Miss Judith Elva Clark
Bride Of Eugene Gaydos

Miss Judith Elva Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Clark, RD 1, Tunkhannock, was married to Eugene M. Gaydos, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Gaydos, Carverton Road, Trucksville, June 6th at 2 p.m. in St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Tunkhannock.

Rev. Edward P. Townsend officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Jennifer Jerald, Tunkhannock, was soloist and Robert Snover organist. The church was decorated with bouquets of white carnations, gladioli and candelabras.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length gown of nylon sheer over taffeta with a fitted bodice featuring a square neckline edged in schiff embroidered cumberbund from under which flowed a sheer apron covering bows of embroidered ruffles which fell into a chapel train. Her headpiece was a crown of pearls and aurora stones to which was attached a veil of illusion. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations and roses.

The bride's sister, Miss Linda Clark, was maid of honor. Her strapless light blue satin gown featured a floor length bell-shaped skirt and was topped with a sleeveless jacket. She wore a matching crown headpiece of seed pearls with a circular veil and carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white carnations.

Joseph Mordent, Jr., Nicholson, was best man. Ushers were Ralph J. Elston, Dallas, cousin of the bride and Joseph Chambers, Mehoopany.

The mother of the bride wore a light blue linen sheath dress with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Peter Arrighetti, Old Forge, N. J., chose a black chiffon dress, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Mrs. James E. Knecht, Dallas, grandmother of the bride, selected a pink linen sheath dress, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors, after which the couple left on a trip to Canada and the New England States. For her going away outfit, the bride wore a lavender and white pin-stripe suit, white accessories and white carnation corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fertich and Pauline, Lavelle, visited the G. S. Williamses, Dallas, on Saturday.
