, Karen Rome, and Linda Rowett.

Club Selects Beverly. Congratulations are extended to Beverly Eck who was recently honored as the "Girl of the Year" by the Dallas Senior Women's Club. "Bev" was presented with a sterling silver charm bracelet. Two other seniors, Margaret Fleming and Susan Karl, given honorable mention, were presented with engraved pins. Payment of Dues Is Good News. The last of senior dues were collected last Wednesday. These dues will be used for the class banquet and class trip.

Cheerleaders Cheer Cheerer's Clinic. The cheerleaders traveled to Hamburg, Pennsylvania on Saturday, April 11th, to participate in the National Cheerleaders Association cheerleading clinic. The program, held at Hamburg Area High School, consisted of a morning session which included demonstrations of effective cheerleading, crowd psychology and cheering techniques. This was followed by cheers from each school attending the clinic. In the afternoon a fashion show of cheerleaders uniforms was presented.

Jaqueline Gruver, was selected as a model for this show. Cheerleaders attending were: Susan Cheney, Georgia McCutcheon, Margaret Jordan, Nadine Kudriska, Jeris Jordan, Gail Hughes, Pat Siskler, Jacqueline Gruver, Pat Cully, Pam Cully, Colleen Conaghan, Joyce Hughes, Pat Martin. The group was accompanied by Miss Engler, advisor.

Practice tryouts began Monday, April 20th.

Roshan Talks on India - Future Homemakers of America. The F.H.A. under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Goeringer, was enthralled and entertained at last week's meeting when Roshan Billimoria, foreign exchange student from India, spoke to them on her native land. Roshan is a member of the Senior Class, although she is only fifteen years old. After graduation this June, Roshan will tour the West, followed by her departure for home on July 4th, where she will continue her high school education.

Roshan also spoke to the World Culture Classes last Thursday in Mr. Hughes' room.

A fashion show was presented by F.H.A. members, who modeled the clothes they had made.

Keyettes and Key Club Help. The Keyettes and Key Club served and worked at the annual Pancake Supper conducted last Saturday in the Senior High School Cafeteria. It was sponsored by the Dallas Kiwanis Club.

Marine Fitness Tests. Mr. Brobst is conducting the Marine Fitness Test. This test is a series of fine exercises for all boys in the High School. It consists of sit-ups, two minute time limits; pull-ups, maximum push-ups, squat-thrusts, one minute time limit, and a 300-yard run. (The top five boys will compete with other schools at Coughlin, on Saturday, April 25th at 10 a.m. There will be team and individual awards.

Name Cards and Announcements. Money for name cards and announcements which will arrive in the near future, was collected last Monday in the Senior Home Rooms.

Tours Planned. The Business Education Club, under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Kirk, has selected committees consisting of two girls each to plan tours. The suggested places, which are now in the planning stage, are: Dallas Branch of Miners National Bank (Dallas Post; Commonwealth Telephone Company, and College Misericordia.

The office practice classes will also attend these tours.

Federal Civil Service Test. A representative from the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. will be at the Dallas Senior High School on Monday, May 4, at 8:30, in Room 16, to administer the general abilities section of the civil service test.

This test will be offered to interested seniors in the area of clerk-typist and clerk-stenographer.

The typing and shorthand sections of the test will be administered by Mr. Kirk and Miss Engler, on Wednesday, April 20th. The minimum requirements for typing are 40 gross words per minute, with the maximum of 3 errors; the minimum requirements for shorthand are 80 words per minute with an allowance of 10 per cent error.

If the above minimum requirements are met in the typing and shorthand test, a "Proficiency Certificate" will be authorized by Mr. Kirk and Miss Engler, and will then become a permanent part of the student's record in the United States Civil Service Bureau.

If a student acquires a "Proficiency Certificate", he will be excused from taking typing or shorthand tests conducted by the Civil Service Commission.

New Uniforms. Mr. McCutcheon distributed the new uniforms that arrived for the Keyette Drill Team. The black cotton gabardine skirts, red cummerbunds, white blouses, black knee socks, and saddle shoes, are set off by black sombreroes. The girls will proudly display the uniforms for the first time on April 25th at the Loyalty Day Parade in Nanticoke.

Last Antrim Program. The Antrim Bureau presented their final program of the year last Monday morning during assembly. Mr. and Mrs. Young and Clancey O'Toole, residents of Lilly Lake, located near Nanticoke, presented their nationally known show of magic and ventriloquism. The Youngs, district representatives of the Northern Pennsylvania Division of the Antrim Bureau, have performed over all parts of the United States. The Antrim Bureau is an organization to present educational programs and perform in high schools and colleges as well as professionally.

DALLAS Junior High NEWS

Cheerleading, under the direction of Mrs. Ruddy, started last week. About forty eighth grade girls went out for the club.

The drill teams will march next Saturday, April 25, in the Nanticoke Loyalty Day Parade. The buses will leave Orchard Farm Restaurant for the parade.

Recently, Mr. Frank Wagner, Gesteodian, has been admitted to Gesteodian Clinic. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The library has gained a number of new books. Among these are the "Dictionary of American Biography"; "The Boyhood of America Series"; and "The Torch is Passed." "The Torch is Passed" is the Associated Press story of President Kennedy's death.

The baseball and track teams begin regular practice on the Junior High Field under the direction of Mr. Fred Case.

Track team practice will be held at the Senior High School under Mr. William Price's direction.

The baseball team has four games scheduled this far with Tunkhannock and Luzerne. The track schedule has yet to be posted.

Civil Service Tests To Be Given On May 4

A representative from the Federal Government in Washington, D.C. will be at Dallas Senior High School on Monday, May 4, at 8:30, in room 16, to administer the general abilities section of the civil service test to interested seniors in the area of clerk-typist and clerk-stenographer.

The typing and the shorthand sections of the civil service test will be administered by Mr. Kirk and Miss Engler on Wednesday, April 29. The minimum requirements for typing are 40 gross words per minute with a maximum of three errors and the minimum requirements for shorthand is 80 words per minute with an allowance of 10% error.

If the above minimum requirements are met in the typing and shorthand tests then a proficiency certificate will be authorized by Mr. Kirk and Miss Engler and will then become a permanent part of the student's record in the U.S. Civil Service Bureau.

In regard to the "Proficiency Certificates," arrangements have been made with the Dallas School District and the U. S. Civil Service Commission to accept the information of the typing and shorthand instructors. Therefore, through the "Proficiency Certificate" arrangement the applicant is excused from taking the typing and/or shorthand tests from the Civil Service Commission.
