

Dallas Birthdays

EAST DALLAS

A girls' 4-H sewing club will be organized by Mrs. Curtis (Ida) Edwards, with the help of Mrs. Howard Miller and Mrs. Robert (Lorraine) Moore. Girls ten to twelve years of age interested in joining are asked to register with either of the three women before June 1. The girls made skirts last year and will make dresses this year. New members will make skirts as beginners. Meetings are held in East Dallas Church.

Inez Ryman and classmates Natalie Puhak and Barbara Matusavage, from College Misericordia, visited the World's Fair from Wednesday until Saturday.

Miss Emily Goldsmith, a surgical patient at Nesbitt Hospital, wishes to thank all her friends who sent greetings of cards, prayers and gifts. She said, "This week I'll enjoy having a few visitors." She was made happy Sunday with a visit from Mary Hartman from Benton, who had been Emily's roommate in college years ago.

Stephen Haradem, Demunds, is a patient in Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. Ralph Kauffman, Demunds Road is in critical condition at Nesbitt Hospital.

Donald (Mike) Lewis, a patient in Nesbitt Hospital for the past three weeks, is improving gradually.

Ted Wilson's Lake T-J was campsite for the boy scout troop of Forty Fort last weekend. The girl scout troop from Kunkle enjoyed Sunday at Lake T-J.

Measles are still on the rampage. Mary Morgan's flock of five have them; also Tommy Phillips, son of Jean Hildebrand Phillips.

Mrs. George Cochran and daughter Audrey Pittston, visited her Aunt Jeanette Dickinson, Ryman Road, Saturday and Sunday, and all enjoyed the Auxiliary's game party at Centermoreland Grange Hall, along with Beatrice Ockenhouse, Helen Dickinson, and yours truly. The much coveted afghan, crocheted by Louise James, was won by Helen Smith, a cafeteria worker in Dallas Senior High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Siley, Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harrison, Jeffrey and Susan honored their mother, Helen Siley Sunday at her home. They had more excitement than they had anticipated, when a fire got started near Brown's home and got out of control. No. 1 fire truck and No. 2 from Shavertown answered the call followed by Kunkle fire truck. I was told when Kunkle road supervisor asked where Dallas fire truck was, he was told it was sitting at the foot of Mountains View Road, by former Stanley Moore's home, as the road was too bad to venture up. The other trucks went in by the other end.

Fred Shupp, Ryman Road, is out and around again, after having been seriously ill all last week.

Timmy Berlew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berlew, and grandson of George Berlew, fell out of his bed and broke his collar bone. Ironically it was on his sixth birthday, May 5.

Billy Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, is believed to have a broken finger. He is also peppered with measles. His brother Richard has just recovered from a broken arm. Rotten luck, boys!

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eyer attended the funeral of their nephew Charles, son of Oscar Eyer, Maryland.

Mrs. Lucy Morgan spent a weekend with her sister Ruth Derby in Laurel Run recently.

Marjorie Moss, Lucy Morgan, and Irene Moore visited Lucy's sister Anna last Friday at Valley Crest Home. It was my first visit and it certainly was an impressive one. Such a massive beautiful home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Patton, Hattiesburg, Miss., and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Patton, Wappingers Falls, N. Y., visited their uncle George Snyder. He was very happy as it was their first visit in two years.

Pearl Stanton, Belfonte, visited her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stanton last weekend.

Birthday greetings to Willard Cadwalader, Edith Tompkins, David R. Belles, Lucy Morgan, Alice Brown, Eleanor Keiner, Brenda Brace, Sharon Krick, Floyd Harvey, Lois Croman, Louise Kolesar, Millie Devens LaBar.

Lt. Col. and Mrs. R. L. Swaboda, Presidential Lakes, N. Y., visited their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Ryman, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Bloomer, Melinda and Brenda, West Chester, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin and family.

Jeanette Dickinson was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Edward (Edith) Morris, Pittston, for several days recently.

Mrs. Kenneth (Beulah) Besteder and daughter Sandra, New Cumberland, enjoyed a weekend with her sister Louise Hess, upper Demunds Road.

Wilson Cease celebrated his birthday May 5 with a dinner party at Castle Inn on Saturday evening, May 2. Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Pottier and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Ryman and daughter, Inez.

The boys' club of Orange met Friday evening with fifteen members present. Two new members were welcomed, Herbert Fehlinger and Bobby Cyphers of East Dallas.

Mark Dymond was added to the staff as Jr. Counselor. Two others are Billy Smith and Stanley Zarno.

