

Dallas Senior High School

by Bruce Hopkins
Sign Here, Please: The yearbooks arrived last Friday and now you see everyone signing everyone else's yearbooks. They even ask the teachers, who they complained about all year, to sign them. But, of course, that's just to make the teacher feel good.

Congrats, Pat: Congratulations to Pat Cully who has been chosen as the "Miss Seventeen" representative from Dallas High. The contest, sponsored by Lazarus Department Store, will be held at Irem Temple during the first two weeks of August. Gloria Grant represented our school last year.

The Music Stops: The Band ended its activities for this year with the Memorial Day Parade. The uniforms have been turned in so that they will be ready for another season.

SCAT Tests: The results of the SCAT tests, administered on May 9, have been received by Mr. McCutcheon and anyone who has not yet picked up their results is advised to do so tomorrow.

College Board Grades: All those who took the College Boards on May 2 will be able to pick up the results at the end of June or beginning of July. The College Boards will be held again on July 8, for all those who have not yet taken them.

Finis: The Juniors and Sophomores feel somewhat healthier today because they took the last of their final examinations yesterday. Now all they have to worry about are the grades.

Wash 'Er Car, Mister? Car Wash—the Key Club Marching Units will hold a car wash Saturday at Clyde Birth's Esso Station, Dallas. All sales and profits will be donated to the marching units.

Bye: Well, the Class of 1964 is now ready to start planning its reunions! Baccalaureate Exercises were held Sunday afternoon at 4:00. Reverend Robert Germond was speaker. Commencement was held Tuesday at 8:00. Dr. Lowell Russell Ditzen, author-scholar - world traveler - clergyman delivered the address on "Facing Tomorrow."

Fond Memories; Fond Regrets: Although the seniors have graduated, they haven't exactly "left" yet. We still see most of them roaming the halls, having their yearbooks signed, and signing others. It almost seems as if they hate to leave.

Top Spot, Soon: Meanwhile, the countdown for Juniors and Sophomores has reached the point they've all been waiting for - one more day.

We, the class of 1965, are anxiously looking forward to "our" year. But, for tomorrow, we'll still be juniors. We would like to extend our best wishes to the Class of '64 and hope the future brings them all the happiness they wish for and deserve. I, myself, would like to give special thanks to Susie Kitchen and Dee Dee Pope for the help they have given me in getting started as a Dallas Post reporter. I hope they succeed in all they try and wish them the best of luck.

Vacation Daze: Now, until September, I'd like to wish everyone a happy and safe vacation.

DALLAS Junior High NEWS

This week is really heavily scheduled.

Monday, Mrs. Cathrall's Dramatics Club will present its second play of the year, Uninvited Guest. The cast is Kim Roddy, Jeff Morris, Gretchen Heft, Bill Kowitz, Jack Updyke, Sandy Smith, Judy Wilson, Debby Tanner, Diane Hozempa, Mollie Townsend, and Norma Thomas.

Also on Monday the Student Council will hold its big heyday. We're all going to Wolf's Grove for a picnic, swimming, baseball, and a lot of fun.

Friday is Awards Day and by all means don't forget the softball game here, at the Junior High, at 6:30. It'll be the Dallas Faculty Team vs. the WARM Softball Softies for the benefit of the Kiwanis Freddie Henneball Fund.

Thursday night at 7:30 is our Freshman Farewell Dance. The theme of the dance is "Spring Carousell" and the music will be supplied by Bobby Baird's orchestra.

Additional Graduates At West Central H. S.

The following Back Mountain seniors will be among those receiving diplomas tonight from West Side Central Catholic High School.

Not included in the list of graduates sent to the Post for tabloid insertion last week are the following from the Shavertown and Trucksville areas:

Lorraine Bednar, Jean Burrier, Alice Dorosky, Ann Glenn, Eugene Judge, John Kritchon, Jr., Edward Lenahan, Joan Montedonico, all of Shavertown; Barbara Wazeter, Helen Cummings, John Bourke, Margaret Matlowski, Trucksville; Nancy Gilroy, Carverton, and Henry Mastasky, Dallas.

Arthur Ondish To Graduate

The name of Arthur Ondish, R. D. 3, Dallas was erroneously omitted from the list of Dallas Senior High School graduates published last week.

Upon graduation, Arthur will take up a position in upholstery.

