

EAST DALLAS

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brownell, from Postonkill, N. Y., spent a week with her sister, Mrs. Max Young, Demunds Road, and visited another sister, Mrs. Margaret Weiss, Ryman Road. The three sisters, Agnes, Sarah and Margaret and families, all went to visit a fourth sister, Mrs. Floyd (Dora) Hughey, Middletown, who has been very ill.

On their return trip, they stopped to see their nephew, Charles Weiss and wife Dana; son of Margaret Weiss at Fullerton. Carol Ann, his sister was also included in the caravan.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony De Costa, and family, Massachusetts, are enjoying a week's vacation with Grandma Beatrice Moore. Mrs. De Costa is the former Janet Moore, E. Dallas.

Mrs. Sarah Warnick is visiting her sister, Dorothy Lucy in Virher friends for the lovely cards and gifts she received which certainly made her confinement more pleasant.

Your East Dallas correspondent left Saturday for Massachusetts to take care of son, David's family, while wife Joan, is laid up with a chipped bone in her foot. Her mother, Mrs. Grant Croman returned to her home in Shavertown Sunday after having taken charge the preceding week.

If any one has news they wish published in the East Dallas column, will they please call Hilda Moore, 674-2399.

Happy birthday greetings are extended to Sharon Morris, Billy Salanty, Aunt Jennie Moore, Virginia Howell, Beverly Dickson, Rusty Eyer, Kevin Baker, Margaret Morgan, Richard Clewom, Julia Pickett, Elva Wagner.

Quilters of East Dallas church met last Thursday for an all day session with Florence Martin at her home. After a lovely luncheon the W.S.C.S. held their monthly business meeting. The ladies are making two quilts which two teenagers of the church will solicit for. They are Pamela Hunter and Diana Pickett.

Teddy Dymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dymond Jr., Orange, returned Thursday night from Florida.

RECEIVE PRIZE

Miss Peggy Kasmark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kasmark, Ketchum Corners, captured second prize in Home Economics at Dallas, by making a blue and white seersucker tennis suit. The prize was a piece of dress material awarded by the Boston Store. We are proud of you, Peggy.

Spring isn't all that it's cracked up to be — not all flowers, birds, and bees — Emma Pehlinger is peppered with measles. Keith Moore is about over his seige, Gary Morris is suffering with the worst case of poison ivy ever heard of around here. His eyes have been swollen shut for days. He wasn't near the stuff but he fondled his dog who must have raced through it. He sure has our sympathy.

WAGNER

Frank Wagner, Sr., officer of the law and janitor of Dallas Jr. High School, is a patient in Geisinger Hospital, undergoing tests. The faculty showed their esteem for him by presenting him with a radio to make his stay more pleasant. We wish you a complete recovery and speedy return home, Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lamoreux visited their son, Fred Jr., at Fort Knox, over Easter. They left here Friday morning and returned Monday night, traveling 1675 miles. They encountered a blizzard which caused chain reactions on the turnpike.

Mrs. George Henderson, Orange, suffered a head injury in a fall at her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howie, Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boyle, Forty-Fort; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Nielson, Carverton; were visitors last week of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Larrish, Ransom Road.

Mrs. Ellen Garinger has returned to her home in East Dallas after having been a patient in Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. Rose (Bob) Jones has returned to her home in Orange after being a surgical patient at Nesbitt Hospital. Rose wishes to thank all

Retreat State Hospital Issues Invitation To Open House Sunday

Open House at Retreat State Hospital is scheduled for this Sunday, with a program planned continuously from 1 to 6 p.m. The theme is Treatment in Action.

Four separate tours are planned, to permit visitors to see the physical facilities, wards, activities centers and the clinics. Thomas Kanyuk, assisted by forty of the hospital staff, will officiate.

Starting at 1:30, an hour long narrated slide program will be presented in the auditorium, continuing until 4:30. The admission of a patient will be narrated, illustrated by slides. A panel will answer questions after each showing.

Situated along the route of the tours will be displays of activities of all departments, each display manned by a staff member primed to answer questions.

The clergy, educators, civic and welfare organization members, and the community in general, are cordially invited to join relatives of patients in visiting Retreat at this time.

Many changes and improvements have been made during the past several years.

In 1961, a turnout of 2,551 visitors set a record for attendance. Dr. Claude H. Butler, superintendent, anticipates a still larger turnout this Sunday. Members of the hospital staff and of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Luzerne County Medical Association are cooperating to make Sunday a red-letter day.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shook and recently vacated by Pastor and Mrs. Theodore Brennan, who have moved with their family to Corning, N. Y.