Teams were formed the previous week to compete for highest selling chances on a chaise lounge and a hammock. Captains are Stanley Zarno, Billy Smith, Mark Dymond, Dale Rozelle, Jim Smith and Len Zarno, whose team was highest in sales. Bobby Cyphers was highest salesman. When selling seven dollars worth of chances, a prize of a baseball is given. Bob Carle and Bobby Cyphers each received a ball last week.

Gwendolyn Morgan, daughter of Mrs. Frances Morgan, who had been admitted to Children's Hospital in Philadelphia last week, for a routine checkup, has been returned home. No heart surgery was scheduled as planned.

Keith Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moore, is ill at his home. Sister Patti is vacationing with her aunt Priscilla Krum in Mt. Zion.

KUNKLE SILVER LEAF Kunkle Silver Leaf Club will meet Tuesday evening with Mrs. Fred Dodson. Home movies will be shown.

Shavertown

Although it looked anything but promising early Sunday morning, it was a pleasant Mother's Day after all and many visitors arrived in town to spend a pleasant interlude with that most precious gift of all, their mother.

WHOSE FIRE? Soon after dinner on Sunday the community was alerted by a continued ringing of the fire alarm. The Shavertown Fire Company found the spot in no time, arriving almost simultaneously with Kunkle volunteers to fight a brush fire in Browntown behind Roushey Plot and bordering Midway Manor.

The boys didn't mind the work a bit since six or seven homes were endangered, but what really irked them was the return of the Dallas truck to headquarters after spending 20 minutes to locate the blaze in their own area and then not entering the scene.

AT THE KICK OFF Quite a few local boosters from our community were observed taking part in the Library Auction Kickoff Thursday evening, an evening of good fellowship and delicious food.

It was nice to see Marge Stout in our area again, and we were happy to see Almedia Evans win one of the prizes as she and Shel give a lot of time to the Auction.

Also on hand were the Fred Ecks, the Lester Hawks, George Jacobs, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Mellman, the Granville Sowdens, Jim Alexander, John Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lantz, and the Fred Howells.

Earl King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris King is seriously ill in General Hospital. Depo a card to cheer him as he has suffered much grief in the past few years and the thought of a friend will help in a small way to brighten the long hours for him.

Our sincere sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. William Hanna in their recent bereavement.

HERE AND THERE Emaret Franklin was treated to a pleasant Mothers Day, when she was feted on Sunday by her daughters, Barbara Samson, Marjorie Rambus and Jean Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Samson and children, Ambler, arrived to spend the weekend with her, and all cooking on the holiday was done by the girls, giving Emaret a day off, when she was truly the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin are on a three month tour of the U.S., taking in many sights they missed on previous sojourns.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams and children, Devon, Conn., and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ockenhouse, and son, Binghamton, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Ockenhouse. Mrs. Ray Killebrew, Michigan, unable to get home for the holiday, called to greet her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Brad Blaine and Brad, Jr., Schuylkill Haven, were visitors at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Algert Antainitis over the weekend.

Several gardeners were observed planting on Saturday, Tony Moreck, who grows such a fine garden with out fertilizers, etc., has potatoes, sninsh and onions popping up through the ground. Surprisingly after 21 days of rain last month, the ground is really dry.

Mrs. Lorraine Stair had as weekend visitors Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stair, Philadelphia. Bob and his wife and daughter, Dallas, joined them. What fine sons she has.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Andrew spent the weekend in Philadelphia, where their granddaughter, Eden Elizabeth Daniels, was christened on Sunday.

A number of folk have mentioned the strange taste of the water recently. It was usually excellent and we had no complaints. It would be interesting to know the cause.

Mrs. John Kritchman was among those celebrating a birthday last week, May 6, to be exact.

Mrs. Arminda Woolbert was delighted last week when daughter, Elda Shaver, Clark, N. J., spent several days with her, coming early to celebrate Mother's Day.

Mrs. Emma John, Springfield, N. J., also came up with Mrs. Shaver to visit Mrs. Mae Van Campen.

We noticed George Jacobs placing new top soil on his front lawn and the fine job he did would lead us to believe that young George gets his agricultural talents naturally. The corn field also appears to be under cultivation for another bumper crop of those fine kernels George and Steve Silic raise every summer.

Brenda Clause, who celebrated her 22nd birthday on Saturday, will leave this weekend to preview the New York World's Fair and take in a Broadway play.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Earl and Johnnie, Hamilton Square, N. J., were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hontz.