Jay Ruckel Wins Lions Club Scholarship

President Joseph Schappert is shown presenting the Harvey's Lake Lion's Club Scholarship to Jay Ruckel while Principal Anthony Marchakitus looks on. Awarded to a graduating student of Lake-Lehman, this scholarship will be utilized by Mr. Ruckel as he furthers his education at Wilkes College where he plans to major in psychology.

Jay has been quite active in sports, class and club activities, and community work. As valedictorian of his graduating class, Jay delivered one of the honor orations at Lake-Lehman's graduation activities.

Masters Degrees Given Eckert And Miller

Two high school friends have followed identical careers, continuing their higher education at the same colleges and receiving their diplomas at the same ceremonies.

On June 1, Donald Eckert, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Eckert, Shavertown, was awarded his Master's Degree from Villa Nova College.

The young man graduated from Dallas Township High School in 1953 and Stroudsburg State Teachers College in 1957. Following graduation, he began teaching duties at Haverford Township Schools, where he is presently employed.

He is married to the former Joanne Lewin, Dallas, and there is a small son, Donnie.

William Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Miller, East Dallas, also was awarded his Masters Degree at Villa Nova. A graduate of Dallas Township High School, he received his teaching degree from Stroudsburg State College.

A member of the faculty of Emmaus High School, he is married to the former Doris Christianson, Prospect Park. They are the parents of a daughter, Kimberly.

Man's normal temperature is 98.6 degree Fahrenheit, and a healthy person can maintain this temperature in climates ranging from cold to hot.

LAKE LEHMAN High School News

"The History of the Marimba", her sister "Lollie"; third prize to Beverly Moyer for her model construction of a living room; Susan Fielding received honorable mention for her book cover illustration of a Spanish Street scene, done in watercolor. Art materials were awarded as prizes.

Congratulations to Linda Connor who has been selected to represent the Lake-Lehman Area as "Miss Seventeen" in a contest to take place in August. This contest is sponsored by Lazarus Department Store, Wilkes-Barre.

Congratulations to Douglas Ide and Howard Ellsworth for being chosen to attend the Rotary Leadership Training Camp this summer. The National Honor Society Assembly was held on May 22. Members were presented with certificates and pins by Mr. Robert Z. Bellas; also Student Council officers and members were inducted into office.

On Thursday, May 28, the annual moving up day program was held at Lake-Lehman. Senior students entertained by singing and rewards were presented by high school teachers, and also from the V.F.W. and the Marines, while students from ninth, tenth, and eleventh grades took seats in areas they will occupy in the auditorium next year.

Class night was held Friday in the auditorium. Seniors were awarded small tokens and a class will and prophecy was read. They presented a skit and songs from Camelot, their version written and directed by Mr. John Zaleskas.

Baccalaureate was held on Sunday, June 7, at the high school. Speaker for the event was Reverend Jones, of Sweet Valley. The Lake-Lehman chorus entertained by singing: "He," "Hear My Prayer," "Holy, Holy, Holy," and "Onward Christian Soldiers."

The big day came for seniors at Lake-Lehman on Tuesday, June 9, when they held their graduation. This year's class has 134 graduating. Diplomas were presented to the graduates by Mr. Sutton.

On June 6, Lake-Lehman Band, under direction of Mr. John Miliauskas, journeyed to Sherburne, New York to participate in a contest of bands. They were rated on their ability in marching, concert, and their half-time performance. The trip was made by bus. Chaperones for the trip were: Miss Huttenstine, Miss Antonello, Mr. Threston and Mr. Miliauskas.

Congratulations to the baseball team for their "never say die" attitude resulting in the victory over Dallas High School on May 27, 9 to 8.

Award Winner

CLINTON G. HESS

Highest ranking member in his division, Clinton G. Hess, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hess, Upper Demunds Road, received the Dobson Medal in Commerce and Finance at graduation ceremonies Monday evening at Wilkes College.

Clinton, who was an honor student at Dallas High School received a scholarship to Wilkes upon his completion of studies there, also receiving a commendation from the National Merit Society.

He was graduated Cum Laude from Wilkes and was also awarded a Gold Key and $25.

Married to the former Kay Ide, the young man has accepted a position with the U.S. Government at the Naval Depot in Harrisburg and he and his wife left for that area yesterday to establish residence in the State Capitol.

While at Wilkes, Hess was a member of the Accounting Club, Circle K Club, and Wilkes Chorus. He was also on the Dean's List.

Final examinations were administered to students on June 8 and 9. On June 11, students had no school as teachers had to correct final exams.

On June 12, students will attend school for only half a day to receive report cards for the final marking period.
