BOWLING NEWS

BY DORIS MALLIN

Here we go! It'll take some time to catch up where I left off with this bowling column about three weeks ago. I do apologize for the lack of news but I have been "up to my ears" in work and have been unable to get anything ready for publication. Beginning this week, I will give as many of the scores as possible and will continue each week to fill in on the leagues and winners of championships.

Many of the leagues have already finished their season and some have already had their banquets.

Community Service League has wound up the season with Orchard Farm as champions and Stanton T V second. Ted Kostrobala led with a 180 average; Peterson went on record with highest game of 267; Bob Maturi rolled top series of 626 and Bob Anderson took honors as the most improved bowler.

Rolling-games over 200 for the past three weeks were Maturi 2, Anderson, D. Bolton, 3, Whittaker, Gardiner 3, Roth, Demmy, Schalm, Henderson 2, Shuster, Kardell 2, Pryor 2, Peterson, Smith, J. Bolton.

Don Bolton and Bob Maturi each rolled 235 games opposite each other Monday night. Bob posted a 613 series and Don hit 603.

Dick Demmy rolled a nice 597 series one week and Don Bolton hit 562; Bolton also chalked up 571 another Monday. Frank Kardell went on record with a 562; Bob Maturi rolled 570; R. Anderson had 564.

Ladies Country

The girls have finished their league competition and have posted the championship. I will have a run-down of the positions and winners next week.

There were a good many top-notch games posted by some of these girls over the past few weeks. Really tops was a 223 by Ginger Gosart and the same by Anita Pascavage. Janice Blight hit 222 and Florence Allabaugh had 220.

Highest series was rolled by Janice when she turned in the 222. She also hit 164-192 and totalled 578. Helen Bonomo hit 201-165-194 (560).

Others hitting over 200 games were Anita Pascavage 204, Evelyn Roberts 204, V. Harris 200. Series of 500 or over were rolled by E. Olenick (517), F. Allabaugh 507, E. Roberts (551), M. Milne 505, V. Harris 503, A. Pascavage 511, G. Gosart 532, B. Pape 512 and 516.

High games also went on record for Jean Agnew 174-178 (478), 163 (463), 167-185 (478); M. Raymond 162; Carol Hadsel 171-161 (472); Evelyn Roberts 194, 179-

168; Marg Milne 172-186, 172 (476), E. Olenick 186-179; V. Harris 169; Eleanor McShea 178 (461); Helen Bonomo 173-171 (471), 188 (490); Ginger Gosart 164, 160-172 (468); M. Shook 183; Arlene Hospodar 170-182 (485), 178; Bernie Pape, 163-170 (469), 181-179, 168-167; Mary A. Considine 175-176 (470), Janice Blight 164-192, 190; G. Gabel 165; Dellas Belles 173 (469); Lila Lozo 170-161 (484), 167, 175 (474); Rose Novroski 186 (479), 168 (470); Liz Weale 162; Ruth Bennett 160; Anita Pascavage 171, (497), 160 (460); Mary Dimmick 166-170 (477), 169 (476); Marie Bellas 170, 172-164 (494); Evelyn Kamont 163 (460), 160.

Crown Majors

Below are top scorers of the three week period. I will gather as much material concerning the standings and top averages for next week's issue.

Andy Matte was the only one hitting over 260. Charles Williams broke the record with a beautiful 699 series which included 206-235-258 games. Bob Moore rolled 662. Dallas Area Lettermen-Booster Club Marks Its First Successful Year

Election of officers and addition of four new directors was completed at Thursday night's meeting of Dallas Area Letterman-Booster Club. The Dallas American Legion Home is home for the Booster Club the first Thursday of each month. The membership elected the slate recommended by the nominating committee made up of Arthur Sincrope, Richard Farley, Charles Lockhart and Reese Finn. They were, President, Robert Anderson, Secretary, Carl Kaschenbach and Treasurer, James Haines all re-elected. First Vice President, Ned Hartman and Second Vice President John Porter, both directors last year for one year term. Four new directors, nominated from the floor and elected for a two year term were Jim Knecht, Alton Brace, Ray Parsons and Bob Hislop, Jr. These officers and directors will lead the club beginning June first.

Year end reports were heard from Mr. Farley, membership chairman. He said that during this first year of the club's existence almost 500 members supported the club. He announced that membership for the new year will begin on May 15 to be effective June 1.

The honoring and treating of athletes in Spring sports is in final planning, president Anderson announced. He said that the club will finish in the black this first year and that after an audit by chairman Charles Lockhart, Ned Hartman and Joseph L. Reynolds, III, the club's legal advisor, the club will publish how all funds were spent and the amounts of income received by different sources.

Next meeting, June 4, will be without a program so as to organize committees for the coming sports seasons. A good turnout of volunteer members is needed in order to fill many new projects. Refreshments will be served, as usual at the expense of the members attending.

Back Mt. YMCA Offers Full Week Day Camp To Youth This Summer

Back Mountain Branch YMCA has planned a busy summer of activities for boys and girls from 7 to 14 years of age.

Day Camp this year will be arranged on a daily schedule and will run for three two week periods, beginning July 6 and ending August 14.

An experienced full time director will be in charge this summer and will be assisted by a staff of counselors.
