Testing, just testing: While the Seniors breathe a sigh of relief because their final exams ended yesterday, the Junior and Sophomores reluctantly begin their exams today. The exams for juniors and Sophomores will be held on June 4, 5, 8, and 10th.

omores still roam the halls in the same daze; the spell broken only by the refreshing words, "Only 9 more days... Only 8 more days... only 7 more days..."

Hail and Farewell: As graduation quickly approaches and one by one the Senior activities become only history, the Class of 1964 is preparing for their first adventure in the Unknown. As the seniors leave their high school days behind, we will have memories of our victories and defeats, the never forgotten friendships, and our main purpose in school, the knowledge we will always have with us. At this time, Sue and I would like to speak for the entire senior class to thank all those who have guided us and made our years memorable ones. Special thanks also go to Mr. Donald J. Evans, who has helped us to bring you the news each week for the Dallas Post. We would like to wish all underclassmen the best of luck in their future years as Dal-Hi and especially to Bruce Hopkins, who will be your Dallas Post reporter for next year.

Have a safe and happy summer, "Dee Dee" and Sue

Thanks - Thanks - Thanks
Faculty advisors for the weekly news column appearing in the Dallas Post extend deepest thanks to those persons responsible in the handling of the numerous news items and features which were seen in print by students and the general public.

Out thanks to Susan Kitchan and "Dee Dee" Pope for their faithful, and very efficient reporting of news events in the school year. Both merit a deserved "well Done." Thanks, also to Mrs. Jean Wilson and Mrs. Ethel MacAvoy, office secretaries, who typed news items, and lent every cooperative effort to get the column in print each week, finally, to the editors and printing staff of the Dallas Post who printed our school news faithfully and in complete detail - - - our grateful thanks and appreciation.

Shavertown

Rev. Robert Yost, pastor of Shavertown Methodist Church, who returns to this congregation for his 15th year will be feted at a breakfast on Sunday morning by the men's club.

Shavertown firemen turned out in force for the Dallas Legion Memorial Day parade with twenty members marching, an innovation for the local squad with other volunteers driving the three pieces of equipment.

Classes are drawing to a close for this year and the youngsters are counting the days until school is out on the 12th.

Fire and Ambulance cards are now being collected. If you are missed, drop in with your contribution at the Fire Hall in the evenings. This is one of your most valuable causes to support.

Ted Poat, celebrating his birthday on May 24 was feted by his wife, Helen at a dinner party, May 28 at the Franklin Tea Room. The day was spent in a welcome family get together. Attending were Mrs. Evan Owens, Bethlehem; Mr. and Mrs. Percy Love, Sr., Shavertown; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelley, Mrs. Emma Martin, Wesley Poat, and Miss Earlamond Harrison, all of Wilkes-Barre.

Incidentally, Ted is serving on the Kis-lyn murder case.

Celebrating in a big way this month is the Anthony Plata family. Ruth will observe her birthday anniversary today, Tony Sr., on the 13th and Tony, Jr., on the 17th.

Here And There
Mrs. Charles Peake underwent surgery at General Hospital on Thursday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lukaszewski, Jr., on the birth of their first son.

Mrs. Edna Johnson left last Thursday to visit friends in Philadelphia.

Our prayers go out to Walter Oake at Temple University Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reese and Mrs. Alice Reese spent Memorial Day with Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hughes at Ringtown, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stahl had as holiday visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoffman, Binghamton.

It was good to hear that Dan Shaver is on the mend and returned home from Nesbitt Hospital on Saturday following earlier surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clause, daughter, Brenda; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hill and sons, Jay C. and Tommy, spent the Decoration Day weekend at their Red Rock retreat.

Mrs. A. J. Moreck entertained members of her circle on Monday evening.

Taking advantage of the fine weather, Mrs. Lillian Kunkle hosted her card club at a covered dish dinner on Monday.

Mrs. Harry Alberts is a patient in General Hospital.

We are happy to hear that Mrs. Charles Gosart is improving after a recent illness.

Jack Siderek, who is employed in Connecticut, was able to spend the holiday with his family on Beech Street.

Mrs. Sarah Reese Ferguson is still recuperating at her home from recent surgery.

Our best wishes to Cecil and Ruth Poynon on their 30th anniversary. It was most pleasant to have Judy Woolbert and Nancy Seiber drop in to see Fred at Geisinger. Both girls are making fine records there, Judy as student nurse of the year, and Nancy as president of her class.

It has been a rough week and then some, and I am thankful that Fred is now improving after arterial surgery.

Birthdays
Greetings this week to Cornelius Dominick, Roger Griffith, Lewis Underwood, Jack Magee, Jr., Paul A. Dodson, Tommy Evans, Nancy June Smith, Edward Swingle, Mrs. Dan Shaver, Richard J. Griffiths, II, John Campbell, Gerry Pope, Mary Anne Evans, Kenneth James Sprau, Russell Eyer, John Eliott, Lisa Zimmerman, Wayne Casterline, Ollie Daubert, Beverly Gosart Gerrity, Neil Turner.

Linda Ann Rogers, Teddy Wilson, Mrs. Annott Jones, Peggy Mahoney, Charles W. Reed, Harold Zimmerman, Sara Lynn McRay, Mrs. Ruth Mack, Nancy Sieber.

Lack of space last week eliminated several birthday names so belated best wishes to Patti Lynn Lewis, Charles Gosart, Jr., Peyton Lee, III, Bob Ash and Robert Dominick.

Westward is Pinnacle Rock State Park, and Bramwell, noted for fine old homes. Dipping briefly into old Virginia, there is a drive through an 11 1/2-foot deep seam of the well-lighted Pocahontas exhibition coal mine. Bluefield calls itself "the air-conditioned city"; pretty girls serve free lemonade on the streets any day the temperature soars up to 90.

Return trip highlights are Organ Cave, named for its great white stalactite formations which produce musical notes when tapped; Lewisburg's revered Old Stone Presbyterian Church, which has been in continuous use since 1796; and Hawks Nest State Park for a spectacular panorama of New River Canyon, 585 feet below.