Mary Lou Swingle took her troop on a six mile hike on Saturday, ending a pleasant day with a cook-out. The Girl Scouts got a first hand view of the changes taking place along the new highway.

Bob Voelker and Wally Gosart were really doing up Mother's Day right by taking their wives out to dine and dance on Saturday evening, giving them time out before busy Mother's Day when the families get together.

Congratulations to Tom and Carol Dowsky on the birth of their first child, a son, also named Tommy.

We were greatly saddened last week to hear that our daughter-in-law is in the hospital in Illinois. A lingering virus which just would not clear up has become a serious threat. Our prayers go out for her recovery.

At times like this I would like to divide myself in two distinct parts, as Solomon once suggested in a time of crisis. Part of me would wish to Dottie's bedside, and the remainder would stick close to home to see another dear one through a protracted operation.

BIRTHDAYS Greetings this week to Irene Elston, Jennie Hill, Donald Powell, Henry Andrus, Lambert Swingle, Clyde Esler, Trudianna Rozelle, Robert Bover, Jeffrey Boves, Mrs. Ellen Ditlow, Stanley Katacinski, Harriet Prater Dymond, Russell Casterline, Charles J. Glasser, Ralph G. Lewis, John Cortright, Dianne Chapple, Mrs. Duane Covey, Ted G. Meixell, Mrs. Richard Morgan, Mildred Robinson, Florence Anne Williams.

Nancy Swain, Edith Weiss, Louis Cottle, Lynne Gerlach, David Rowett, Scott Holdredge, Donna Marie Lenzel, Charlyn Louise Ell, Mrs. William Dawkins, Albert Raoh, Minnie E. Roberts, Linda H. Phillips, Mrs. Byron H. Creasy, Joseph Lee Shrey, Jr., Dale Maza.

Idetown The beautiful vases of flowers at the Sunday morning worship service were in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Reilly, gift of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rice.

Rev. Norman Tiffany presided at the Sunday School Board and Official Board meeting held in the church Saturday night. It was announced that Children's Day will be held on Sunday, June 21. Herbert Ward and Richard Ide reported their weekend at Buck Hill Falls. Present were Herbert Ward, Rev. N. R. Tiffany, Mrs. William Calkins, Edward Powells, Mrs. Kenneth Calkins, Mrs. George May, Mrs. Emory Hadel, Mrs. Dean Shaver, Reginald Beck, Richard Ide, Alfred Swelgen, Thelma A. Lamoreaux, Henry Bergstrasser and Bess Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harrison observed their 21st wedding anniversary on Sunday, May 10th.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Williams spent the weekend at Albright College, Reading with Joan Darby in observance of Parents Day. Others who were there were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Darby, Lafayette Hill, Pa.; Billy Williams and roommate Ronnie Frank students at Shepherd College, W. Va.

Happy birthday for Mrs. Dora Evans, Marion Kern, James Park, Joseph Ide, Mrs. Robert Clayton, Rita Ide, Walter Meade, Patsy Hoover, Mrs. Joseph Comisky, Linda Calkins, Mrs. Elisa Gillman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton attended the funeral of Mr. Sutton's cousin, Ralph Lamoreaux of Jones-town on Saturday. Daughter, Betty of Johnson City, N. Y., spent the

Girl Scout Troop 643 Enjoys Cook Out At Lake

The girls of Troop 643 wish to publicly thank the Wilson family of R. D. I, Dallas, for their generosity in allowing them to have a cookout at their Lake.

The girls did group cooking, hiked, made plaster casts of animal tracks and learned much on the life and habits of frogs and toads, thanks mainly to information from a member of a Boy Scout Troop from Kingston who was camping at the Lake for the weekend.

The day ended with a "Scouts Own" conducted by Barbara Connolly, Lorene Daring, Joy Harris and Carol Hozempa.

Girls at the outing were: Diane Reese, Shirley Reese, Judy Blase, Rita Yarnal, Joy Harris, Elaine Kuehn, Carol Hozempa, Barbara Connolly, Carol Hicks and Lorene Daring.

Accompanying them were: Mrs. Frank Kuehn, Mrs. John Blase, and Mrs. Lewis Reese.

weekend at her home. On Sunday they attended the dedication of the new, Free Methodist Church on Carverton Road, Trucksville.

Mrs. George May and Mrs. Roswell Frederic were hostesses for the Confidence Class which met at the Frederic home on Tuesday night. Mary Rogers led the devotions, Margaret May presided. Present were Mary Rogers, Charlotte Calkins, Ella Williams, Jeanne Barrall and Bess Cooke.
